

DAMON LODGE K. P. INSTALL

Sumptuous Banquet Is Enjoyed By Members Following Busy Session.

An interesting and well attended meeting of Damon Lodge No. 13 K. of P. was held Tuesday night at which the installation of officers who were recently elected for the ensuing term was held.

The auditing committee appointed at the last meeting reported that they made an audit of the books for the twelve months ending December 31 and their report was received and filed.

After the meeting closed the members were taken in hand by the refreshment committee and banquet had been spread for them. A number of short talks were made and all enjoyed a happy evening.

No. 1—Continued From Page One

the democratic party, and will be made a serious attempt to be chosen as the party nominee again?

4. Will the peace treaty be made a party issue in 1920?

5. Which of the eight or nine prominent candidates for president will rise above his fellows at the meeting?

President Wilson will send a message to the gathering at the Jackson Day banquet from his sick room stating that under no circumstances will he accept a nomination for a third term, the leading democrats here expect. That announcement will set off the booms for the various candidates who will be present and a scramble will commence for the nomination.

With President Wilson out of the way for the nomination and some idea obtainable as to who will be the democratic standard-bearer the republicans will be able to shape their campaign. Up to now they have been in the air and unable to prepare plans as to a candidate or policy.

President Wilson will in his message to the party gathering point the way for the party to go with regard to the peace treaty, industrial and economic conditions and issues in general. It is believed. He will then for the first time since he was elected, cease to be the head and shoulders of the democratic party. No man has perhaps ever so entirely dominated his party as President Wilson.

It will then be interesting to note the success William Jennings Bryan gains in his effort to become the leader of the party again as successor to Woodrow Wilson, and whether he succeeds in steering the party's course in a manner that will bring about his own nomination for a fourth time. Mr. Bryan's speech at the banquet will receive unusual attention.

Mr. McAdoo's declination of all invitations to attend the Jackson Day banquet at first puzzled politicians who believed he had committed a grave tactical error in not seizing on the occasion to get his boom well under way. A further and deep study of the incident, however, shows that McAdoo is taking what may turn out to be a very shrewd course. By staying away he will escape the necessity of committing himself to a definite platform or statement of policies at this time, with the convention 6 months away and the country in an extremely unsettled condition.

The president has been rather generally criticized for his failure before now to state his position regarding a third term. His friends have taken the position that it would have appeared presumptuous for him to decline something that was not offered him. The republicans for the most part have refrained from attacking his failure to speak out on the third term hoping he would accept another nomination.

The president's announcement that he will not again be a candidate will be sad news to the republicans who have hoped he would run again and give them the opposition to a third term as a telling weapon. The president is expected to announce his intention to retire to private life and regain his health, shattering in the public service.

The Jackson Day dinner is expected to dispel the gloom that has hung over the democratic party since the set-back received in the elections of 1918 when both the senate and house were lost.

General Leonard Wood for the republicans and William G. McAdoo for the democrats, provided of course that the president is out of the running, appear to be in the lead for nomination by their respective parties. The surer sign of this perhaps is that all the other prospective republican candidates are trying to smother the Wood boom, while the democrats with presidential aspirations are trying to kill off the boom for McAdoo.

Fear of the Wood boom was exhibited by those who attended the meeting of the republican national committee here early in December. The Wood boomers were very busy trying to pledge the national committee-men for their man and making as much noise as possible. The "big bosses" at the meeting decided the Wood boom must be snuffed out at any cost, and have set about to do it.

Now that the McAdoo boomers have commenced to make some headway the friends of all the other candidates, actual and hopeful, are trying to smother it. The situation is very similar in each party—there is the fear that Wood or McAdoo will get enough convention delegates pledged to make a very formidable showing on the first ballot which may be improved on early succeeding ballots.

MALTA'S FAVORITE

MALTA—Mrs. Paul Methuen, noted social beauty and accomplished musician and singer, leads society on this British Mediterranean possession. Her father-in-law is governor general of the island.

The game now is to trot out a favorite son from every state so that on the first few ballots, and until the bosses can get together there will be a score of candidates with nobody particularly in the lead.

The boom for General Pershing is making remarkable headway in the West, according to reports reaching Washington, and may soon outstrip the boom for General Wood.

Kansas City appears to be in the lead for selection as the place for holding the democratic convention, now that St. Louis has definitely withdrawn and thrown its strength to Kansas City. The democratic national committee will on Thursday choose the time and place for holding the convention. Kansas City has a big purse to offer. Chicago and San Francisco are also prepared to make strong bids for the convention. The date of this convention will probably be about June 17th, ten days after the meeting of the republican convention in Chicago on June 6th.

No. 2—CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE

essay, but he protested against "a scramble for deposits."

"We do not see why a raise in rediscount rates should bring about such a scramble," he said. "The federal reserve bank rate increases are only temporary, whereas relations of the bankers with their customers are supposed to be permanent."

