The Red Cross Retriever. A dog, yes—but he is doing a hero's work exemplifying the fighting spirit of France. He discovers the wounded, he carries water, he delivers messages, all with a mute courage deserving a better fate. The camera has caught him as his wounded leg is being bandaged—a really "human" picture! This full-page photograph appears in the Graphic Section of next Sunday's Tribune. Men, women and children who love dogs should reserve copies now. The Sunday Tribune First to Last—the Truth: News-Editorials-Advertisements
