Parlor Chairs.

If new and comfortable, make one's friends feel welcome. By having such chairs in a parlor, you cannot help but be honored with frequent visits, by your friends. If you go to the theater or any place of amusement and find that the chairs are not comfortable you feel uneasy, do not enjoy the entertainment and long for the finale. Did you ever stop to think that old, unwelcome PARLOR CHAIRS have impressed your friends so?

If after repeatedly extended invitations they do not call, it will be well for you to think about new

TERM IS OPENED

First Circuit Court in Regular Sitting Again.

ELEVEN NEW CASES ADDED

Several Discontinuances-Jury at Work Already-Judge Perry Presides.

The November term of the First Circuit Court opened yesterday morning, Judge Perry presiding.

Eleven new cases were added to the calendar, amongst them being Republic vs. Dr. W. S. Noblett, Republic vs. W. H. Marshall, Republic vs. W. H. Field.

The cases of J. D. Holt vs. A. Kauhli and Kalau vs. Ewa Plantation Company were continued till next term by stipulation.

In the case of Republic vs. G. H. Green, embezzlement in the second degree, the indictment was reserved till Wednesday and trial set for Monday next, as witnesses for both prosecution and defense are on Molokai.

The suit of Sol. Mahelona vs. Waianae Company was discontinued.

The court is now occupied on the case of Republic vs. Kalai, malicious injury to goods and wearing apparel to the value of $222.50; Deputy Attorney General Dole and Attorney Kaulukou for prosecution; J. K. Kaula for defense. The following jury is empaneled: S. K. Aki, J. N. Iokapa, Wm. Kaapa, P. H. Kahanu, J. Nohunohu, William Kauku, John Fideken, J. W. Mahelona, Jos. Morris, L. H. Miranda, Alex. Nicholas and D. Haumea.

Anana (Wong Ming, Ch.) filed an acceptance of summons and process in libel for divorce yesterday.

Band of 31st.

The band of the Thirty-first Infantry played at the Hawaiian Hotel yesterday afternoon between the hours of 2 and 3. Quite a large crowd, attracted by the unusually bright music, assembled around the stand and gave expression to their appreciation of the excellent music in repeated applause.

The various numbers of the all-too-short program were beautifully executed, and constituted a great treat to the surrounding residents and visitors. At the close of the concert, by special request the "Cavalleria Rusticana" Intermezzo was performed in a most charming manner.

MR. BERG REMEMBERED.

Sincere Tributes to Retiring Manager of the Kahului Railway

On the evening of Thursday, November 2, a pleasant surprise party was tendered to Mr. R. R. Berg, the retiring superintendent of the Kahului Railway Company, by the employees of the company.

The occasion fully demonstrated the friendly and agreeable relations which have existed between Mr. Berg and his employees during his superintendency.

The gathering took place at the home of Mr. J. W. Waldren, the head bookkeeper of the company, and Mr. David L. Meyer, the spokesman of the party, on behalf of the employees, presented to Mr. Berg an elegant silver tea service, at the same time, in a few well-chosen remarks, assuring him of the esteem in which he is held by his former employes, and expressing their sincere regret at his departure and wishing him success and prosperity in the future.

Mr. Berg, in response to this address of presentation, expressed his appreciation of this splendid gift and the demonstration of good will by his late employes.

Mr. G. P. Wilder, president of the Kahului Railway Company, also made a brief address, conveying the thanks of the company to Mr. Berg for his able and successful management of the company's affairs.

Mr. Berg, who will shortly leave for Honolulu, and who, during his residence on Maui, has by his open and genial ways and his unlimited hospitality, gained much popularity, will be greatly missed by his many Maui friends. BISMARCK.
