Caldwell a Surprise and Yankees Triumph

White Sox Unable to Master the Delivery of the Reformed New York Pitcher.

ALLIANCE ONLY FOUR HITS

Chance's Men Drive Cicotte from the Box and Make It Two in a Row in Spirited Fashion.

Ray Caldwell, pitching the same glib edge brand of ball that caused the critics to predict a brilliant future for him when he first joined the Yankees...

RAY CALDWELL. Who won his first game of season for Yankees yesterday, allowing four hits.

In scoring his initial triumph Caldwell left little to be desired. With all the stuff in the world on the ball, he let the White Sox down with a walk, four hits, and two runs...

It was an even thing until the fifth frame, and then the White Sox got a ringer around. Collins started by driving a fly to left field, on which Cree made a most sensational leaping catch...

If the prophets of ill croaked and declared that lone run would win, they were far off in their reckoning. The sixth inning found the Yankees in an argumentative frame of mind...

Although Caldwell's catch of the fly by Collins in the fifth inning was easily the best play of the game, there were other meritorious deeds performed. Hal Chase was named off Hal at the initial base...

NAPS END WINNING STREAK OF RED SOX

Capture Both Games of Double-Header by Hard and Bunched Hitting.

Boston, July 31.—Cleveland put an end to Boston's winning streak and took both games of a double-header here today, the first by a score of 5 to 2 and the second by a score of 4 to 2.

Only one Cleveland player reached first up to the seventh inning of the first game, but in the seventh and eighth innings Bedient was batted hard and had to be relieved by Hall in the latter inning.

The Naps batted two pitchers out of the box in the first inning of the second game, and scored all its four runs at that period. Hall then held the visitors to two hits in eight innings.

EVEN MARQUARD FALLS BEFORE VICIOUS CUBS

Giants Go Down to Defeat in Second Game of Series with Johnny Evers's Nine.

HAVE ONE BIG INNING

Champions Take Lead in Sixth and Drive Lavender from Box, but Fail to Hold the Hard Earned Advantage.

Chicago, July 31.—Not even the mighty "Rube" Marquard could stave off the growling Chicago Cubs at West Side Park this afternoon.

Before the Cubs won there were stirring times, for the Giants were loath to drain the bitter cup of defeat twice in succession. They voted their sentences in no mild manner, and in the sixth inning became obstreperous beyond all restraint.

The discomfort of Marquard was no less than that of Lavender, even if it was of the game is charged to another. It was only the quick action of McGraw in removing him that saved his seat.

Montreal, Quebec, July 31.—After being five runs behind at the seventh inning, Newark beat out Montreal here today by a score of 6 to 5 in the eleventh.

SUPERBAS BOW AGAIN IN HARD FOUGHT GAME

ROBINSON IS A MYSTERY

Brooklyn Plays a Fast, Snappy Game, but Fails to Hit in Pinches, and Loses Decision to Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh, July 31.—Sailing around the vicinity of Pittsburgh while the Buccaneers are roaming the seas on plunder here is a Superbas pastime, and the Brooklyn Dugout was compelled to walk the plank again this afternoon.

Hank Robinson was the man behind the guns for the Pirates, and although he missed fire and gave one pass and hit two batsmen his offerings were not to faulted by the visitors when it came to a pinch.

Next Half the Card on Last Day of Meeting at Belmont Park Track.

R. F. Carman wound up the Metropolitan Jockey Club meeting at Belmont Park yesterday by winning three races in a row, with Water Lily, Ella Bryson and Kalinka. He was not at the track to enjoy the fun, as he had gone to Saratoga Springs to arrange stable room for the meeting which begins to-morrow, but his son attended to the saddling, and quickly flashed the good news.

RECORD FOR SPRING BOARD

Gainey Captures the Youthful Stakes Like a Colt of Class—Move Now to Saratoga.

Gainey's victory in the youthful stakes was the other feature of an excellent day's sport, and from a racing point of view aroused chief interest. The winner of Punch Bowl, which has pretensions to a place in the top flight, robbed the race of an attractive angle, and allowed J. L. Holland's Martinet colt to stand out as the logical winner. He lived up to the promise and won like a youngster of high quality.
