

MANY WEDDINGS of SOCIAL NOTE this week

Miss FLORENCE GILBERT

AIMÉ DUPONT PHOTO

Miss LILLA GILBERT
AIMÉ DUPONT PHOTO

Miss LILLA GILBERT

PHOTO BY AIMÉ DUPONT

Some Well Known Young People Are to Pledge Themselves for Life in the Course of the Coming Week—Various Engagements Are Announced.

Spring weddings continue to engage the attention of society, and several notable ones have been arranged for this week. With the closing of the opera season many will go to Tuxedo, Long Island, or some of the resorts along the Hudson to await the opening of the summer seasons at Newport, Bar Harbor and other seaside places popular with the fashionable world.

One of the notable weddings of the week will be that of Miss Virginia Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Alexander Murray, and Robert L. Bacon, a son of the former Ambassador to France and Mrs. Robert Bacon. It will take place to-morrow afternoon in the chapel of St. George's Church, and after the ceremony there will be a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Murray, No. 38 West 81st street. The Rev. Dr. Endicott Peabody, head of the Groton School, Groton, Mass., will officiate, assisted by the Rev. Hugh Blackhead, of Emmanuel Church, Baltimore, formerly rector of St. George's Church. Miss Murray will be attended by Mrs. Ogden L. Mills, Miss Martha Mason, a sister of the bridegroom; Miss Edith Mortimer and Miss Josephine Osborn. Gaspard G. Bacon will be his brother's best man, and the ushers will include Alexander D. Grant, Francis W. Sargent, Jr., and Robert Winsor, Jr., of Boston; George Whitney, J. Watson Murray, Elliot C. Cowdin, 2d, Henry A. Webb, Jr., and James Jackson Higginson, of New York. Most of the ushers were classmates of Mr. Bacon at Harvard in the class of 1907.

Another wedding of importance this week will be that of Miss Lilla B. Gilbert, daughter of Mrs. H. Bramhall Gilbert, and Howard Price Renshaw, of Troy, N. Y., and this city, which will be celebrated at the home of Mrs. Gilbert, No. 40 West 67th street, on Tuesday afternoon. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Kirkland Husko, of Great Neck, Long Island, in the presence of about three hundred relatives and friends. Miss Gilbert will have her sister, Miss Florence Gilbert, as maid of honor, and a younger sister, Miss Elizabeth Gilbert, will act as flower girl. Her young brother, Harry Gilbert, will serve as page. John Payne, of Troy, cousin of the bridegroom, will be best man, and there will be no ushers. Mr. Renshaw and his bride will spend a part of their honeymoon in Europe.

Plans are complete for the marriage of Miss Caro Q. Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen H. Brown, to Franklin Richardson, of this city. It will be celebrated at the home of her parents, No. 154 East 70th street, on Wednesday, May 7. Miss Brown will be attended by Mrs. George W. Carpenter, Miss Ursula Brown and Miss Angelica Schuyler Brown. Franklin Richardson will serve his brother as best man, and the ushers chosen are Frederick C. Inman, E. Drexel Godfrey, Lawrence E. Rand and William R. Sinclair. Mr. Richardson will give his farewell bachelor dinner on May 2 at Delmonico's.

Another wedding set for May 7 will be that of Miss Helen Ogden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ogden, and Andrew Murray Williams. It will take place in Grace Church, and a reception will follow at Delmonico's. Miss Ogden's only attendant will be her sister, Mrs. David Gregg, Jr. Colonel Caffee, U. S. A., will be best man. Mr. Williams was graduated from Princeton and the Harvard Law School, and is a member of the Princeton and Harvard clubs and also of Squadron A.

Society in New York will be interested in the marriage of Miss Evelyn Peily, who was lady-in-waiting to the Duchess of Connaught when she visited this city last autumn, to Captain Thomas H. Rivley, of the Scots Guards and aide-de-camp to the Governor General of Canada, which will take place next Saturday in London. Miss Alice Astor, daughter of Mrs. John Astor, will be one of the bride's attendants.

