SCHOOL NO. 10 GIVES ATTRACTIVE CHRISTMAS PROGRAM.

At the close of the first term teachers and pupils of School No. 10 gave an attractively arranged Christmas program at the school building Thursday to a crowded house, which expressed its appreciation of the numbers given by repeated and enthusiastic applause. The program was given in the principal's room, which was gay with holly, other greenery and flowers of the season. Effective black-board borders of holly and poinsettias made by Miss Myrtle Rice, primary teacher, added greatly to the attractiveness of the rooms. At the close of the program Santa Claus (a representative of the Pensacola Salvation Army) told the children a beautiful story of Christmas and acknowledged and expressed appreciation of the five dollars given by the school to the Salvation Army to help make Christmas Day a happier one for many unfortunate ones in the city.

Especially good numbers on the program were the two plays, Ping Winter's Throne, by pupils of grade 2, and letters from Santa Claus by twelve pupils of grade 4, twelve characters taking the parts in each play. The following program was given:

- Song—It Is Coming.
- Merry Christmas—14 pupils, Grade 1.
- Toast to Santa Claus—12 pupils, Grade 2.
- Song—Christmas Morning.
- King Winter's Throne—All pupils, Grade 2.
- Song—Santa's Reindeers.
- What I Would Be—9 pupils, Grade 1.
- Guess Who—10 pupils, Grade 4.
- Song—Santa Claus is Coming Soon.
- What Santa Brought—6 pupils, Grade 1.
- Our Platform—6 pupils, Grade 2.
- Song—Merry Christmas Bells.
- Letters From Santa Claus—12 pupils, Grade 4.
- Song—Eyes So Bright.
- Twelve Little Candles and a Firefly—13 pupils, Grade 2.
- Song—Here at Last.

School No. 10 has the following efficient corps of teachers: Miss Eva Waters, principal; Mrs. O. E. Reynolds, Miss Catherine Wentworth, Miss Myrtle Rice.

CHRISTMAS DANCE FOR SERVICE MEN BY GIRLS' COMMUNITY SERVICE CLUB.

The Girls' Community Service Club will entertain with a big dance on Christmas night, complimentary to the men of the service, ex-service men and ladies holding war camp community service invitations.

Sergeant Tom Casey, of Fort Barrancas, will have full charge of the decorating of the hall. Refreshments of punch, home-made cake and other dainties will be served.

Following are the chaperones for the evening:

Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Quina, Mr. and Mrs. Max L. Bear, Mr. and Mrs. James White, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Borras, Dr. and Mrs. deM. Blocker, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McLane, and others.

Diaz's orchestra will furnish the music. Several entertainment features will be introduced. Mr. Sidney Levy will act as floor manager.

This, the first complimentary given by a local organization for the service men and the people of the community, promises to be a big success.

All service men, all ex-service men, all ladies holding W. C. C. S. invitations, and all civilians accompanied by a lady holding a war camp community service invitation.

BUSINESS WOMEN'S CLUB TO GIVE CONCERT.

The Business and Professional Women's club will not meet Monday evening, according to custom. It will resume regular meetings after the holidays and expects to meet unofficially on December 30, when a concert will be given under its auspices at the high school auditorium. Miss Martha E. Smith, from the Perfield School of Music, in Chicago, will aid, and Miss Fannie Kehoe, Mrs. C. C. Von Paulson, and Miss Elish Lamont, among other local talent, will give their services.

MANY PARTIES AT SAN CARLOS AFTERNOON TEAS.

A number of pretty parties were seen at the afternoon teas at the San Carlos, Friday. The mezzanine coor, where the tables are placed, was gay with Christmas decorations, flowers and greenery. The program of music played by the Glacier National Park Jazz orchestra consisted of numbers appropriate to the holiday season.