"No customer should be led to look upon deposits as an investment, and the banks should not look upon deposits other than as a liability. Competition by bankers with the investment market was not conducive to sound banking, Governor Harding said.

"While we have turned our backs on the period of war financing," he continued, "we cannot expect in the immediate future a condition such as was considered normal under pre-war standards. We will reach normal only when the obligations of the government are greatly reduced and the remainder absorbed by the investing public.

"Unessential loans should be discouraged. Federal banks must be kept in condition to meet industrial and commercial demands and ready to provide for any emergency. In ordinary times a raise in rediscount rates is the natural corrective of undue expansion, but we cannot add to our gold holdings by raising rates, nor must we do anything to discourage production."

No. 3—Continued From Page One.

loved home city, our Pensacola, might well be taken care of during all the emergencies that occurred during the war time.

And, whereas, each and every member of our chamber of commerce feels deeply grateful for such services to the men who has been our leader.

Now, therefore, Be it hereby Resolved, That we do hereby make formal record of our high appreciation of his unselfish devotion to duty, his steadfastness of purpose, his ability as a leader of men and measure, and his high courage to do all things necessary to advance the welfare of our beloved home city, Pensacola.

Resolved further, That our secretary mail to the man whom we wish hereby to honor an engrossed copy hereof under the signature of the secretary and the seal of the corporation.

Dated January 6th, 1920.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, Pensacola, Florida.

Attest: JOHN V. PRICE, Secretary.

Pledges of support and loyalty were given by all present before the meeting adjourned and the directors pledged to attend all executive meetings and to be otherwise ready for any duty upon call of the president during the twelve months in which they are to serve.

YACHT CLUB SUPPER TO BE HELD TONIGHT

The regular bi-monthly supper of the Yacht Club will be held at the club house at 7 o'clock tonight. Chairman Frederic of the House committee says the fishermen have supplied him with the first essentials of an excellent supper and he expects all the members to be on hand.

An important business meeting will be held following the supper. The annual election of officers will be held January 21.

OBITUARY.

MRS. DAN WILKINSON.

The funeral of Mrs. Dan Wilkinson will be held from the home, 612 N. Alcaniz-st at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. Burial will be at St. John's cemetery. The services will be conducted by Rev. I. W. Chalker and Dr. A. S. Moffett.

Bearers will be Harry S. Lurton, J. R. Duncan, W. S. Duncan, Malcolm White, W. A. Freeman, Thomas P. White, W. C. Diffenderfer and Roscoe Wallace. Honorary bearers will be Arthur Gunn, L. E. Nobles, R. W. Waters, J. E. Taylor, Wiley McDavid, H. C. Stringfield, J. T. Stringfield and C. G. Murphy.

Mrs. Wilkinson died yesterday morning following a short illness with blood poisoning. She is survived by her husband, Dan Wilkinson, who is an auditor of the Jennings Naval Stores company, two sons, W. D. of Pensacola and Elmer, of Mississippi and one daughter, Mrs. J. O. McPhail of Montgomery.

WILLIAM EMERY.

William Emery died yesterday afternoon at his home near Gouiding after an illness of several days with pneumonia. He was 76 years old, and had resided in and near Pensacola for a number of years, having been engaged in various farming enterprises near Perry Pass, where he resided before moving to Gouiding. Mr. Emery is survived by a wife and two sons, Charles and William, who were with him at his death, as well as a number of relatives away from here.

Mr. Emery was a member of Pensacola Lodge, No. 42, Free and Accepted Masons, which body will conduct the funeral services tomorrow afternoon from his home to its burial place in St. John's cemetery at 2 p. m., where the regular Masonic burial service will be held, the following brothers acting as pall-bearers: Dudley R. Saunders, L. W. Hardy, Nathan Zung, L. E. Heinberg, Dr. Aubrey B. Saunders and Victor J. Little.

MASONIC BURIAL NOTICE.

Special Communication of Pensacola Lodge No. 42, F. & A. M., Wednesday Jan. 7, at 1:30 p. m., at K. of P. hall for the purpose of attending funeral of our late brother Wm. Emery. All brothers urged to attend.

J. H. BAYLISS, Secretary.

R. C. WHITE, W. M.

LOCAL WEATHER

(Compiled for the Journal by the weather bureau office.)

Pensacola, Fla., Jan. 7, 1920. Sunrise 6:46. Sunset 5:05. Moonrise 7:28 p.m. Moonset 7:58 a.m. High tide 11:30 p.m. Low tide 5:59 a.m. Next phase of the moon, last quarter, 12th.

Yesterday's Weather.

TEMPERATURE: 7 a.m. 12m. 7 p.m. Dry bulb 41 53 61. Wet bulb 38 52 59. Highest 62; lowest 38; mean 50; normal 52; mean same date last year, 48.

Accumulated deficiency this year to date, 40. Highest of record for January, 79 degrees.

Lowest of record for January, 15 degrees.

RAINFALL: For 24 hours ending 7 p. m., 0.07. Total for this month to 7 p. m., 0.06. Normal for January 4.04 inches.

