

Strengthening Feeble Minds at Letchworth Village

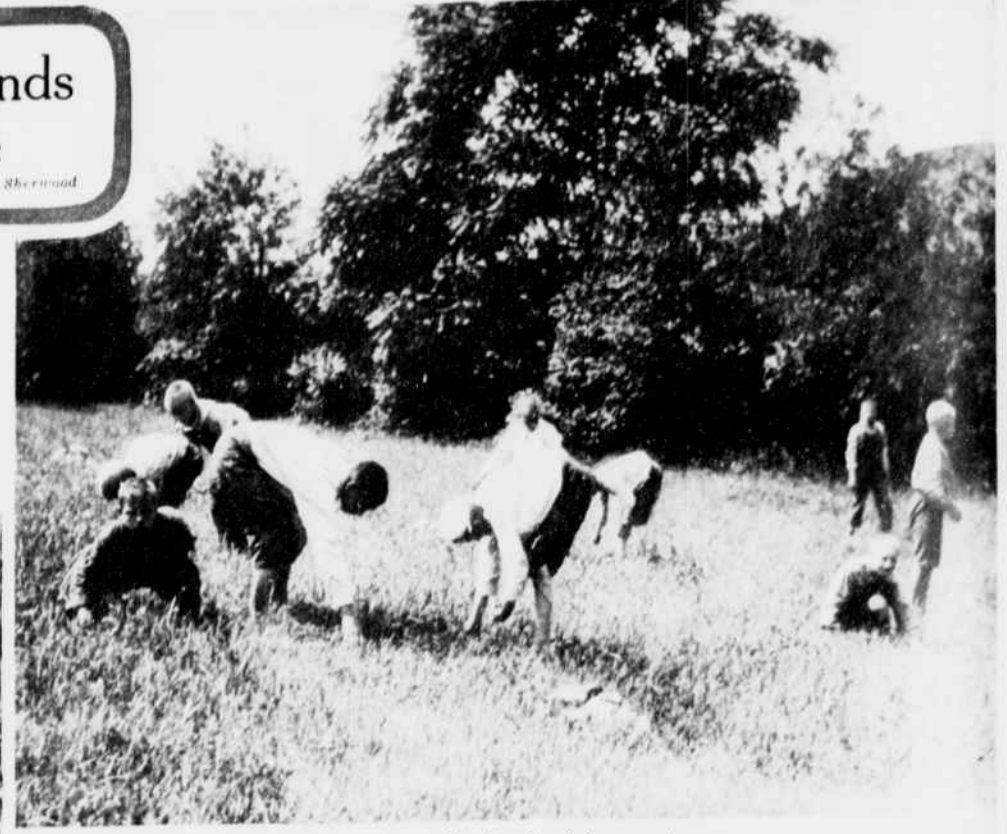

Photos by Herbert F. Sherman

Play and work are combined in the twelve-acre truck garden.

The youngest inmate.

Helping clear the land of loose stones.

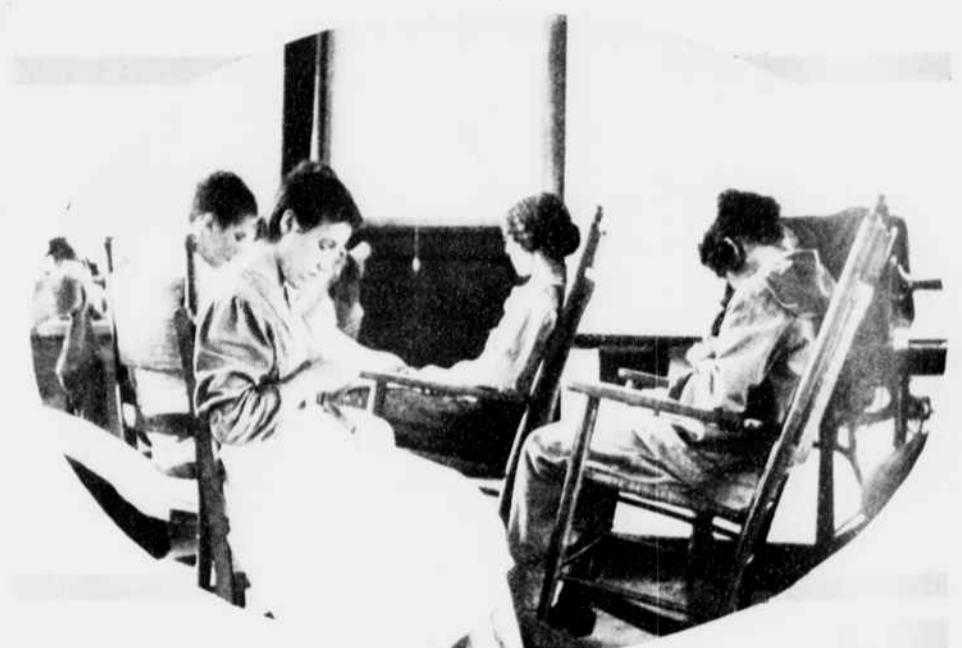

Recreation in the bathing pool.

"Deacon" David, the oldest member of the family.

On the slide in the play hour.

There is interesting and educational work for all.

The dinner bell has a welcome sound to lusty appetites.

Letchworth Village lies in the lap of the Ramapo Hills.
