

ALMAS TEMPLE OFF; THREE COACHES FULL

Arab Patrol Hopes to Win Prize in Competitive Drill.

BAND IS ENGAGED FOR STEADY USE

Sweet Music to Follow Washington Delegates Like Mary's Lamb. Honor Place in Parade.

With a real hunch that the Arab Patrol, their zouave guardsmen, would come back to Washington winners in the competitive drill next Wednesday, members of Almas Temple, Mystic Shrine, left Washington at 5:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon for St. Paul, where the annual meeting of the Imperial Council of North America will begin tomorrow. The sessions will continue through the week, and when the delegates are not busy in the convention hall they will be trying to do all the things the entertainment committee has outlined.

The local delegates are not to be outdone, and to make the residents of St. Paul and visitors from other cities realize just what a bang-up aggregation it is, they have engaged the exclusive services of the Commercial Band of St. Paul to play lively tunes at their heels all the time they are in the Western city. Furthermore, they have done what even the St. Paulites would not dare do—they have changed the name of the band to the Almas Temple Band for the occasion, and it has already received its instructions to play strictly in Washington time—a little behind that of St. Paul, it is true, but, nevertheless, the correct thing.

Fill Three Sleepers.

Three Pullman sleepers and a baggage car were necessary to set the local delegates out of town. Even then it required the services of an engine. Potentate Roe Fulkerson was in charge of the party, and a right busy man was not getting his men into line. The party will reach Chicago at 4 o'clock this afternoon. They will have dinner in the Windy City, and will be joined there by members of the Grand Temple of Baltimore. The joint party will leave Chicago at 6:30 o'clock tonight and will reach St. Paul at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

As a matter of precaution—in case, it is said, the delegates find difficulty at any time in expressing their joy at being in St. Paul—5,000 cards have been provided for them and other visitors bearing the inscription "I'm much obliged to meet you," which will save a little trouble sometimes.

Given Honor Place in Parade.

A big parade has been arranged for Tuesday night, and Almas Temple has been assigned one of the honor positions in line. The patrol has been invited to give a drill before the Imperial Council, and will also give an exhibition drill next Thursday which will be observed by members of the Grand Temple of Baltimore.

The Almas patrol will be represented in St. Paul by the following: Captain, F. E. Gibson; first lieutenant, C. A. Stewart; second lieutenant, C. F. Cummins; B. F. Dierdorf, R. Harper, J. S. Hamby, J. E. Nyman, S. H. Deckman, M. A. Hess, J. Leaman, C. W. Hoover, H. W. Eibel, W. W. Georges, G. W. Tolson, H. E. Walls, W. C. Smailwood, J. Crosby, J. Eberlein, J. E. Bonini, R. W. Summers, S. G. Barnard, A. C. Crook, S. N. Reicher, C. F. Cummins, S. Desio, J. E. Wells, H. G. Brown, C. C. Grey, C. R. Samson, and G. W. Welgand.

The special delegates are Potentate Roe Fulkerson, Past Imperial Potentate Harrison Dingman, Past Potentate Frank Sebring, Thomas P. Morgan, and Dr. Frank Gibson. The party also include E. M. Fisher, Lem Towers, Jr., Prof. Goetz, Mr. Downham, Mr. and Mrs. James Lansburgh, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Trazzera, Orville Drown, Mrs. S. Aman, Holton Wolf, W. W. Bonini, and Nathan Weil.

ROYAL BETROTHALS END VICISSITUDES

Prince and Princess Overcome Parental Objection—Patricia Refused King to Wed Marquis.

LONDON, July 11.—Two royal engagements are about to be announced. The first will be that of Princess Patricia of Connaught and the Marquis of Anglesey. The young people have been devoted to one another for two years, but the Connaughts opposed the match. Two months ago they came to terms, invited the marquis to dinner, and have been friendly with him ever since.

Everybody knows the princess refused the King of Spain and the Count of Turin because she preferred the marquis. The other engagement is that of the princess's brother, Prince Arthur of Connaught, to Lady Marjorie Manners, the Duke of Portland's daughter.

