

CRIES OF "NO! NO!"

A LOUD CHORUS OF PROTEST AGAINST THE SCHOOL BILL.

TEACHERS SHOUT OUT THEIR DISSSENT AT A MEETING CALLED TO SUPPORT THE BILL—SPEECHES FROM COMMISSIONER HUBBELL AND E. ELLERY ANDERSON—GREETED WITH LITTLE FAVOR—SOME HISSES AND PLINY—OF LIVELY COMMENTS—THE WOMEN HAVE LOTS TO SAY.

Determined opposition by the teachers of the New-York public schools to the compromise school bill introduced in the Legislature was manifested again yesterday afternoon at a meeting which had been called ostensibly to favor the passage of the bill. It was a lively meeting, at which all of the regular speakers argued long and earnestly for the bill, and the audience talked back, expressed dissent and asked many disconcerting questions.

A WOMAN RISES TO THE OCCASION.

Cries of dissent came from every part of the hall. After a pause Mr. Hubbell ventured to assert that the wishes of the citizens must be regarded. One woman promptly rose in her place and took Mr. Hubbell to task.

APPLAUSE FOR PRESIDENT HUNTER.

President Hunter was applauded warmly when he rose to speak, but he soon was in trouble. When he said that he would not have stemed the bill if a majority of the teachers had opposed it months ago, there were cries that the teachers had always been opposed to the bill.

MR. ANDERSON'S POINTS NOT POPULAR.

Mr. Anderson declared that the framers of the bill had kept alive before them the question how best to protect the teachers and the children. It was well known, he said, that the selection of teachers by ward trustees was largely by political bias, and that the trustees were not the best men to select the best teachers.

A CHORUS OF REPLIES.

A young reporter on a front was induced by an elderly teacher who sat beside him to get up and ask the question of the lawyers select the judges or are the judges elected by the people? "The people" was the reply in another chorus.

$30,000 TO AUTHORS FOR "Stories of Mystery". THE CHICAGO RECORD offers to authors the sum of $30,000 for original stories written in English, no parts of which have ever been heretofore published. The offer is made upon the following conditions: $20,000 will be paid in twelve cash prizes for the best twelve stories. The money will be divided as follows: First Prize $10,000, Second Prize $3,000, Third Prize $1,500, Fourth Prize $1,000, Fifth Prize $800, Two Prizes of $600 each, Five Prizes of $500 each. Making a total of $20,000. The first prize will be paid for the story adjudged to be the best, the second prize for the story adjudged the next best, the third prize for the story adjudged to be the third in merit, the fourth prize for the fourth in merit, the fifth prize for the fifth in merit, two prizes of $600 each and five prizes of $500 each, thus making the total of twelve prizes in $20,000. $10,000 additional will be paid at space rates for stories of accepted value but which may not be awarded any of the twelve cash prizes. The stories submitted in this competition are required to be "stories of mystery" in other words stories in which the mystery is not explained until the last chapter, in order that readers may be offered prizes for guessing the solution of the mystery in advance of its publication. The stories must reach The Chicago Record at its office of publication, 131 Madison street, Chicago, Ill., before Oct. 1, 1895, and the awards will be made as soon after that date they can be read and judged. For full information authors will address VICTOR F. LAWSON, Publisher The Chicago Record, Chicago, Ill., U. S. A.
