rubber this season. His lack of condition was shown when District secured three hits and four runs off his delivery in the first two innings.

Detroit's left fielder, Hoyle, made the start in catching the ball, and after a long run, which he pulled down with one hand.

The Kismet team made a regular merry-go-round of the ninth inning, securing five runs, with but one out, when the umpire called the game on account of darkness.

EASY FOR MORRIS PETERS.

Champion's Knee Weak, but There Will Be No Postponement.

A special from Harbin Springs, Cal., says that when the champion Jim Jeffries awoke yesterday morning he was not very much encouraged by the feel of his injured knee. But by 11 o'clock when the doctor arrived the swelling had subsided.

JEFFRIES-MUNROE FIGHT.

It is announced that the fight will positively not be postponed. Despite the objections of Harry Pollock, manager of Munroe, Billy Goetz insists on Eddie Graney as the referee of the fight.

Both men have trained faithfully and well. The champion, except for his swollen knee, is in particularly fine condition. When the referee, Munroe, Billy Goetz, insisted on Friday he tipped the scale at 234 pounds.

Jeffries will go into the ring in the pink of condition, said Delaney. "He will enter the ring a trifle larger than he ever was before but he does not intend to enter with speed, I would not care if he weighed a ton."

As the day for the Jeffries-Munroe bout draws near interest in the fisty battle, with the heavyweight championship of the world involved, is becoming more intense.
