MISS E. C. NOYES A BRIDE

Wedded to John W. Thompson in St. Thomas's, Washington.

Washington, Dec. 3.—Several hundred guests from official and resident society thronged St. Thomas's Church this afternoon to witness the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Crosby Noyes and John William Thompson, of Washington.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, Theodore William Noyes. The bride's gown was of the conventional kind, gracefully carried out in white satin.

The six bridesmaids—Miss Ida Stander, of Great Barrington, Mass.; Miss Dorothy Dennis, of Merristown, N. J.; Miss Dorothy Tracy, of Lakewood, N. J.; Miss Elinor Lerner, Miss Frances Brooks and Miss Edith Noyes—were blue gowns, similar to that of the matron of honor.

POTTER—DOUGLAS.

Miss Jesse Leah Douglas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hall Douglas, was married to Walter Potter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Potter, last evening at the home of her parents, No. 195 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn.

HEYMANN—GOLDSMITH.

Miss Beryl Goldsmith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Goldsmith, of this city and Paris, became the bride of Emil Heymann, of this city, yesterday.

Free admission to the American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Aquarium, evening. Public School No. 40, Irving Place, 7 p. m. Meeting of the University of Michigan Club of New York, Lawyers' Club, 1 p. m.

PRESIDENT WILSON LAID UP

Gold in the Head Confines Him to White House. (From The Tribune Bureau.) Washington, Dec. 3.—The President was laid up to-day with a cold in his head and did not venture outside the White House, even to the executive offices.

CONCERTS AND OPERAS MULTIPLIED

The Effect of Superabundant Song and Piano-forte Recitals.

The musical affairs of which serious attention was publicly invited yesterday were a pianoforte recital by Katharine Goodson at Aeolian Hall in the afternoon, a song recital by Mr. and Mrs. Reed Miller at the same place in the evening, a performance of "Faust" in English at the Century Opera House, with a change of singers in the afternoon and one of "In Ballo in Maschera" in Italian at the Metropolitan Opera House in the evening.

THE "MASTER STATESMAN"

Achievements of Mr. Asquith Set Forth by an Admirer.

Mr. Asquith has none of Mr. Roosevelt's engaging frankness, but there never arises in one's mind the faintest doubt of his complete genuineness or of his perfect freedom from hypocrisy.

EXTRACTS FROM COL. HARVEY'S EDITORIAL

His Characteristics Are Compared with Those of Mr. Roosevelt.

There is something, indeed, almost impersonal about Mr. Asquith's air on a public platform or when he rises to address the House. He seems independent of all emotional communion with his audience.

WANT TRIBESMEN TO DROP WAR FOR WORK

Schools and Dispensaries Are to Replace Bullet Doctrine—No Religious Plans.

"Purely humanitarian, and not religious," was the way Miss Virginia Young, formerly head deaconess of St. George's P. E. Church, characterized the work she and Mrs. Lorillard Spencer are planning to carry out among the Moros in the Philippines.
