

New Comers and Old Comers In New and Old Guises

Phoebe Foster is coming "Back Home" in a new Veiller-Cobb play.

"Some Baby" they'll say when they see Francine Larrimore at the Fulton.

"Search me," says Ethel Grey Terry in the new McHugh farce at the Gaiety.

"Chin Chin" has a new lease of life at the Globe. Gladys Zell, one of the rejuvenators.

Natalie Alt, "The Girl Who Smiles" at the Lyric. Photo by White.

Martha Hedman comes back with "The Boomerang" at the Belasco. Photo by White.

Miss Elsie Ferguson will continue an "Outcast" until she stars in "Matrimony."

No, it's put on to stay! Mae Murray in the Ziegfeld Follies. Photo by White.

Wouldn't you like to be a bird catcher? The "Ostrich Ballet" in "Hands Up" Photo by White.