DAILY THOUGHT.

The men the world calls lucky will tell you everyone, That success comes not by wishing but by hard work bravely done.—Anon.

THE CALL

By Clinton Schollard
Hark! From the southlands singing
From the hills it mounts and thrills—
There comes a cry that soars,
Above the hills it mounts and thrills—
The call of out-of-doors.
It bids you wake; it bids you take
The upland path again
Where greening hazel thickets make
A tangle in the lane.
Where tips of briar are touched with fire
It summons you aloud;
It holds in fee an ecstasy;
Its greeting is a song.
And you will find it in the wind,
And in the mints and myrrhs;
You'll hear it peep within the reed,
And know it in the firs.
Across the morning it is borne,
By nooning fields and shores;
And where's the laggard foot would scorn
The call of out-of-doors!

MR. AND MRS. DAN SHEPARD TO ENTERTAIN WITH HOUSEBOAT PARTY TO CAMP "SEABREEZE."

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Shepard will entertain with a "house boat party," on the "Martha" to Camp "Seabreeze" on Sunday, June 8th, leaving the city at 10 o'clock that morning and returning at that afternoon.
The trip is being planned to give any wife or business women who might be contemplating spending a part of their vacation at the camp an opportunity to see it and enjoy the pleasures afforded on this particularly charming spot on the Sound.
Teachers, business women and any other over fifteen years of age are cordially invited to go on the party and those desiring to do so are requested to communicate with the Patriotic League secretaries at the Patriotic League rooms until June 1st, or after that date to Mrs. A. R. Beck at the Chamber of Commerce to register, as the boat can only accommodate fifty passengers.
It is planned to make the day a most enjoyable one for the guests and surf bathing and other sports will be enjoyed. Those making the trip are requested to bring lunches and bathing suits.
Camp "Seabreeze" opens on June 1st, under auspices of the Patriotic League and for the benefit of those who are going at that time it is suggested that only the following list of wearing apparel be taken. One simple traveling dress to make the trip from and to town, enough middie blouses and bloomers for daily wear, sneakers, or outing shoes, bathing suit and cap and towels. All bed linen will be furnished at the camp.

W. O. W. CIRCLE TO HOLD INITIATION EXERCISES.

The regular meeting of Oak Grove No. 4, W. O. W. Circle, will be held Sunday at the usual time at the W. O. W. hall on West Garden street. Several new members will be initiated. An unusual feature of this initiation is that any member of Oak Grove in good standing will be allowed to bring one or more friends that are prospective members that they may witness the ceremonies. All members of the Woodmen Circle are requested to wear costumes of white.
After the initiation exercises a meeting of the "Get-Together" club will be held.

Among the guests in the city who fully embossed and decorated with fancy candles, delicious refreshments were served. On this happy occasion B. L. Jr., did not forget the less fortunate little children at the Pearl Eagan Home, sending to them a freezer full of the same delicious cream he and his guests enjoyed.

MRS. BANNON GUEST OF FRIENDS.

Mrs. Kate Bannon and sons George and William, of Palm Beach, Fla., are visiting in the city as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Ungerer at their home, 618 North Alcaniz street.

READING OF CLASS HISTORY AND PRESENTATION OF CLASS AX WERE TWO OF BIG FEATURES.

One of the most interesting days of commencement week was celebrated at the high school yesterday when the Class Day exercises were held. The reading of the class history and presentation of the Senior ax were two of the most interesting features of the afternoon exercises and the awarding of the medals and reading of the class prophecy featured the exercises of the evening.

Members of the classes gathered at the school in the afternoon and to the procession played by Mrs. W. J. Penn, the class entered and took their seats on the stage, after which the class roll was called by Ruth Pfeiffer and the following interesting program was carried out:

Piano Solo Mary M. Wright
Class History Gladys Vaughn
Song—"Legends of the Bells".....
..... Senior Class
Class Will (Alex. Olsen).....
..... Mr. W. C. Stapleton
Piano Selection Ruth Ballard
Reading Lupah Thomas
Class Song (Edith Cooney)—Class of '19.

Flower Walk.

Presentation of Ax. Craighill Brown
Speech of Acceptance. Miriam Olsen
The humorous reading by Lupah Thomas was splendid and won hearty applause. Right after this a delightful surprise came to Mrs. E. M. Schornherst, English teacher, who has had charge of the "Tattler" work for this year, when she was presented with a handsome silk parasol by Miss Adele Berlin in behalf of the "Tattler" staff, in appreciation of her work with them.

The class song, written by Edith Cooney, to the tune of "Dear Old Pal of Mine," was sung with real class spirit and enthusiasm after which the Seniors and Juniors formed by twos in the halls for the flower walk. Bound by chains of flowers they marched to the west campus where the presentation ceremonies were held when the Seniors gave into the keeping of the Juniors the class ax, which now proudly bears the colors of three classes. Craighill Brown, in his presentation speech, spoke of the traditions of the ax, and the many splendid qualities symbolized by it, chief

Now is the Time to Get Rid of Your Rheumatism.

If you are troubled with rheumatism get a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment and use it according to the plain printed directions. You will be surprised at the quick relief which it affords. No internal treatment is required in cases of chronic or muscular rheumatism. All you need is to use this liniment freely.—Adv.

Every Woman Knows

That Royal Baking Powder makes delicious, appetizing food—unquestionably wholesome.

Some women, however, do not know that food made with cheaper baking powders, containing alum and phosphate compounds, is often inferior in taste and texture;—many of the highest food authorities have declared alum baking powders to be unwholesome and injurious.

The safe and sure way is to use

ROYAL Baking Powder

Made from Cream of Tartar which is derived from grapes

Royal Contains No Alum—
Leaves No Bitter Taste

HIGH SCHOOL CLASS NIGHT BIG SUCCESS

PROGRAM IN THREE PARTS WAS GIVEN TO THE DISTINCTIVE CREDIT OF ALL PARTICIPATING.

A large and interested audience filled the high school auditorium to overflowing last night at the class night exercises of the graduating class.

The program was in three parts, consisting of the girl's declamation contest, boy's oratorical contest, and the class prophecy. The declamation and oratorical contests are held annually and are open to Seniors only. The contestants speak for medals which are awarded each year by Pensacola people or firms, and year by year the rivalry becomes greater. The girl's medal is donated by P. K. Yonge, who has done so for many years. W. C. Diffenderfer is this year the donor
