

DEMOCRACY OF UNDERWOOD AND WILSON CONTRASTED

Underwood a Native and Always a Resident of the South and Always Loyal to the Democratic Party.

WILSON A RESIDENT OF NEW JERSEY FOR YEARS AND A HABITUAL PARTY BOLTER.

A Comparison.
Underwood and Wilson will be the two leading candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination as far as Florida is concerned. Harmon and Clark will have their supporters in this state, but not as many as the two other candidates. For the benefit of the voters we parallel the records of the two as follows:

| Underwood | Wilson |
|---|---------------------------------|
| Born..... Kentucky | Virginia |
| Educated..... Univer. of Va. | Princeton, N.J. |
| Moved..... To Alabama | To New Jersey |
| Now resides in Alabama | In New Jersey |
| Voted 1884..... For Cleveland | For Cleveland |
| Voted 1888..... For Cleveland | For Cleveland |
| Voted 1892..... For Cleveland | For Cleveland |
| Voted 1896..... For Bryan | Against Bryan |
| Voted 1900..... For Bryan | Against Bryan |
| Voted 1904..... For Parker | For Parker |
| Voted 1908..... For Bryan | For Bryan |
| Faithfulness..... Always at his post | Two-thirds of time out of state |
| Politics..... Regular Democrat | Habitual bolter |
| Chief work for party..... House Democratic leader | Seeking presidential nomination |

We do not take the interest in the sectional standing of the two that some others take; but, though Woodrow Wilson claims to be a southern man though living in New Jersey, it is proper to give the facts for what they were worth.

Which Southern? Only Underwood.
Underwood's father took him north when he was three years old and kept him there for a short time. Woodrow Wilson took himself north when twenty-nine years old and has since remained there. Underwood married first in Virginia and, his wife having died, married again in Alabama. Woodrow Wilson married in Virginia. While Woodrow Wilson went north to get his collegiate education, he took a law course at the University of Virginia. Underwood was educated entirely in the south.

As Democrats.
Underwood has always taken the southern view of politics. The southern idea is to settle disputes in the party and then present an unbroken front to the enemy. It is this habit of thought that has enabled him to keep the party in the house solid under his leadership. Woodrow Wilson has never supported a Democratic nominee who did not represent his views. When his faction was not successful he has gone out of the party to fight it. He has never been a southerner in political thought. First he belonged to what he now calls the Wall street wing of the party, and when the buzzing of the presidential bee induced him to put away ideas that would render his nomination impossible he went to the extreme of western populism.

No Reason Why.
Of course the men who have been promised postoffices and other federal positions if Woodrow Wilson is elected will naturally support him, but we can't see why any man who has nothing to gain by it would prefer a man who pretends to be a southerner to one who is one, a man who takes back everything he said up to four years ago to one who is right and has always been, who makes no apology because he has nothing to apologize for. Above all, we can't see why any Democrat should prefer a bolter to a steadfast Democrat.—Jacksonville Times-Union, March 28, 1912.

CANDIDACY OF HON. O. W. UNDERWOOD PROJECTED ON HIGH AND HONORABLE BASIS. CLEAN MAN ON A MANLY PLATFORM

The Underwood movement has received such assurances of support that the distinguished southerner has yielded to the wishes of his supporters for a definite announcement of his candidacy for the presidential nomination at Baltimore. Mr. Underwood, as is well known, was for a long time averse to the idea of being taken up for discussion as a presidential possibility, and even after his endorsement by the Alabama Democracy he deprecated the efforts of his friends to give wider prominence to his eligibility. That he now consents to stand for the honor implies that developments have dispelled the doubts that first assailed him.

The call upon Mr. Underwood issues from influential quarters in all sections, a signal fact that permits it to be recorded that for the first time in fifty years the availability of a southern man prompts no mental reservation on the score of section. His status among the group of favorite sons is as assured as that of Champ Clark and Woodrow Wilson, both southern born, but no less esteemed for all that.