One of the prettiest of the parties was the one given by Mrs. Leonard Frank complimentary to Mrs. Lawrence Stern. The six tables were placed in the Shanting room, where a game of hearts was played before tea was served. First prize was won by Mrs. Clarence Frenkel and second by Mrs. Lawrence Stern. Mrs. Frank's guests included Mrs. Lawrence Stern, Mrs. Clarence Frenkel, Miss Hilda Bear, Miss Esther Gugenheim, Miss Hazel Jacoby, Miss Lillian Jacoby, Miss Gertrude Friedman, Miss Jeanette Starr of Louisville, Mrs. William Ackerman, Miss Ruth Dannheisser, Miss Sylvia Cahn, Miss Beulah Greenhut, Miss Vivian Levey, Miss Amelia Berlin, Miss Lois Oppenheimer, Mrs. Harry Wagenheim, Mrs. Leon Gundershagen, Mrs. Alex Friedman, Mrs. Mozart Lischkoff, Miss Eva Berlin, Miss Ruth Lichten, Miss Ethel Friedman.

Mrs. E. D. Washburn had as guests at her table her sister, Miss Nan (Cladwick of New York City, Mrs. Richmond and Mrs. Covington. Mrs. Ssm Cahn Isaacs were guests at Mrs. Ben Gerson's table and complimentary to Miss Christy, Miss Mercedes Cafiero entertained as guests at her table, Miss Beatrice Howe, Miss Irma Lappington, Miss Consulo Caffero, and Mrs. S. Harding Burke. Mrs. J. Frank Taylor entertained at one table as her guests, Mrs. H. H. Christy, Mrs. Hunter Brown, and Mrs. W. S. Beyser. At another table Misses Ruth and Gertrude McLane, Mrs. Daniels of Chipley, and Margaret McCaskill of DeFuniak Springs, were together. Mrs. Max Bear, Mrs. Morris Bear, Mrs. Alex Friedman, Mrs. Louis Friedman, Mrs. Max Klein, Mrs. Lep Mayer and Mrs. L. Rosenau were together at one table.

CLUBBS SCHOOL FESTIVITIES.

Friday ushered in the holiday season for the pupils of the public schools. At the Clubs school the Christmas spirit reigned supreme throughout the day. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion and Christmas celebrations were held by the different classes. Christmas tees and post-offices were popular diversions. Grades 7 and 8 carried out an interesting program in the assembly room during the last hour. The singing of Christmas carols, a bright little play that was presented by the girls of Grade 7, and the school paper edited by Ray Aronowitz and Jack McGuire, of Grade 8, were the leading features. The various topics in the paper were illustrated by cartoons on the blackboards of the room. This very clever work being done by Richard Stubbins and Jack McGuire. The cartoon of the Christmas luncheon given the faculty by the domestic science class was the masterpiece of these boy artists, and for the day at least supplanted Butt and Jeff in the affections of the boys and girls. Though the cartoon came in for its cartoon that could not dim its glory. It really was a very pretty affair, with appropriate Christmas color scheme and menu, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the faculty. Miss Mollie McCaskill, the domestic science teacher, was assisted in preparing and serving the luncheon by the best cooks of Grade 8—Margaria Myeas, Ruth Davis, Miriam Mayer, Edith Brerly, Ray Aronowitz, Yvonne Sublett, Marjorie McGill, Louise Chisholm, Bessie Chisholm, Hattie McCaskill.

GIRLS AND BOYS OF STATE UNIVERSITY AND COLLEGE TO MEET AT Y. M. C. A. MONDAY.

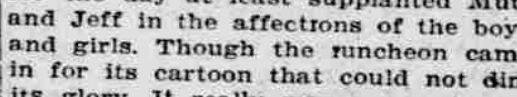

The Pensacola boys attending the State University, Gainesville, and Pensacola girls attending the Woman's State College, Tallahassee, have planned to meet at the Y. M. C. A. Monday afternoon to make arrangements for entertaining the P. H. S. seniors this year.

CALLUS? "GETS-IT" WILL PEEL IT OFF!

Nothing on Earth Like Simple "Gets-It" for Corns or Calluses.

A Callus or thickened skin on the sole of the foot, which often makes walking a misery is of the same nature as a corn. "Gets-It" removes it as easily as it does the toughest corns. By using a few drops of "Gets-It" on the callus, you will be able to peel it off with your fingers, in one complete piece just as you would a banana peel. It leaves the skin free and smooth as though you never had a callus. You need no more fussy plasters, sticky tapes, "package" bandages, knives or scissors, for corns or calluses. "Gets-It" is the natural corn remover, the biggest on earth, used by millions. It never fails. You'll work, play and dance at ease in spite of corns. "Gets-It" is the only sure, guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. M'd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Sold in Pensacola and recommended as the world's best corn remedy, by Hamilton Russell and White's Pharmacy, The Crystal Pharmacy, Jas. R. Polkinghorne.

