

SENSATION FOLLOWS SENSATION IN THE SMITH CASE

WALTER G. SMITH REPLIES TO JUDGE A. S. HUMPHREYS

Facts in Addition to Those Sworn in the Rejected Affidavit--Serious Charges Against Humphreys.

THE PUBLIC: At Saturday's session of the First Circuit Court, Judge Humphreys, replying to my affidavit alleging disqualification...

the course of the Advertiser. My brother having a comfortable clerkship at home, and independent means, declined. Humphreys persisted, and coming to my office, late one evening from a dinner party...

HUMPHREYS RUNS AMUCK AGAINST LEADING LAWYERS

Sentences Hartwell, Kinney and Ballou to Jail for Thirty Days--Acting Gov. Cooper Immediately Pardons Them.

THE DAY in the First Circuit Court which does not record a grandstand play by the judge thereof, is counted a blank in its calendar. Ordinary harrying and insulting language have given way to sensations...

BAILIFF LEWIS OFFERS TO PACK A JURY FOR SMITH

Sworn Statement of A. W. Pearson, Business Manager of the Gazette Company.

ON THE 23d INST. Bailiff Oscar Lewis, of Judge Humphreys' court, proposed to the business manager of the Advertiser to pack the next petit jury...

THE DETAILED PROCEEDINGS.

The following are the detailed proceedings of one of the most extraordinary days in the history of this or any other court.

THE MOTION.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FIRST JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, FOR THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII: Territory of Hawaii vs. Walter G. Smith--Perjury.

THE AFFIDAVIT OF WALTER G. SMITH.

Following the reading of the motion, Mr. Kinney proceeded to read the following affidavit by Walter G. Smith: EXHIBIT 2.