

NINE REASONS FOR PREFERENCE EX-SERVICE MEN

Colonel Arthur Woods, assistant to the secretary of war, of the war department, who is endeavoring to correlate all the existing agencies to find employment for the ex-service man, advances the following nine reasons why an employer should give preference to an ex-service man:

1. Because every ex-service man is a man, a full sized, red blooded, two-fisted man, a real American.
2. Because work for all ex-soldiers means industrial peace to our country.
3. Because he is a 100 per cent man and he will give you 100 per cent service. Efficiency will be the greatest asset in our coming industrial life. Every man and every machine will have to work at a 100 per cent capacity. Two hundred million days a year are lost to our industries through sickness alone. If your factory is to run to its full capacity, you must employ healthy workers. The returning soldiers are the cream of the health of our nation.
4. Because many of the skilled men that entered our army were put to work, each at his particular trade, and have developed their skill to the highest efficiency.
5. Because the ex-service man has learned to obey. And because to obey orders has become second nature with him, he will perform his work to the best of his ability without grumbling.
6. Because he is mentally a better man. No man could have gone through what our doughboys went through without becoming a better man. Remember that they have faced death. The long marches have taken out the shiftness of youth. Every ex-service man is a steady man.
7. Because you must help ex-service men restore himself financially. He must not be allowed to feel that you are not doing unto him as he did unto you. Practically each one of

AMERICA'S TRIBUTE AT PARIS EVENTS PAID BY WALLACE

Paris, July 5.—America's tribute to LaFayette was paid on the Fourth of July, by Hugh C. Wallace, American ambassador to France, who laid a wreath on the tomb of the French hero. Ambassador Wallace said: "I stand here today where so many Americans have stood before me and in reverence and devotion place a wreath upon the grave of LaFayette. The act itself is simple but I could do nothing more perfectly representative of American sentiments. It is as if my country stretched her hand across the sea and set a loving tribute before the shrine of our best friend. "It is most fitting that we should come to France and seek out the resting place of LaFayette. Of all great Frenchmen, he is best known to us, better known in America indeed than he is in France. He is but one of your heroes. To us he is the knight in shining armor who came in the hour of darkness to help us in our need. No child is born among us, but learns to link his name with Washington's and in manhood, he reverts the hero of his youth. "When our armies came across the ocean to defend the liberty that France herself had won, they but sought to repay a sacred debt; yet the debt remains a joyful burden and a bond of union for all time between two great peoples. "As we now greet a world at peace, we note that the corner stone of the freedom which has come to Europe is the example which was set in America long years ago. It is the new evangel, and as La Fayette beheld it then, so now we raise it where all man kind may see it."

GOVERNMENT HEADS IN PERU JAILED AT START REVOLUTION

Lima, Peru, July 5.—A revolution broke out here at 3 o'clock this morning. President Pardo and the members of his cabinet were imprisoned. General A. A. Cáceres, former president was in charge of the revolutionary coup. Later in the morning he turned over control of affairs to Augusto B. Leguía, the president-elect. The revolutionary movement was accomplished without bloodshed. A presidential election was held in Peru in May of this year, the result of which has been in dispute. Augusto B. Leguía, the candidate of the independent party, claimed his election by a substantial majority. The claim however was disputed by Autero Aspíllaga, the candidate of the civil party, who in a statement made on May 22 declared that the decision would rest wholly with the congress which convenes on July 28. CONDITION OF UNION GRIMLAR VERY CRITICAL

Although the condition of Union Gimlar, the man who was seriously stabbed about the chest and abdomen Wednesday night, in the community in which he lives, eight miles south of Atmore, Ala., and near Walnut Hill, is said to be grave and little hope is held out for his recovery. Reports to the effect that he had died, circulated yesterday, were pronounced early last night as unfounded by Deputy Sheriff W. T. Bowman, who is related to the family. Henry Cheatham, the young man of the same community, who is alleged to have stabbed Mr. Grimlar when the two men met in the road, is still held in the county jail here awaiting further developments in Grimlar's condition. The latter is well known in the county and both men have many friends who greatly regret the affair.

STRIKE OF PHONE OPERATORS IN THE SOUTH THREATENED

Louisville, Ky., July 5.—Joseph Lyons of Chicago, general representative of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, who is in Louisville in connection with a strike of approximately 400 telephone workers, issued a statement today asserting that steps are being taken to call a strike in telephone exchanges in the south. Mr. Lyons' statement seemed to be directed especially at the Bell interests which he charged had been unfair to its employees. Primarily Lyons said, the seat of the whole trouble was due to what he characterized as arbitrary methods of Postmaster General Burleson.
