

School Days for Young and Old Mark the Calendar

Beginning with the coming year, the Flag Day Parade, as here shown, will become a fixture in New York City Schools.

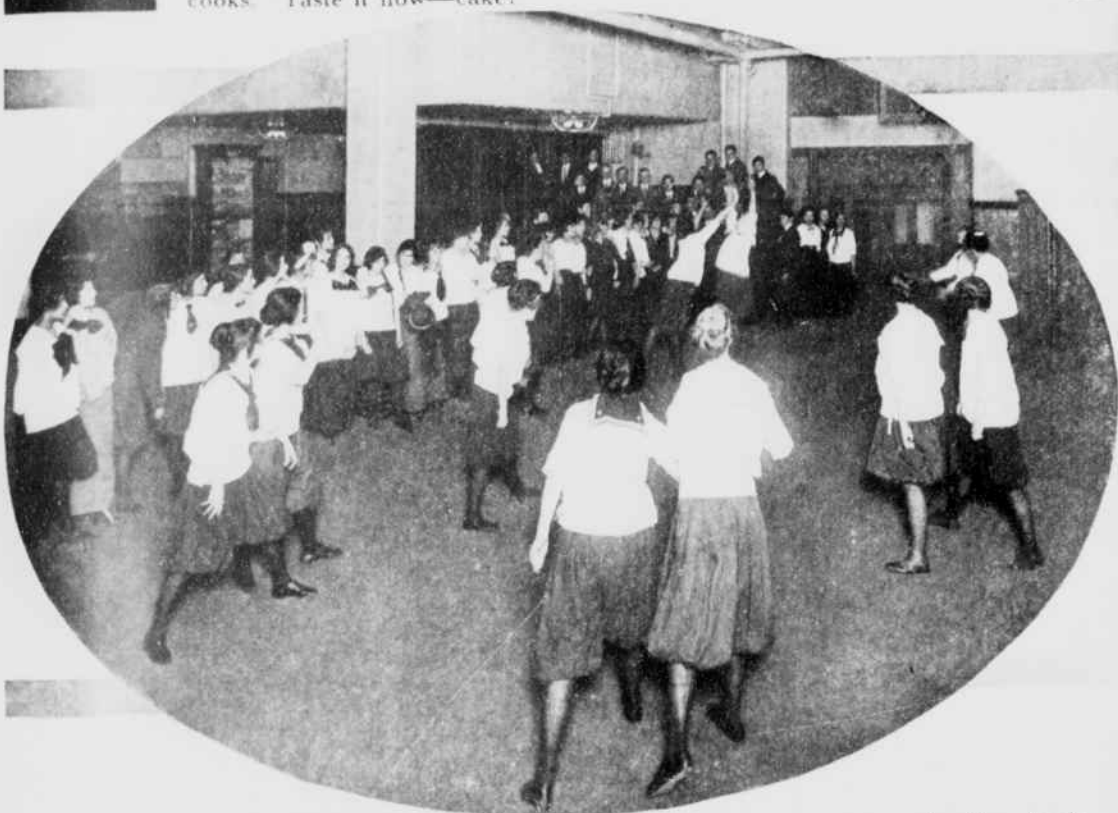

Without being a press agent for T. R., New York public schools teach the practical care of babies. Milk pasteurization. Photo by Paul Thompson

The Gary system, now being introduced in New York City, makes good cooks. Taste it now—cake!

All for one, one for all, New York City's school need. A mother's Singing Class.

The recreation centre develops body and comradeship in the night atmosphere.

New York City School Climbers, mentally and physically, seek the ladder to fame.

Training school children to use fire escapes.

First the flag of our country—The melting pot of the nations at white heat.