

Musical Notes and Comment

Meiba. An incident of his season at the Academy was the production of his first opera, an English one, "The Scarlet Letter."

"HAENSEL" IN ENGLISH.

In the fall of the year, beginning on October 3, Sir Augustus Harris, then director of Covent Garden brought a company of singers from London and began what was to be a long season of "Hansel and Gretel" in English at Daly's Theatre.

THE CASTLE SQUARE COMPANY.

Christmas Day, 1897, saw the advent of Henry W. Savage's Castle Square Opera Company, (so named after its home in Boston) at the American Theatre.

Majestic Theatre, and there seems to have been a third company singing songs where else. The Knickerbocker Grand Opera Company had an existence of two days.

In an educational supplement of the Tribune, published on September 5, 1908, Mr. Savage, after telling about his thirty-two years of experience with opera in English, said: "I want to follow up my success by doing 'Hansel and Gretel,' Wagner's entire 'Ring' and all the good Wagner's entire in English."

VISITORS FROM FOREIGN CLIMES.

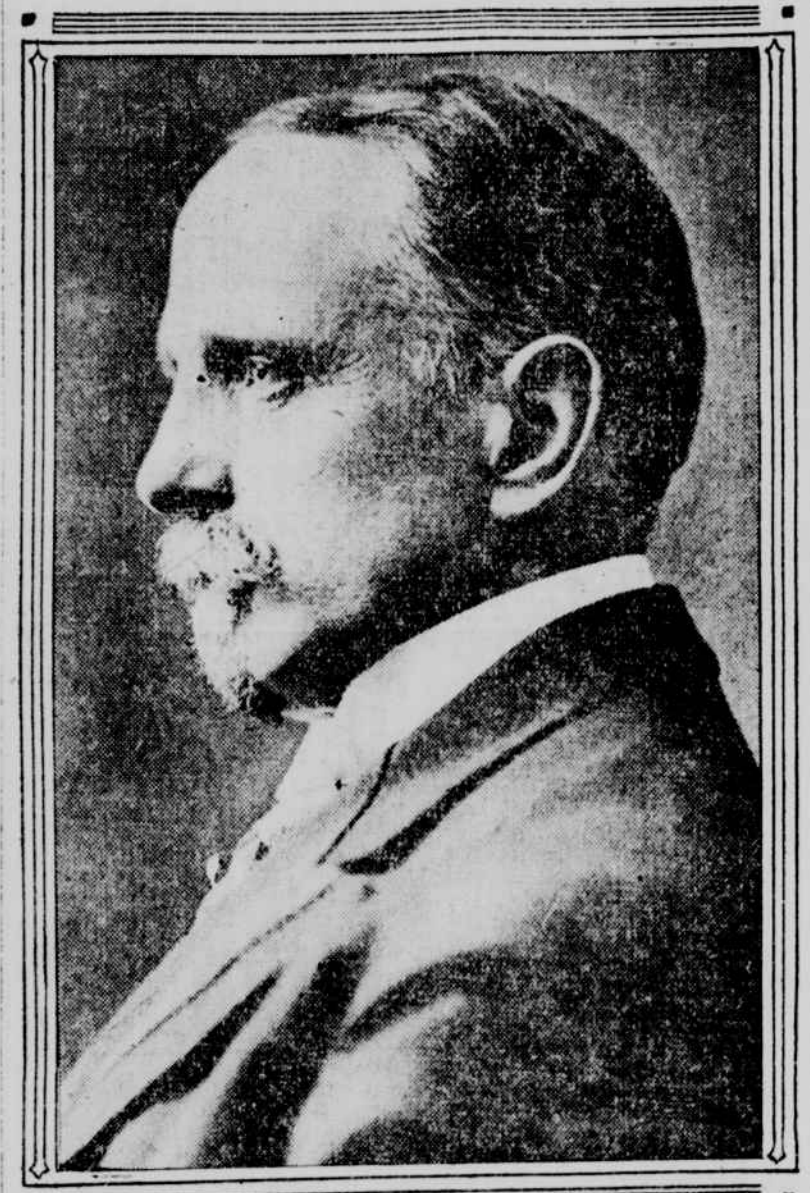

On May 16, 1904, an Italian company, which left a memory at least, opened what was to be a long season at Waldorf Theatre.

The woful outcome of the enterprise which brought Massenet to the Metropolitan Opera House in October, 1902, which has been overlooked till now, ought to be fresh in the memory of all who take an interest in operatic history.

MORE RECENT FAILURES.

A few more hurried notes and this strange, eventful history must be brought to a conclusion. On March 11, 1904, Charles's French company from New York began what was to be a three weeks season at the Casino.

Thursday evening with Mile Bori and Messrs. Marenz, Scotti, Pini-Corsi and Bada, Mr. Toscanini will conduct. "Tosca" will be sung Friday night by Miss Furrer, Mme. Maffroug and Messrs. Caruso, Scotti, Bada, Pini-Corsi, Bogu and Ananiam. Mr. Sturani conducting.

Prof. Walter Henry Hall, Director of Columbia University Choral Concert, Apr. 16.

Not a few musical celebrities were among those to whom the recent floods in the Middle West brought recent financial losses. Without going so far afield, the Barrere Ensemble met with disaster in the upper part of New York State, while on its way to Williams College.

SCHOLA CANTORUM.

The MacDonnell Chorus of the Schola Cantorum will give the following programme at its concert under the direction of Kurt Schindler in Carnegie Hall on Thursday evening:

Two Italian Church Anthems, (First given in English); Bachmanoff Gloria to the Trinity; Gethshnanoff The Crucifixion; Entrée-Bourne; Giuseppe Verdi, 18th anniversary commemoration of the 100th anniversary of his birth.