Mr. Underwood's claim to preference at the hands of his party, as it is set forth by his manager, Senator Bankhead, faithfully embodies what all know of the candidate—his solidity and simplicity of character. We read in part:

"I wish the people of the country to know that we expect to gain by the strength of our candidates. His high character, his well tried leadership, his perfect sanity and poise and his loyalty both to his friends and also to the great and time honored principles of the Democratic party. If we are unable to win save through anonymous and unassigned attacks on other candidates then we do not expect or even care to win. Indeed, under such circumstances we would not deserve to win. In all we do it will never be forgotten that there is a certain comity due between candidates of the same party and that after the nomination we must be in position to fight a common political enemy."

A clean man on a manly platform.

STOPS SCALP ITCH.
Dandruff and Every Form of Scalp Diseases Cured Quickly by Zemo.

It is simply wonderful how Zemo goes after dandruff. You rub a little of it in with the tips of the fingers. It gets right down into the glands, stimulates them, stops the itch and makes the head feel fine. No, it isn't sticky. Zemo is a fine, clear, vanishing liquid. You don't have to even wash your hands after using Zemo. And what a wonder it is for eczema, rash, pimples and all skin afflictions. 25-cent bottle at D. G. Smith's Drug Store is guaranteed to stop any skin irritation. Zemo is prepared by E. W. Rose Medicine Co., St. Louis, Mo., and is regularly sold by druggists at $1 a bottle. But to prove what it will do at trifling expense, Zemo is now put up in 25-cent trial bottles.

On Wednesday night Hon. Wm. B. Bankhead, of Alabama, addressed a number of citizens of the town in advocacy of Oscar W. Underwood's candidacy for the presidency, and Col. W. W. Flournoy, of De Funiak Springs, in behalf of his candidacy for Congressman from the Third district. The speaking was held in the opera house, and quite a number were present.

You will look a good while before you find a better medicine for coughs and colds than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only gives relief—it cures. Try it when you have a cough or cold and you are certain to be pleased with the prompt cure which it will effect. For sale by all dealers.

The Mock Court Trial was given at the opera house Tuesday night by local talent, under the direction of Col. Newton, and was witnessed and enjoyed by a very large audience.

"My little son had a very severe cold. I was recommended to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and before a small bottle was finished he was as well as ever," writes Mrs. H. Silks, 29 Dowling St., Sydney, Australia. This remedy is for sale by all dealers.

At a called meeting of the Council, Wednesday, Dr. Smith's bid of par for the electric light bonds was accepted, and the bonds sold to him. There were several other bids under consideration, and had there not been the option of calling in the bonds, the Council could have sold them at considerably above par.

For rheumatism you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Liniment. Try it and see how quickly it gives relief. For sale by all dealers.

W. T. Busbinn, Route No. 1, Fayetteville Ga., was cured of bronchitis. He writes "I have been a sufferer from bronchitis for six months so severely I could hardly breathe. I tried many remedies, but Foley's Honey and Tar Compound was the only medicine which served me. I recommend it as a positive cure for bronchitis, coughs, and throat troubles." For sale by all dealers.

ALMOST A MIRACLE
One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holclaw, Clarendon, Tex., was effected years ago in a brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 218 pounds. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for coughs and colds with excellent results." It's quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed.

Washouts West of Here
The heavy rains of Saturday and Sunday washed out several hundred feet of track between Tallahassee and Quincy, and between Quincy and Ft. Pierce Junction on the Seaboard, with the result that, as yet, a train has not been able to pass very much damaged. The main road from here will probably be a month.

WHY HE WAS LATE
"What made you late?"
"I met Smithson."
"Well, that is no reason why you should be an hour late getting home to supper."
"I know, but I asked him how he was feeling, and he insisted on telling me about his stomach trouble."
"Did you tell him to take Chamberlain's Tablets?"
"Sure, that is what he needs." Sold by all dealers.
