COMMISSION APPOINTED.

Church Janitor Seeks Fortune. Atlanta.—A runaway from his Switzerland home at the age of 18; a stowaway en route to America; a soldier of fortune during many years, youth; a chef for aristocracy for years, and now the janitor of North Avenue Presbyterian church, Carl Zillig of Atlanta embarked for Europe to become the heir to his dead mother's fortune.

To Study Social Conditions of Jews in Palestine.

New York.—The appointment of a commission to take a social survey of conditions among the Jews in Palestine, was announced today by Rabbi Stephen S. Wise of the Free Synagogue of this city. The commission will visit Jerusalem in September, and its findings will be published upon its return to America. It is expected that the information will enable Jewish communities in Europe and this country to understand present day needs of the Jews of Palestine and to render the Jews such help as necessary.
