Washington, March 28.—Counsel for the opposition to the confirmation of Louis D. Brandeis as an associate justice of the Supreme Court today filed a brief with the Senate Judiciary subcommittee, asserting they had proved that Mr. Brandeis had violated the canons of professional ethics of the American Bar Association, had made false and misleading statements, had been guilty of duplicity in the performance of his professional duties, had represented interests opposed to the public welfare and had been guilty of sharp practices. The sub-committee probably will vote Saturday on its report.

McCLELLAN WINS IN POPULARITY

True to Princeton spirit, and to Princeton men, George W. McClellan, '86, formerly Mayor of New York, was chosen most popular professor in the faculty, and Booth Tarkington, '93, was named as the class's favorite writer of fiction. His Penrod Schofield is 1916's favorite character in contemporary literature. Lincoln is called the most loved character in history, although a few modernists hunt out for William Jennings Bryan, Shakespeare and his "Macbeth" are the class's favorite playwright and play, with George Bernard Shaw following close on the bard's heels. Tennyson is the favorite poet, and his "Crossing the Bar" is the favorite poem. Ella Wheeler Wilcox missed the position of worst poet by a narrow margin, that distinction falling on Edmund Wilson, member of the class.