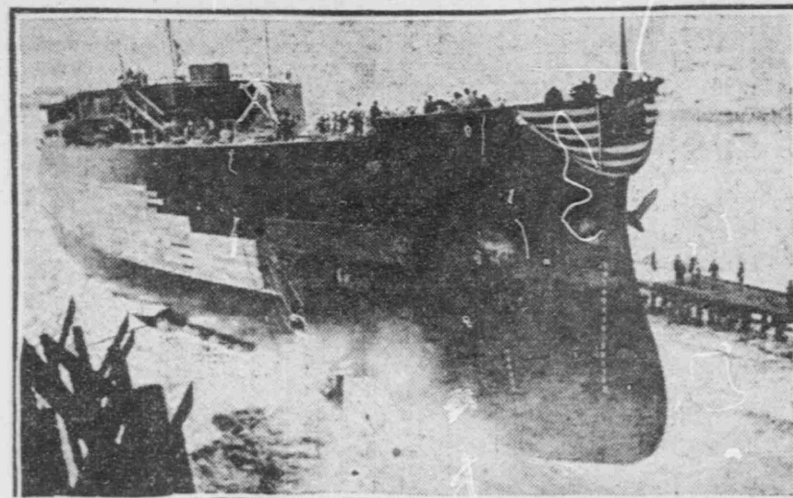

The course of true love didn't run smoothly in this case either. King Edward wanted Arthur to wed a foreign princess, and it took much argument to make him give up his plan.

CITY POSTAL RECEIPTS.

The total receipts for the Washington City Postoffice for June aggregate $109,227.29, divided as follows: Sale of stamped paper, $96,276.92; second-class postage, $3,541.61; third-class postage, paid in money, $166.12; box rent, $35.80; sale of waste material, $119.45; surplus derived from sale of stamped paper in fractional lots, $37.33. This is an increase over June, 1935, of $5,444.91, or 5.7-10 per cent.

NEW DREADNOUGHT OF NAVY

The New Battleship South Carolina, as It Glided Into the Water Yesterday.

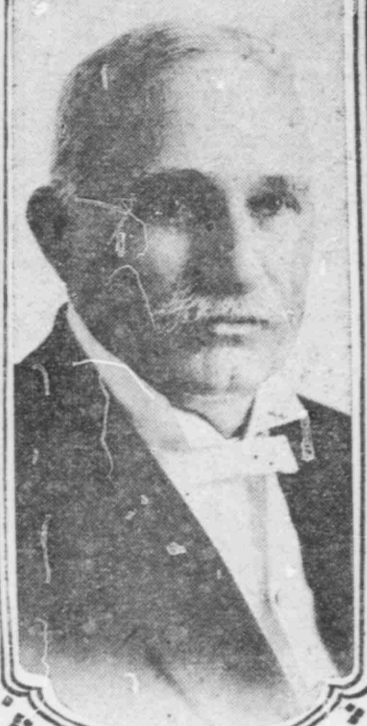

LAUNCH BATTLESHIP AT CRAMP YARDS

Miss Frederica Ansel Christens the Giant South Carolina in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, July 11.—Before one of the largest crowds of distinguished persons that ever gathered at Cramps' shipyard, the South Carolina, the newest battleship of Uncle Sam's navy, was launched at 12:36 o'clock today.

Miss Frederica Calvert Ansel, daughter of Gov. M. F. Ansel, of South Carolina, broke the bottle of champagne on the ship's bow as she left the ways. The launching was not marred by accident, and as the latest and most powerful acquisition to the navy took the water, the craft in the Delaware river let loose their whistles and dipped their colors in honor of the newcomer.

On the christening stand surrounding Miss Ansel were her father, governor of the State after which the new ship is named, together with his full staff. The South Carolina is the second of the "dreadnought" type, and is termed the "all-big-gun battleship." A few weeks ago her sister ship, Michigan, was launched at Camden.

