NOTES.

Mr. Morton, the U. S. Consul, at this port, resigned his position...

Yesterday the Assembly did some good work. Besides shelving the new loan bill...

A recent important case in the Supreme Court brought up the question of the final and conclusive effect of a decree in probate...

Our contemporary, who has long been "on the fence," in regard to the Chinese question...

On Monday last the Assembly passed on its final reading an Act to amend Article 61 of the Constitution...

Both the native papers in this city, in their issues of last Saturday, express satisfaction at the signal defeat of the Assembly...

We learn that there are already five candidates named among the young native Hawaiians to be sent abroad for education...

The following circular has been distributed in town. We fear there is more truth than poetry in it:

At last the famous resolution of want of confidence in the Ministry, after knocking about for debate...
