WELL-KNOWN MEN OF THE METROPOLITAN POLICE FORCE

They Are the Ten Lieutenants in Charge of the Ten Precincts Into Which the City Is Divided, and Each Is a Model Officer.

Every local Washingtonian takes pride in the reputation of the Capital City, and takes pleasure in knowing that the city is the home of men whose personal habits and characters are a credit to themselves and their city. Of the members of the Metropolitan police force, it must be remembered that many have been in its service for years. The officers are well trained and well disciplined. Several of the members have been in the force for over twenty years.

W. J. DAILY, Ninth Precinct.

This lieutenant's appointment was made October 21, 1899, as sergeant, and he was promoted to lieutenant January 17, 1902. Later Private Myers has held assignments in various parts of the city. He was born in the District of Columbia and has been in the force since 1876.

One of the most veteran officers in the force is Lieut.-Col. John T. Allen, who has been in the force since 1875. He was born in Virginia and is a graduate of the University of Virginia.

LIEUT. RICHARD S. BOYCE, Third Precinct.

This lieutenant was born in the state of New York, and has been in the force since 1878. He was appointed a corporal in 1879, and was promoted to sergeant in 1880. He has been in the force ever since.

One of the most active officers in the force is Lieut. Frank F. McGraw, who has been in the force since 1874. He was appointed a corporal in 1880, and has been in the force ever since.

LIEUT. JOHN A. SWINDELLS, Seventh Precinct.

This lieutenant was born in the state of Alabama, and has been in the force since 1878. He was appointed a corporal in 1879, and has been in the force ever since.

LIEUT. JOHN KENNEY, Tenth Precinct.

This lieutenant was born in the state of Pennsylvania, and has been in the force since 1878. He was appointed a corporal in 1879, and has been in the force ever since.

The Tenth Precinct.

The Tenth Precinct, like the First, consists of the eastern half of the city. It is made up of the Seventh and Eighth Ward precincts. It is bounded by the Potomac River on the north, and the navy yard on the south. It is composed of the eastern half of the city, and includes the district from the Fourth Street Bridge to the Washington Monument.

The First Precinct.

The First Precinct is the smallest of the ten, and consists of the western half of the city. It is made up of the First and Second Ward precincts. It is bounded by the Potomac River on the north, and the navy yard on the south. It is composed of the western half of the city, and includes the district from the Fourth Street Bridge to the Washington Monument.

The Second Precinct.

The Second Precinct is the largest of the ten, and consists of the central part of the city. It is made up of the Third and Fourth Ward precincts. It is bounded by the Potomac River on the north, and the navy yard on the south. It is composed of the central part of the city, and includes the district from the Fourth Street Bridge to the Washington Monument.

The Third Precinct.

The Third Precinct is the smallest of the ten, and consists of the eastern part of the city. It is made up of the Fifth and Sixth Ward precincts. It is bounded by the Potomac River on the north, and the navy yard on the south. It is composed of the eastern part of the city, and includes the district from the Fourth Street Bridge to the Washington Monument.

The Fourth Precinct.

The Fourth Precinct is the largest of the ten, and consists of the western part of the city. It is made up of the Seventh and Eighth Ward precincts. It is bounded by the Potomac River on the north, and the navy yard on the south. It is composed of the western part of the city, and includes the district from the Fourth Street Bridge to the Washington Monument.

The Fifth Precinct.

The Fifth Precinct is the smallest of the ten, and consists of the northern part of the city. It is made up of the Ninth and Tenth Ward precincts. It is bounded by the Potomac River on the north, and the navy yard on the south. It is composed of the northern part of the city, and includes the district from the Fourth Street Bridge to the Washington Monument.

The Sixth Precinct.

The Sixth Precinct is the smallest of the ten, and consists of the southern part of the city. It is made up of the Eleventh and Twelfth Ward precincts. It is bounded by the Potomac River on the north, and the navy yard on the south. It is composed of the southern part of the city, and includes the district from the Fourth Street Bridge to the Washington Monument.

