TRAGEDY AT EWA

Japanese Attempts to Cut His Throat.

A Very Poor Way to Mend Wounded Honor - Injured Man May Recover.

There was an attempted suicide about three or four miles from Ewa Thursday night. A Japanese by the name of Matsunuku was the man who desired to shuffle off. During the evening he had been gambling and drinking with several of his countrymen. A dispute arose over a bet and one of the Japs attacked Matsunuku, striking him several times with a wooden shoe. This happened at about 11 o'clock. Matsunuku brooded over the wrong done him and thought that suicide was the only honorable method of wiping out the insult he had sustained. In plain view of the other Japanese he drew a knife and cut his throat. The others, terrified at the tragedy, scattered in all directions.

Deputy Sheriff Faneuf, accompanied by Dr. Rhodes, went to the scene. The man was found in a very low condition, but it is thought he will live.

The man who had made the assault on the would-be suicide was placed under arrest by the deputy sheriff. He will be prosecuted as soon as the wounded man is able to testify. The statement of Matsunuku was taken, in case his wounds should prove fatal.

AN AUSTRALIAN COMPANY.

May Open at the Opera House Next Months

Joseph Fynney, the advance agent of the Maggie Moore—H. R. Roberts theatrical company is in Honolulu. He is endeavoring to so arrange matters that the company can play an engagement here, opening a month from tonight. They will arrive in Honolulu on the Alameda on their way to the United States, where they will tour the country afterwards going to London. Old theatre goers will remember Maggie Moore who attained fame in "Struck Oil." H. R. Roberts is conceded to be Australia's foremost actor. The company is the first Australian organization to attempt a tour in foreign parts.

Petition Withdrawn.

In the matter of the guardianship of Edwin, Iokepa and Keoni, minor children of John Hamauku, deceased, William O. Smith has withdrawn his petition to the Circuit Court in probate for permission to sell certain real estate belonging to the minors, having succeeded since the filing of the petition in making such arrangements as to the leasing of the same which he believes will obviate the necessity of selling the same.