Use "Gets-It" and Dance, Even with Corns

RHINESTONES OR SPRAY OF GREEN GOLD

By BETTY BROWN.

With a graceful semi-rolled coiffure, shimmering hair ornaments are the final touch of beauty, particularly this season. In fact, fashion dictates make them almost a necessity for evening wear. Here are sketched the dependable favorites, rhinestone pins, arranged at each side of the coiffure close to the neck. The latest fancy is the use of sprays made of green gold in the form of laurel leaves, worn high in the hair, as shown in the same sketch.

ANNOUNCE BIRTH OF A SON.

What Shall It Profit?

BY EDMUND VANCE COOKE

What shall it profit at the Christmas tide, I: opulence and luxury abide And love of all our fellows be denied? This is the season which we dedicate Not to smug pride or vain and vaunted hate, But to that love which knoweth no estate. This day we fix our faith and found our trust That man is purified of gross and dust And is not only generous—but just. Oh, ye of pomp and circumstance and power, Captains and conquerors and lords of dower, Haply ye flourish for your little hour. But though ye seize the earth and fruits thereof, Or heap possessions to the skies above, What shall it profit, if ye have not love? Lo! those were Wise Men come from out the East, With no gaunt bellies graddened for a feast, But come to seek the shelter of the beast. For they had glimpsed a vision from afar, A vision concentrated to a Star, That Love-of-Man had found an avator. Men crowned the Manger with a diadem, Men cry hosannas to the Garment's hem, But scant the gift the Spirit asks of them. Faith in this world, the House of These and Me, Hope of Ourselves, the Door to make men free, Love of our fellows, which is still the Key. Such is the wisdom of the Christmas-tide. Happy that day when wisdom shall abide And not on each tomorrow be denied. What if we hugged that wisdom close and dear Not for a day of merriment and cheer, But for the days of all the Christmas year? In this mad world where surging men are met, If we should strive to give and not to get, What metes upon our boundaries should be set?

University, coming to Jacksonville via the Clyde line, where she was joined by her brother, William Daniels, who came from Gainesville, where he is attending the university, to spend the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. L. Daniel.

PENSACOLA ZIONIST SOCIETY ENTERTAINS.

The Pensacola Zionist organization gave its first affair last Wednesday evening at the Odd Fellows' hall. This consisted of a splendid program, following the lighting of the Chanukah lights in commemoration of the destruction of the Temple. The hall was beautifully decorated with flags and bunting, and dancing followed, the Diaz orchestra furnishing the music. The guests were served with ice cream, cake, fruits and nuts. Lighting the candles, Rabbi Bierson and children. Welcome address, Mr. S. Greenblatt. Poetical recitation, Ida Bear. Piano recital, Minnie Rosenblatt. Address, "Zionism," Mr. J. Bresler. Remarks, Mr. S. Goldring. Reiteration, Morris Levy. The organization started with eight members and now numbers over eighty, and are planning to give many

Give Gift of Furniture

Dear Friends:

Good old Christmas time approaches once more. The spirit is already in the air at this store. And if it hasn't struck you yet we'd like you to come here and imbibe a bit of it.

You see we are stocked unusually well to supply the wants of those intelligent folks who are going to give furniture for Christmas. Our sales-people have scented already the expressions of self-approval which mark the features of those who have purchased presents here so soon.

They have already come to understand that the rendering of a real Christmas service to a customer is worthwhile many times over.

They realize that the man or woman who buys furniture for giving, gives something with a year round of sentiment which savors of goodness indefinitely. Therefore, they have grasped that Christmas atmosphere readily and they shall not lose their hold on it.

At Christmas time, there is an added zest to serving the public. We know that here and want to serve you. All is set and in operation. Would you not like to get in on the ground floor in looking over our stocks for suggestions?

Very sincerely,

T. E. WILLIAMS & CO