Alumnæ of Miss Spence's School will give an entertainment on Wednesday and Thursday of this week in the Aerial Theatre, on the roof of the Amsterdam Theatre Building, for the benefit of tuberculous children connected with Bellevue Hospital. "Shades," a one-act farce, will be produced in the afternoon, with Miss Priscilla Flagg, Miss Dorothea Darlington, Miss Helen Rich and Miss Jeanette Flagg in the cast. At the evening performance "Without a Flaw," a burlesque on "Within the Law," will be given by members of the Society of Architects of the Ecole de Beaux-Arts. There will also be three ballet dances by young women in society, graduates of Miss Spence's School. Among those who will take part in the first dance, called "Day," will be the Misses Grota Hostetter, Priscilla Flagg, Helen Rich, Mary Buchanan, Caranall Carroll, Margaret Kane, Gertrude Mull, Marguerite Kennedy and Marguerite Walker. In the ballet of "Night" will be Misses Isabel Foots, Margaret Trevor, Gertrude Hill, Helen Eslegston, Dorothy Taylor, Harriet Lammis and Diantha Fitch. The entertainment will close with a dance of "Nymphs and Shepherds" by Mrs. S. Inman Bird, Mrs. R. D. Hawley, Miss Priscilla Flagg, Miss Margery Shannon, Miss Dorothy Flagg, Miss Vouletti Proctor and Miss Jeanette Flagg. The young women who will act as ushers include Mrs. Carl Victor, Mrs. Douglas L. Elliman, Mrs. David Taylor and the Misses Pauline Clarkson, Margaret Overton, Julia Edey, Elizabeth Sabin, Molly Brooks, Edith Cook, Julia Ball, Marjorie Cleveland, Viola Plaher and Marjorie Dodd.

Under the auspices of the women's auxiliary of the University Settlement, Society an auction bridge, the dancing and gymkhana will be given at the Plaza next Saturday afternoon. Among the women interested in the affair are Mrs. James Speyer, Mrs. George F. Shady, Mrs. Joseph Hosland, Miss Edith Kendall and Miss Gladys Stout. The proceeds of the entertainment will go toward the maintenance of the summer camp conducted by the auxiliary at Montclair, N. J. The camp was started three years ago by the president of the auxiliary, Mrs. John R. MacArthur, and is composed of four bungalows and a pavilion, with hot and cold water baths. The entertainment will have several features to amuse the children, and young women in costume will serve tea during the afternoon.

In aid of St. Katharine's Home, Jersey City, an auction bridge will be given on the afternoon of April 25. Among the patronesses are Mrs. Archibald S. Alexander, Mrs. George H. Post, Jr., Mrs. Lewis Fredrick Prellinghuysen and Mrs. John Lewis Hay, from whom tickets may be procured.

The New York College Settlement, in Rivington street, is arranging an entertainment, consisting of music and dancing, which will be given at the Ritz-Carlton on April 22. Among those who have consented to act as patronesses are Mrs. James Speyer, Mrs. George F. Baker, Mrs. W. Bourke Cochrane, Mrs. Charles H. Coster, Mrs. Herbert Parsons, Mrs. James Lees Laidlaw, Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Mrs. Benjamin Nicoll, Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel, Jr., Mrs. Cadwalader Jones, Mrs. Seth Low, Mrs. Henry Morgenstern, Mrs. T. Douglas Robinson, Mrs. Aigernon S. Sullivan, Mrs. George McAneny, Mrs. Nelson H. Henry, Mrs. Egeron L. Winthrop, Jr., Mrs. John Hays Hammond, Mrs. Archer M. Huntington, Mrs. A. Gordon Norrie, Mrs. Edward R. Hewitt, Miss Mabel Choate and Miss Martha Draper. Tickets may be obtained from Miss Elsie Nicoll, No. 18 East 20th street.

Baroness Lita von Elener will give a matinee musical at the Princess Theatre on Tuesday afternoon, April 22, for the benefit of St. Rose's Free Home for incurable Cancer. The patronesses include the Duchess Dowager of Newcastle, Princess Pierre Troubetzkoy, Mme. Lillian Nordica, Mrs. Robert J. Collier, Mrs. Charles M. Oelrichs, Mrs. Frederic Nelson, Mrs. Leonard M. Thomas, Mrs. Samuel A. Clarke, Mrs. Morgan J. O'Brien, Mrs. Lyttleton Fox, Mrs. Theodore Havemeyer, Mrs. J. Duncan Emmet, Miss Annie Leary, Miss Evelyn Crimmins and Miss Rosalie O'Brien.

The Stony Wood benefit production of "The Three Tribes of Helvetia" at the Berkeley Theatre on Thursday and Saturday evenings of this week will be one of the most artistic affairs given for charity during the season.

Among the patronesses are Mrs. Henry Villard, Mrs. Reginald de Koven, Miss E. Louise Sands, Mrs. Arthur M. Dodge, Mrs. M. Lawrence Keene, Mrs. Frederick E. Jennings, Mrs. John H. Hannan, Mrs. E. R. Newcomb and Mrs. James Lees Laidlaw.