Accumulated excess deficiency this year to date 0.75.

HUMIDITY: 7 a. m., 78; 12 noon, 93; 7 p. m., 90.

BAROMETER: 7 a. m., 30.23; 7 p. m., 30.12.

Widow Preferred to Meet Death at Home

"For many years I suffered from stomach trouble. All the doctors I tried helped me but little. All said I would have to go to hospital and be operated on for gall stones or I would not live much longer. I told them I preferred to meet death at home. One day I picked up an advertisement of May's Wonderful Remedy, and since taking a course of it more than a year ago have not had a single pain in my stomach, have good appetite and can eat anything." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Crystal Pharmacy and druggists everywhere.—Adv.

RED CROSS NURSE COMING TO CITY

The local chapter of the Red Cross has made application for a Red Cross public health nurse, and has been promised by the Southern Division of the Red Cross, that Pensacola will get the first nurse available for the work. It is expected that she will arrive within the next few weeks, and will have her headquarters at the local Red Cross rooms on the second floor of the American National Bank building. Her duties, while not yet definitely known here, will probably include visiting the homes of the county and talking to the various organizations as they request as a sort of educational campaign.

A colored nurse under the supervision of the public health nurse will be employed to care for the needs of the colored population.

HEALTHY, ROBUST PEOPLE POPULAR EVERYWHERE

Good Health Creates an Attractive Magnetic Personality and Wins Admiration.

HEALTHY PEOPLE ARE HAPPIEST

Pepto-Mangan Has Put Thousands Into the Healthy Full-Blooded Class.

How the red-blooded, energetic, and attractive man or woman is envied by those who feel that it will always be their unfortunate lot to be thin, pale, and weak-bodied!

And yet why continue to envy men and women who possess a vigorous, healthy physical condition and an attractive, magnetic personality? Poor health and lack of vitality are often merely the result of impoverished blood.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is for people whose bodies suffer from lack of proper blood nourishment. Pepto-Mangan enriches the blood and increases the number of healthy red blood cells, which are so necessary to carry the proper nourishment, vigor, and strength to every part of the body.

Physicians introduced Gude's Pepto-Mangan to the public because they knew that it contained the very properties that are so sorely needed to build up thin, water blood. For your convenience, Pepto-Mangan is prepared in two forms, liquid and tablet. Both contain exactly the same medicinal value.

Insist on the genuine Pepto-Mangan. To be sure you are buying the genuine Pepto-Mangan, ask your druggist for "Gude's." And be sure the name "Gude's" is on the package.—Adv.

BASKETBALL LEAGUE OPENS AT "Y" TONIGHT

Tonight promptly at 8 o'clock the senior basketball league will commence. A double header will be played on every Wednesday night and some fast and interesting games can be expected. The first game will be between the Wilson-Biggs, captained by "Buddy" Caro, and the M. & O., captained by the invincible Lars Sanchez. This game should prove close and exciting as both teams are evenly matched and have put in lots of good time practicing.

The second round will be with the Pensacola high school which is being coached by Rex Farrior, and the team captained by R. K. Hess. Coach Farrior is confident of a winning team and has hopes of winning the pennant this year. Captain Hess made the statement that he could also use the pennant. So as all the captains are banking on winning it, fans can expect to see some of the classiest basketball yet played at the local "Y."

YEL-O-PINE FORCE ON DUTY IN CITY

Five affable exponents of Yel-O-Pine are at the San Carlos and will remain in Pensacola until they have thoroughly demonstrated the merits of the yellow pine. They tell of the advances made by the Yel-O-Pine company, of Montgomery, which produces an antiseptic, a cough remedy, a salve and pine healing oil. The crew consists of G. P. Harper, Joe Scherrer, E. C. Cooner, L. S. Harper and L. J. Drake. They are here to talk Yel-O-Pine, but last night took time to watch "Crazy Rich" perform on top of the San Carlos. As he turned away G. P. Harper was heard to remark: "I have always said I would try anything once, but now I take it back."

Nujol advertisement featuring an image of the product bottle and text: 'Regular as Clockwork', 'Nujol Constipation', 'Nujol for constipation', 'Sickness-prevention'.

Journal Wants Pay Big Dividends

Large advertisement for The Pensacola Journal. Text includes: 'In Response to Many Requests from subscribers...', 'Only Eight More Days in which to save $1.00 on your subscription to The Pensacola Journal', 'Do Not Let This Opportunity Pass! Send in Your Subscription TODAY!', 'REGULAR SUBSCRIPTION RATES Effective Jan. 15, 1920.', 'SPECIAL RATES If Paid by Jan. 15, 1920.', 'Think It Over! Could You Make $1 Easier? SUBSCRIPTION ACCOUNTS MUST BE PAID TO DECEMBER, 1919, TO ENTITLE SUBSCRIBER TO SPECIAL RATE.', 'THE PENSACOLA JOURNAL PENSACOLA, FLORIDA.'