LOCAL NEWS.

A meeting of the Honolulu Rifles was held at the Armory last evening. A blast was fired in the vicinity of School street yesterday noon, which startled the neighborhood.

The Debate.

The debate in the afternoon session of the House yesterday was full of "wise" saws and modern instances. Aesop's fables were drawn on to illustrate points; the boy being advised to aim at the sun in order to hit something high; the frog trying to emulate the ox in point of size; and the mountain that labored to bring forth a mouse all were used to give point to remarks.

The "Myrtle" Ball.

The ball to be given by the Myrtle Boat Club will take place at the Central Park skating rink this evening. Preparations have been made for dancing, and a most enjoyable time is anticipated.

Building to be Sold at Auction.

Messrs. G. W. Macfarlane & Co., have instructed L. J. Levey, the auctioneer, to sell at public auction, the building known as the International Hotel, situated on Hotel street between Nuuanu and Fort streets.

An Exciting Runaway.

A lively smashup occurred on Merchant street at about five o'clock last evening. A horse attached to a brake was standing in front of W. S. Luce's wine store at the time mentioned, when the horse took fright and started out.

Decoratation Day.

At the regular meeting of Geo. W. DeLong Post No. 45, G. A. R., last Tuesday evening, a committee was appointed to arrange a programme of exercises for Decoratation Day (the 31st inst.) which falls this year on Monday.

Entertainment at the Y. M. C. A.

The members of the Young Mens Christian Association will entertain the crew of H. B. M. S. Triumph in the Association Hall this evening. An interesting programme has been prepared, in which both the sailors and the members will take part.

A Shooting Match.

A shooting match between six marksmen from the Triumph, and six of the Honolulu Rifle Association was held at the Casino yesterday afternoon. Although a strong wind was blowing at the time, some good shooting was done.

The Volcano.

By the steamer Kilauea Hou, which arrived from Hawaii yesterday, the report to the effect that the Volcano had resumed activity was confirmed.

Premature Oratory. The Independent member at large, who lets loose his bottled eloquence immediately upon the adjournment of the House each day, mistook the rising of the Committee of the Whole at noon yesterday for the adjournment, and broke in on the final motion with his usual vehemence.

The Oceanic Wharf to be Enlarged. Work will soon be commenced in extending and enlarging the Oceanic Steamship Company's wharf. The high fence at the lower end of the wharf is to be torn down and the wharf extended to the upper end of the Inter-Island wharf.