As the play deals with life among the early tribes of Helvetia, their ancient customs, from which evolved our modern idea of statehood and compromise, every effort has been made to make the atmosphere distinctly typical of Helvetia, and young women of St. George's Church, who are to act as ushers, will wear the medieval Swiss costume, while two of the young men of the church, costumed as mountaineers, will assist. The yodels, which were melodies and were the only music of ancient Switzerland, will be given in place of the customary orchestra music.

Well known society girls will appear in the series of tableaux, "Angels in Art," to be given at the Little Theatre, on the evening of April 25 and the afternoon and evening of April 26 for the benefit of the Chrystie Street House. Sixteen famous paintings of old masters will be shown and among those who will appear in them are Miss Dorothy Morrison, Miss Frances Henry, Miss Louise Rogers, Miss Helen Hagen, Miss Amy B. Johnson, Miss Louisa Johnson, Miss Mildred Brewster, Miss Hope Hamilton, Miss Margaret Overton, Miss Susanne Warren, Miss Dorothy Schieffelin, Miss Edith Jay and Miss Julia Breitman.

The Motor Car Touring Society will hold its first spring run next Saturday, when the members of the society and their friends will go to the Piping Rock Country Club, on Long Island, where luncheon will be served. Albert Eugene Gallatin is president of the society, Percy R. Fyne, 2d, vice-president, and M. Orme Wilson, Jr., secretary. Among the members are Francis L. V. Hoppin, Malcolm Douglas Steane, Hermann Oelrichs, R. Thornton Wilson, Vincent Astor, Harold S. Vanderbilt, Cortlandt Field Bishop, W. B. Osgood Field, William W. Hoffman, Bull Hollister, McKim Hollins, Marshall R. Kerochman, Newbold Morris, Ogden Mills Reid, Oliver Iselin and Robert Golet.

Miss Gertrude Herbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Warne Herbert, will be married to Edward Delaney Dunn, of Newark, N. J., on Tuesday, April 22, in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine.

Miss Herbert will have as her attendants Miss May Armour, of Kansas City, and Miss Aileen Devereaux, of Cleveland. The ceremony will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, No. 85 Fifth avenue.

Mrs. Charles E. Locke, of No. 14 West 69th street, will give a musical to-day at her home. The artists will be Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Volpe and Mme. Marie Mattfeld.

Mrs. Albert Canfield Page will give a theatre party on April 23. She will take her guests to the Maxine Elliott Theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Underwood and her daughter, Mrs. R. Wayland Smith, of No. 42 West End avenue, who spent the winter on the Continent, are now in London.

Mrs. Julius Hubbell Seymour gave a dinner on Thursday at her home, No. 304 West 86th street, for Mr. and Mrs. H. H. V. Koelle, of Montreal, who are her guests. Mrs. Seymour gave bridge parties on Wednesday and Friday afternoons.

The dates for next season of the New Assembly Dances, under the management of Mrs. Wendell C. Phillips, are Friday, December 5; Monday, December 23; Friday, January 25, and Tuesday, February 24. They will take place, as usual, at Delmonico's.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Gleason, of the Ansonia, will give a bridge party and dance on Thursday evening, April 17, at the Ansonia.

Mrs. Anna R. Adams, of No. 150 West 85th street, will give a luncheon, followed by bridge, on Thursday at the Hotel Plaza.

Two of the popular debutantes of the winter were Miss Virginia Gordon and Miss Margaret Oppenheim.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Ladin have returned from abroad and are at the Hotel Gotham until they leave for their country place at Ellsford, at Lake Forest, Ill.

Mrs. Anna R. Adams, of No. 150 West 85th street, will give a luncheon, followed by bridge, on Thursday at the Hotel Plaza.

Mrs. ADRIAN ISELIN
AIMÉ DUPONT PHOTO

Mrs. Edward Franklin Cole gave a musical tea on Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at her home, No. 201 West 106th street. A delightful programme was rendered, and each guest on departing was presented with a silver souvenir. Mr. and Mrs. Cole will leave about the middle of May for Europe to spend the summer. They will tour the Continent in their automobile, which they keep on the other side in readiness for their annual trip abroad.

Mrs. Charles Vincent Paterno has sent out cards for a bridge party at the Casino, 132d street and Riverside Drive, on Monday afternoon, April 21.

Mrs. Paterno will give her last at home for the season on Friday afternoon, April 25, when she will give a thé d'après.

Mrs. Bedell Parker, of Euclid Hall, Broadway and 86th street, gave a bridge party on Friday for Miss Esther Winkler, who is to be married to Herbert Brown on May 28, and Miss Isabel Decker, who is engaged to Livingston Fountain.

Mrs. Joseph E. Janvrin, Dr. E. R. P. Janvrin and Miss Janvrin have moved from No. 191 Madison avenue to No. 515 Park avenue.