GOV. MARTIN F. ANSEL, Of South Carolina, Who Attended the Christening of the New Battleship.

CLERKS FLOCK TO RESORTS.

Many of the department clerks left the city yesterday to seek comfort and relaxation at the near-by resorts. There was a general exodus by way of the afternoon trains and boats.

HARTJE APPEALS IN DIVORCE FEES

Pittsburg Manufacturer Thinks Court Was Too Liberal With His Wife.

PITTSBURG, July 11.—Augustus Hartje, the paper manufacturer, who was ordered by Judge Robert S. Frazer to pay his wife, Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje, $2,750 expenses, and $1,000 counsel fees, as a result of their famous divorce cases, has taken an appeal to the supreme court of Pennsylvania. He has furnished a bond for $70,000, and his brother, Richard and Edward Hartje, are named as sureties. Hartje has not asked relief from the order directing him to pay his wife $5,000 a year alimony.

The appeal was filed with Prothonotary Pearson, of the supreme court, July 2, but was kept quiet until today. Hartje believes that the amounts named by Judge Frazer are too large.

ADVERTISING CLUBS ANNOUNCE SPEAKERS

John Barrett and S. S. McClure to Address Kansas City Convention.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 11.—A notable list of speakers already has been secured for the fourth annual convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of America, which is to be held here August 26, 27, and 28. Other speakers will be added before the program is completed.

Among those who have promised to speak are S. S. McClure, proprietor of McClure's Magazine, New York city; Herbert Myrick, in charge of the Phelps Publishing Company, Springfield, Mass.; A. N. Sheldon, of Sheldon University; John Barrett, director of the International Bureau of American Republics; C. H. L. Wernicke, of the Globe-Wernicke Company, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Walter Williams, curator of the University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo.; and Smith B. Queal, president of the association, Cincinnati, Ohio.

BALDWIN BALLOON FINISHED

Captain Baldwin, of New York, has informed General Allen, chief of the Army Signal Corps, of the completion of the army dirigible balloon, which he has made for the department. The balloon will be shipped to Washington next week and assembled, and preparations will be made at once for the trial flights, which are to take place at Fort Myer.

Mgr. O'Connell Sails for Rome With Cardinal Next Saturday

Washington Bishop's Trip Not Thought Significant of Appointment to Other Field—Changes in Catholic University.

Bishop D. J. O'Connell, rector of the Catholic University, will sail on July 18, in company with Cardinal Gibbons and the Rev. Francis O'Donovan, of Baltimore, for Europe. The party will attend the Eucharistic congress in London, where Cardinal Gibbons will be one of the principal speakers, and will then proceed to Rome. Mgr. O'Connell will make the customary visit of courtesy after his recent elevation to the episcopacy, and will also discuss certain changes about to be inaugurated in the Catholic University.

While Mgr. O'Connell's name is prominently mentioned in regard to several vacancies in American dioceses, it is not believed that his visit to Rome at this time will have any bearing on the case. His name was presented as a candidate for the bishopric of Cleveland by the priests of that diocese, and it is also mentioned in connection with the rumor that auxiliary bishops are about to be asked by the archbishop of Milwaukee, the archbishop of Dubuque, and the bishop of Detroit.

The archbishop of Milwaukee, Mgr. Messmer, formerly professor of canon law at the Catholic University, is a close friend of Mgr. O'Connell, and the fact that the prelates will travel together in Switzerland, after leaving Rome, has given rise to the rumor that Milwaukee will be the future scope of labor for the rector of the university, when his term expires, next April. Mgr. Messmer has been in Europe since the spring.

Abolish Law Courses.

Among the important changes which occur in the Catholic University this autumn will be the abolishment of certain courses in law, and in the institute of technology. Dr. Edward C. Robinson will continue dean of the faculty, and will lecture on various branches in the post-graduate department of the legal branches. Judge William H. De Lacy will, however, cease to give his lectures, and the subordinate teachers have also been dropped from the role of professors.

