

Fishing With Electricity.

New York Sun. "I just have been experimenting with electricity as bait," said a gentleman interested in fishing and fish culture.

"It was a curious sight, however. The light illuminated the water around the bait, so that you could see the fish approaching it. But there is one point that people who get up these are apt to forget, namely, that light under water is not so much of a novelty as you would suppose.

"Since the perfection of the electric light, it has been adapted to almost everything; but probably in the water it will prove more useful to divers than anybody else.

The Man-Frog and Man-Goose.

The man-frog was first exhibited in 1866, at a French country fete. He had a stout illshaped body, covered with a skin like a leather bottle, and a face exactly like a frog's large eyes, an enormous mouth, and the skin clammy.

What Should She Call Him?

From the Pall Mall Gazette. What ought a wife to call her husband in speaking to a third person? Should she say "my husband," or should she use the surname without any prefix, as Mrs. Carlyle used to talk of "Carlyle," or should she adopt another plan of that lady's and speak, as it were, of "Mr. C."?

Maori King Has Some Fun.

The Maori King, Tawhiao, who has been in England a week, has astonished as well as pleased his supporters by keeping perfectly sober. He has been chaperoned to a great many of the theatres and has developed an admiration for the ballet which is almost beyond restraint.

Under Sentence of Death.

Pittsburg Dispatch. Directly after his condemnation to death the French criminal is stripped naked, every fragment of his clothing being carefully removed for fear of his anticipating the action of the law.

THE Palatka Daily News

A HANDSOME, NEWSY SIX-COLUMN NEWSPAPER

FIVE DOLLARS PER ANNUM

PALATKA, FLORIDA.

PUBLISHED AT

THE IMPORTANCE OF PALATKA AS A trade distributing point and railway center, and its magnificent location at the head of ocean navigation on the St. Johns, and in the midst of a charming farming and fruit producing section, renders it a natural focal point for the news of the Peninsula, and affords the opportunity to make it what it is pronounced by the press to be, a first-class newspaper, both in its make-up and in the character of its collated news.

POLITICALLY The News is Democratic, and while it will be courteous to all, it will stand steadfast in its adherence to those principles of that party, the success of which alone insures liberty and good government.

The Year 1884 is a Campaign Year Both the National and State Campaigns are to be waged. Towards the settlement of the momentous political issues they involve, will give its untiring efforts to influence public opinion for the best interests of the people.

To do this more effectually, the editors will at once begin the publication of

The Weekly News A folio 48-column paper, equipped with the current news, or a complete digest of the happenings of the week.

This publication, at the price of

ONE DOLLAR we hope to introduce into every household in this section too remote to be reached by our Daily.

We urge our friends, both in and out of Putnam county, to aid us in the distribution of both our publications.

A copy will be mailed free to the getter-up of clubs of the subscribers to either the Daily or Weekly editions.
