When the northbound mail train on Sunday afternoon backed out on the wharf to pick up some express shipments, the passengers were greeted by a typical Punta Gorda exhibit in which they manifested great interest. It was a display of forty-five salt water catfish, running from five to thirty inches in length, and six sharks measuring from three to four feet in length, which had been caught by some young fellows, who left them laid out on the wharf in an attractive way. These fish are classed as non-edible here, and people fish for them only for the sport there is in it.

REMNANTS

PRICE IRRESISTIBLY LOW

Out of our "left-overs" remain a few REMNANTS. We do not say that you can buy these "at your own price." We don't do business that way. But we do say that your good judgment will tell you when you see our remnants and the prices on them that we should not sell them so low. Yet autumn goods are coming in and we want every remnant out of our store THIS WEEK. Therefore the LOW PRICES
