UNJUSTIFIABLE KILLING.

Such is Verdict of Jury in Pacheco Killing Case.

Witnesses All Tell Same Story—Kaaupuni Was Not Attacked at Any Time.

The coroner's jury in the Pacheco killing affair at Pauoa met in the office of the Deputy Marshal at 1:30 p. m. yesterday for the purpose of taking the remainder of the evidence and arriving at a verdict. Portuguese Commissioner Canavaro was among those present. J. Camara acted as interpreter for the Portuguese witnesses.

Marie Pacheco—Saw man shoot at my father. After this he ran down the street. Heard five shots altogether. The last was about 200 yards from where first shots were fired.

Christina Rodriguez—Saw the shooting that took place Saturday morning. Saw last shot fired. Was standing close by at my gate. Couldn't see face of native man very well. Probably know him by sight as I have heard he is blind in one eye. Did not see him fire shot that killed Pacheco. Saw native going down road alone. Fired at another man. He was going pretty fast. Heard reports of shooting farther up. Couldn't say how many. Oliveira was walking up the road and asked the native what the matter was when the latter fired at him.

J. F. Aguilar—Did not see Pacheco whip native or horse. Was outside when native fired first shot. Both men standing still. Seemed to be having an argument. Only few boys around when shot fired. There was also a Chinaman and Pacheco's daughter. Pacheco was in front of native's horse. Fired five shots and then ran. First was at me. Fired three times at Pacheco. Fired once when he went down. No one tried to stop him. I put cow in the yard. Took rope off and gave it to other native after all shots were fired. Pacheco never touched man. Only whipped the cow. I opened gate. After shots were fired and the native ran away another Portuguese picked up a stone and fired it at him but it did not hit him. It was the third shot that hit Pacheco.

Mrs. Vierra—Saw Pacheco and natives driving cow up. Heard shots afterwards. Kaaupuni was trying to make his horse step on the rope to stop cow. Pacheco whipped cow to make it go ahead. A Portuguese ran up to see about the trouble and was fired at.

Akana—I am employed as yard boy by C. Booth. Between 9 and 10 o'clock went out to gate and saw native flourishing revolver and threatened to shoot at the Portuguese, but he said "I do not care for you." Both were on horse back, lifted up his revolver and fired at him. Did not see Portuguese striking native. Did not see any indication that he intended to. Saw six or seven men and some boys. They were not firing rocks. Portuguese were not crowding on native before the shots were fired. Portuguese had whip in his hand, but struck no one with it. After he had been shot he struck the partner of the native several times with his whip. The first shot hit the Portuguese. He then ran away and fired some shots at random down on the ground and back of him.

Francisco Oliveira—Was going to my work Saturday morning. Heard Pacheco say "This is my cow. Let her go." Then he took his whip and hit the cow to make her go. Left my work to go and see what was the matter. He drew his revolver and fired at me. The shot came very close to me. Didn't attempt to stop native.

The jury decided that "J. C. Pacheco came to his death on September 5th, 1896, in Honolulu, Island of Oahu, by being shot and killed by one Kaaupuni; said killing being considered by this jury unjustifiable."

Homesick Bat.

The crew of the Australia and others were very much frightened yesterday morning when a black bat flew aboard the steamer at the Oceanic wharf and alighted on the shoulder of one of the officers. It seemed like a token of ill-luck and the bright sunlight was the only thing that kept several present from becoming superstitious. It was finally decided that the bat had a motive for flying back aboard the Australia. After having been freed from its cage by Joseph Marsden it had gone around to all the haunts of the Japanese beetles and had found them too much for its stomach. Homesickness set in and the bat determined to stow away so as to get back to its native soil.

RUNAWAYS GALORE.

They Turn Up in Different Parts of the City.

Yesterday was particularly rich in runaways and these were by no means confined to any special quality.

About the middle of the forenoon hack No. 96 might have been seen standing on Nuuanu avenue above Hotel street with the top completely mashed in. Some one said that the horse, becoming frightened at a Japanese ice cream wagon had attempted to shake down all the signs on both sides of the street.

Earlier in the forenoon there were three white men sitting in a brake at the corner of Alakea and King streets. One of the number was H. Sharpe who is just recovering from a siege of illness. Just then a Chinese carbage wagon came along and ran into the brake. The sudden concussion threw Sharpe out and the brake passed over him. No very great damage was done. In the afternoon there was a runaway at the railroad depot. The driver of one of H. May's wagons had alighted to deliver some freight and as he was doing this the horse started off. After a lively chase about the flower garden and in the vicinity the horse was stopped.

A cream colored sparrow was seen a short time ago near Cullercoats.

THE PASTEUR FILTER

STANDS ALONE IN THE WORLD AS A GERM-PROOF FILTER.

"The very best filter yet devised cannot rid the water of all micro-organisms, with the sole exception of the PASTEUR FILTER."

From report prepared for the Parliamentary Bills Committee of the British Medical Association, of England, in the "British Medical Journal," July 6th, 1895.

"In a report just issued, General Zurlinden, the French Minister of War, reviews the progress made in the army since 1886, in point of prophylactic measures. The most striking results are still as they were in Mr. de Freycinet's reports from 1889 to 1892, those relating to typhoid fever. In 1886 the number of cases of this disease was 7,771, being over 14 per 1,000; in 1894 it was 3,060, being under 6 per 1,000; a reduction obtained by an almost progressive decrease in each year. This result is shown by a detailed examination of the circumstances of those stations where the reduction has occurred to have invariably followed on the purification of the drinking water supplies. The report instances twenty-nine of the garrisons most subject in earlier years of typhoid fever, in each of which the introduction of an un-contaminated water supply has been followed by the disappearance of the disease, except in isolated cases, the majority of which were shown to have been contracted outside the barracks. In those cases where a new water supply has been provided, and the water was drunk UNFILTERED, epidemics followed from time to time on the contamination of the source, and disappeared on the application of PASTEUR FILTERS.
