LOYALTY WILL BE DISCUSSED

P. CUNNINGHAM WILL HAVE IT AS HIS SUBJECT AT THE FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH TODAY.

"Loyalty" will be the subject discussed by Mr. W. P. Cunningham this morning at the First Christian Church. In view of the necessity having arisen to discontinue the services of a minister, this subject will be especially appropriate, especially so if members are inclined to relax their energies while the Church is unfortunate enough to be without a minister. There will be no services in the evening. Mrs. Mitchell will play as a soloist, "Etude," by Nevin, and Mr. M. Phillips will sing a duet. The Sunday School will be held at 10 a. m. and in charge of Mr. Jas. B. Atkins. Special effort is being made each department to maintain efficiency of service, and visitors will at all times be welcome, and may witness a lively, energetic and well kept school, though without a shepherd.

Interest in Revival. The series of meetings which began Wednesday under most auspicious circumstances continue to grow in attendance and interest. Those who were unable to get seats Thursday night were provided for by sitting chairs in the aisle last night. Dr. Peterson has held the next attention of his hearers from the first three sermons on "If ye bring me my children, how much more will I give to them that ask Him." "What do I get?" "Ye shall receive power to be Holy Ghost is come upon you" were powerful and telling in effect. Last evening Mrs. Ernestine Pfeiffer sang most impressively to a large and appreciative audience. "Face to Face." The meetings will continue tomorrow and thru next week. Tomorrow at 11:00 o'clock the pastor will occupy the pulpit. Brother Charles Dickinson will preach at 7:30 p. m. All are invited to attend each of all of these services.

Mr. Smyth in Charge. Rev. A. C. S. Smyth will take permanent charge of St. Katherine's church Sunday, Nov. 8th, since Mr. Rice's retirement the services have been principally conducted by lay members. The members will all be delighted to once more have a Rector in charge. Epworth League. "The Root of Murder" will be discussed by the Gadsden Street Epworth League in the league room this evening at 6:30 p. m., sharp under the leadership of Miss Ethel Myers. Adl. It is a combination by which the reel is sunk in the handle of the rod so that the reel is in line with the rod itself and is perfectly balanced. The invention ought to prove popular with fishermen and consequently profitable to Mr. King.

LITTLE KITCHEN VERY POPULAR

MISS FANNIE CALDWELL, IN CHARGE OF THE CANDY AND LUNCH ROOM, FINDS READY PATRONAGE FROM LITTLE FRIENDS.

Miss Fannie Caldwell is a great favorite with children and her popularity is now a splendid business asset at The Little Kitchen, where she serves hot chocolate, soup and sandwiches every day to the children, who find the Little Kitchen most attractive, with its pure candies and nourishing lunches. "Their is lots of room for competition in this kind of work," said Miss Caldwell yesterday, "and we cannot begin to meet the demand of all the schools. There is no reason why the Little Kitchen should interfere in any way with the school lunches, for there are so many children that there should be room for both to thrive. You know, competition is the life of trade."

Miss Caldwell through her work with the fair, has come closely in touch with the children of Pensacola, and her good judgment and business ability make her particularly capable as manager of the Little Kitchen.
