

American members of the Commission for Relief in Belgium—Left to right: Francis Potter and Philip K. Potter, N. Y.; Prof. Robert F. Hamilton, Amherst, Mass.; Harry W. Bradford, Martin McIntyre Brown, of Cincinnati; Wm. McKee Dunn, of Richmond, Va., and Frederick Lekslein, of New York.

A group from New York's Czech community of the upper East Side, connected with the Jan Hus Choral Union of the Jan Hus Neighborhood House. They gave a Slavonic entertainment in Aeolian Hall last Friday evening.

The M. F. H. of the Pinehurst dogs; he isn't strong in the line of logs;

but when the pack gets into stride he demonstrates that he can ride,

A safe tee first at Pinehurst and the Gallery Gods that follow the ball.

The Universal Film City photographer says this pictures the first snow in California in twenty years. It's between him and the Weather Man.