A SPLENDID INVESTMENT.
The sole owner of the stock of the Peoria Starch Manufacturing Company is desirous of retiring from the business for excellent reasons, and has authorized the undersigned, being intimately connected with the business, to offer the same at a price which will be a chance rarely available for an excellent and sound investment. The Company possesses all the modern machinery, and the machinery is in full operation, and the facilities for the supply of corn and other necessities are equalled by no other factory. Applications must be prepared to furnish satisfactory evidence of good faith before negotiations are entered into. The amount of $25,000 has already been secured by parties who know the value of the investment. Address F. C. N. ROBERTSON, Secretary, Box 15, Peoria, Ill.

DRY GOODS, &c.
PARDRIDGES,
State-st., West Madison-st. (NEAR MORGAN).
Order Dep't.
There is no question but that the most satisfactory way of buying goods by ladies living out of the city is to order Samples of the kind of goods required, stating colors, about the price wishing to pay, etc.
Very little argument is needed to demonstrate the large saving effected by ladies who buy of our establishment.
The storekeeper in a small city, town, or village, as a rule, supplies himself with goods from the jobbers in the nearest large city. These again make their purchases from New York Jobbing houses, who buy from Importers and wholesale dealers, and these in turn deal with the manufacturing houses at home and abroad. Thus, before reaching the customer, the goods have passed through no less than four intermediate hands, each of whom takes a toll on them in the shape of profit, insurance, storage, bad debts, etc., and the whole amount of the toll must be paid by the person who finally buys the goods.
On the other hand, we deal directly with the manufacturers here and in Europe, thus relieving our customers from the charges of three extra middlemen. Concentrating a vast business under one management, we are enabled on all staple goods actually to under sell almost every jobbing house in New York and Chicago, so that for all staple goods our customers in the country really pay far less than the price at which their local storekeeper could buy them, to say nothing of the price at which he could afford to sell them.
Why not avail yourselves of these advantages? Why not embrace this opportunity of securing first-class and fashionable goods, under an absolute guarantee of satisfaction? We send all goods C. O. D., with privilege of examination; if not satisfactory, return to us.
In ordering Cloaks, Dresses, Underwear, or ready-made garments of any description, send measurements or sizes usually worn. Remember, all goods sent with privilege of examination, so that you can order Corsets, Hosiery, Underwear, Cloaks, Dresses, etc., without entailing any risk of getting anything that would prove unsatisfactory. We ask you to test the truth of our assertions by giving us a trial order. Money refunded or goods exchanged, should they not prove satisfactory when bought. Send for samples or description, with sizes of made-up goods, and we promise you that in your purchases we will save you money, and your dealings with us will be satisfactory.