Dr. Albert Zahn at the head of the engineering department, has severed his connection with the Catholic University, and accepted a position with the Geological Survey. The changes were imperative through the desire of the board of archbishops to strengthen the divinity and philosophical departments. While the university finances are in excellent shape and the funds are gradually being disentangled from the Wagonan bankruptcy proceedings, it is necessary for the administration to conserve their resources and strengthen those departments from which they derive the best income.

The rumor is again current of the removal of the great ecclesiastical seminary of St. Mary's in Baltimore to the Catholic University, and it is said that Mgr. O'Connell will confer with the superior general of the Sulpician Order who resides in Rome. St. Mary's is the oldest Catholic ecclesiastical institution on American soil, having been founded in 1863, and there are many sentimental reasons for objecting to its removal.

The wish of the Holy See, however, to make the Washington University the radiating point of Catholicism, will, it is thought, outweigh the objections. The situation of the seminary is now objectionable and becoming more so each year.

Several large tracts of land near the Catholic University have been inspected by President Rev. Edward Dyer, and it is thought that eventually the old Stewart tract which lies on the high ground between the old Kate Chase Sprague property now St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum, and the property recently purchased by the Oblate fathers of Canada will be the future site of the historic St. Mary's.

Another interesting rumor relates to the purchase of part of the Francis E. Riggs estate by the Jesuit Fathers, as a house of study, for the advanced theological students of Woodstock, who wish to take special courses in Georgetown University. The Riggs estate, the Chillum Manor, which figures so prominently in the social records of the District of Columbia has been brought before the public recently, because in the old family graveyard, the remains of Major L'Enfant have reposed for nearly a century. They will, however, soon be disinterred, and probably buried in a vault in the chapel of the Catholic University.

Sails for Naples.

Mgr. Bonaventura Cerretti, auditor of the papal delegation, sailed for Naples on Friday last. He will be absent for two months, and will spend most of the time visiting his parents at their villa near Albano, one of the suburbs of the city. The apostolic delegate, Mgr. Falconio, has not yet received the text of

"RUSH" WORK CUT BY LEECH'S ORDER

Secretary Wilson Allows No Red Tickets Used Without His Signature.

The recent order of Public Printer Leech that 20 per cent extra would be charged to the departments for all printing ordered "rush," which makes it necessary to work overtime or to put aside work in hand at a loss to the office, has resulted in several of the departments making reforms in their printing requirements.

Secretary Wilson, of the Department of Agriculture, has issued a circular letter to his department. He says:

"My attention has been called to the increasing use of the red ticket or 'rush' slip as applied to the printing ordered for the various bureaus, divisions, and offices. Inasmuch as an extra charge of 20 per cent is hereafter to be made by the Public Printer for rush work, it is imperative that the number of such orders be reduced to the minimum. No rush order will hereafter be sent to the Public Printer without the signature of the Secretary."

GIVES HIS PRAYER AS THANK OFFERING

LONDON, July 11.—Some curious incidents marked the great thanks offering of $1,550,000 by the various dioceses of the Anglican Church at St. Paul's Cathedral. One bishop laid on the altar a slip bearing the following words:

"May God Almighty accept this unworthy offering for the Pan-Anglican thanksgiving instead of money. I desire that this be offered at St. Paul's and I pray that after it has been presented it may fall into the hands of some earnest missionary who will win thousands of souls for the Lord Jesus Christ."

The gift was a silver watch.

the papal document which transferred the American church from the jurisdiction of the Propaganda Fide, and places it under the direct control of the papal secretary, Cardinal Merry del Val. This document is expected in about ten days and on its arrival, copies will be sent to every archbishop and bishop, who in turn will transmit the text to every priest in the United States. The change will not become operative until November. Then the most sweeping change will result, and the church will be regulated under the canon law which holds in all Catholic countries. It is said that much of the liberty hitherto accorded the American hierarchy as representing a mission country will not be possible now, and it is suggested that the change is not welcomed. Details of the changes entailed will not be made public until next autumn.
