Regardless of the Weather—while the salt is getting in its work, and to deliver it back to you, ready for the final smoking—Sound and Sweet.

Your hogs have cleaned up the pinder patch, and are now going back instead of gaining weight unless you are feeding them a lot of corn; and if you feed most of your corn to them, now it will be a case of buying corn at a high price next summer for your mule. Why wait longer?

Kill them now, and save your corn. Bring the meat to us and save it and so have next summer, when money is scarce and prices high, plenty of corn for your mule, and hog and hominy for yourself.

Cold Storage Open From December 1st on.

Musical Course.

Several months ago, Prof. Cate contracted for a course of three high grade musical attractions to be given this winter and spring.

This course was secured at a very low figure considering the ability of the musicians and tickets for the three entertainments will be sold for $1.00. Single admissions will be 50c.

The first of these concerts will be given Tuesday night, Jan. 23rd. The others will follow at intervals of three weeks.

Dates will not conflict with the Lyceum course of the Woman's Club and it is not intended that this

FIRST CONCERT.

In the first concert will appear Miss Edna May Tilton, soprano and Mrs. C. W. Best, harpiste. Both are artists.

The San Diego, California, Sun says of Miss Tilton:

Miss Edna May Tilton has, without an exception, one of the best voices ever heard in this city. She sings without the slightest effort, and wisely chose several old favorites.

The Houston, Texas, Chronicle

notes that she charmed her audience with her sweet voice and her personal attractions.

In a recent fire, Mrs. Best's harp, together with all of her music-press notices, etc., were burned.

She now has, however, a beautiful new harp which everyone will enjoy.

Mrs. Best studied with Madame Kosini, harpiste of the Pittsburg Orchestra.

She also studied in London, England, with John Thomas, who was formerly Court Harpist to Queen Victoria, and later, also, to King Edward.

Mrs. Best has played in many cities with great success in both concert and church work.