A large luncheon will be given at Delmonico's on Monday afternoon for the members and friends of the Women's Auxiliary of Flower Hospital. The "Gold Room" will be used, and the color scheme of gold and tan will be carried out in the flowers and clever little menus. These will show a picture of the new hospital building, the first that has been publicly exhibited.

The luncheon comes as a pleasant climax to the most successful season the auxiliary has had. Not only has the membership been largely increased, but the play, dances and afternoon teas have proven a financial gain. As a result the auxiliary has been able to broaden the scope of its work, and has just given the money for a beautiful room in the new building to be known as the Frances Black Memorial.

Dr. Royal S. Copeland will deliver a short address at the luncheon, and Miss M. Gwyn Jones will sing, accompanied by Mrs. Donald Newton.

The committee in charge includes Mrs. Orlando Von Bonnevitz, Mrs. William Tod Helms, Mrs. R. S. Copeland, Mrs. Wendell Barker, Mrs. D. E. S. Coleman, Miss Edna Simons, Mrs. L. A. O'Brien, Mrs. W. G. Crump and Mrs. L. L. McKee.

Announcement was recently made of the engagement of Miss Helen Paris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Paris, of Flushing, Long Island, to Warren Carson Smith, of this city.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Vera Dorothy Hotson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Hotson, of Pelham, to Alfred Du Mond Hammett, of Pelham Manor. Miss Hotson is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta, Barnard. Her fiancé graduated from New York University in the class of '11. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Gertrude Putnam McMannis daughter of Mrs. William McMannis, of this city, will be married to H. Stanley Chase, of Chicago, on Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, No. 250 West 10th street. Miss McMannis is a daughter of the late William McMannis, who was chief engineer of the City of New York for several years. Mr. Chase is a son of the late Horace Gair Chase, founder of the Chicago Title Guarantee and Trust Company. He is a grandson of Judge Horace Chase, of New Hampshire, and a great-grandson of Captain Jonathan Chase, who was on General Washington's staff at Yorktown. He is in the banking and brokerage business in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. McCarron, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Clara Frances McCarron, to Grindall Jerome Burns, of this city. Miss McCarron is a granddaughter of the well known artist, the late William Hart, a member of the National Academy. The wedding will take place on Wednesday, April 23, in the Church of the Sacred Heart, Mount Vernon.

Mrs. Grace Spencer Wood, of No. 179 West 73d street, gave a luncheon, followed by bridge, on Wednesday at the Hotel Gotham.

Colonel and Mrs. John Hersey Andrews gave a children's thé d'après on Tuesday at their home, No. 507 West End avenue, for their two small daughters, Miss Beatrice and Miss Margaret Andrews, and their son, John A. Andrews, 2d.

The last for this season of the series of dances known as the Four Ceilings will take place on Friday at Delmonico's.

Mrs. L. L. Smith gave a luncheon, followed by bridge, yesterday at the Hotel Belleclaire, Broadway and 77th street. Her guests numbered fifty.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. V. Taylor, who have been in California for the winter, have returned to town and are at the Hotel Astor.

Mrs. S. N. Parent and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Major, of Ottawa, Canada, are at the Hotel Astor for a short visit before leaving for Atlantic City, where they will be at the Marlborough-Blenheim for a stay of two weeks before returning to Ottawa. Mrs. Parent is the wife of the former Premier of Quebec.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Delta Tau Delta Club, of New York City, gave a Delta dance at the Columbia Yacht Club, 90th street and the Hudson River, on Friday evening. There was general dancing and supper was served at midnight.

Among the patronesses were Mrs. Edwin W. Orvis, Mrs. James B. Curtis, Mrs. G. Pratt Cutter, Mrs. Charles O. Maas, Mrs. Samuel P. Conner, Mrs. Charles F. Cutter, Mrs. Joseph P. Brandenburg, Mrs. John W. Lieb, Jr., Mrs. Ringland F. Kilpatrick, Mrs. A. H. Mellinger, Mrs. Robert U. Redpath, Mrs. Clarence C. Harp, John C. Coleman, Mrs. J. D. Beale, Mrs. Mrs. Joseph E. Ware, Mrs. George W. Williamson, Mrs. Howard C. Hillman, Mrs. A. Y. Pringle, Mrs. Paul McCulloch, Mrs. Oliver G. Davis, Mrs. Arthur W. Connable, Mrs. Frank E. Idell, Mrs. William D. Hoxie, Mrs. William G. Hamilton, Mrs. G. W. Porter, Mrs. G. Glenn Newell and Mrs. Manning Stiles.

The Rayson Alumnae Association gave a vaudeville and dance last night in the