The Seventh Precinct.

The Seventh Precinct is the smallest of the ten, and consists of the eastern part of the city. It is made up of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Ward precincts. It is bounded by the Potomac River on the north, and the navy yard on the south. It is composed of the eastern part of the city, and includes the district from the Fourth Street Bridge to the Washington Monument.

The Eighth Precinct.

The Eighth Precinct is the smallest of the ten, and consists of the western part of the city. It is made up of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Ward precincts. It is bounded by the Potomac River on the north, and the navy yard on the south. It is composed of the western part of the city, and includes the district from the Fourth Street Bridge to the Washington Monument.

The Ninth Precinct.

The Ninth Precinct is the smallest of the ten, and consists of the central part of the city. It is made up of the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Ward precincts. It is bounded by the Potomac River on the north, and the navy yard on the south. It is composed of the central part of the city, and includes the district from the Fourth Street Bridge to the Washington Monument.

The Tenth Precinct.

The Tenth Precinct is the smallest of the ten, and consists of the northern part of the city. It is made up of the Nineteenth and Twentieth Ward precincts. It is bounded by the Potomac River on the north, and the navy yard on the south. It is composed of the northern part of the city, and includes the district from the Fourth Street Bridge to the Washington Monument.

The Eleventh Precinct.

The Eleventh Precinct is the smallest of the ten, and consists of the southern part of the city. It is made up of the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Ward precincts. It is bounded by the Potomac River on the north, and the navy yard on the south. It is composed of the southern part of the city, and includes the district from the Fourth Street Bridge to the Washington Monument.

The Twelfth Precinct.

The Twelfth Precinct is the smallest of the ten, and consists of the eastern part of the city. It is made up of the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Ward precincts. It is bounded by the Potomac River on the north, and the navy yard on the south. It is composed of the eastern part of the city, and includes the district from the Fourth Street Bridge to the Washington Monument.

The Thirteenth Precinct.

The Thirteenth Precinct is the smallest of the ten, and consists of the western part of the city. It is made up of the Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth Ward precincts. It is bounded by the Potomac River on the north, and the navy yard on the south. It is composed of the western part of the city, and includes the district from the Fourth Street Bridge to the Washington Monument.

The Fourteenth Precinct.

The Fourteenth Precinct is the smallest of the ten, and consists of the central part of the city. It is made up of the Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth Ward precincts. It is bounded by the Potomac River on the north, and the navy yard on the south. It is composed of the central part of the city, and includes the district from the Fourth Street Bridge to the Washington Monument.

The Fifteenth Precinct.

The Fifteenth Precinct is the smallest of the ten, and consists of the northern part of the city. It is made up of the Twenty-ninth and Thirtieth Ward precincts. It is bounded by the Potomac River on the north, and the navy yard on the south. It is composed of the northern part of the city, and includes the district from the Fourth Street Bridge to the Washington Monument.

The Sixteenth Precinct.

The Sixteenth Precinct is the smallest of the ten, and consists of the southern part of the city. It is made up of the Thirty-first and Thirty-second Ward precincts. It is bounded by the Potomac River on the north, and the navy yard on the south. It is composed of the southern part of the city, and includes the district from the Fourth Street Bridge to the Washington Monument.

The Seventeenth Precinct.

The Seventeenth Precinct is the smallest of the ten, and consists of the eastern part of the city. It is made up of the Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth Ward precincts. It is bounded by the Potomac River on the north, and the navy yard on the south. It is composed of the eastern part of the city, and includes the district from the Fourth Street Bridge to the Washington Monument.

The Eighteenth Precinct.

The Eighteenth Precinct is the smallest of the ten, and consists of the western part of the city. It is made up of the Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth Ward precincts. It is bounded by the Potomac River on the north, and the navy yard on the south. It is composed of the western part of the city, and includes the district from the Fourth Street Bridge to the Washington Monument.