THE COLONIZATION SCHEME.

Governments are the natural guardians of the people; therefore to protect the rights of an individual is to leave the duty of the rulers there is in their duty to foster schemes for the development of the country's natural resources.

It follows that all reasonable projects for developing the resources of these Islands should be furthered and protected by this Government.

It is proposed by this company to buy up some of the great landed estates of these Islands, the present scheme embracing the Honolulu ranch containing about 45,000 acres of land, the Kahuku ranch containing about 25,000 acres and the Kawaihoa and Waimea ranches containing about 45,000 acres of surveyed and unsurveyed land.

Some of the main points connected with the situation and resources of these ranches may be briefly summed up as follows: The different properties are easy of access either by land or water; they are all fertile valley lands or fine uplands for grazing; all the properties are well watered by springs, artesian wells and natural water sheds with easy constructed reservoirs; they are all well stocked, well grassed, well wooded and well fruited; they contain excellent fishing possibilities which may be practically developed into an immense source of revenue; these different ranches are capable, according to locality, of producing sugar and rice, vineyards and fruit orchards, and are also suitable for small farms or larger grazing tracts.

One of the main things to be taken into consideration, in the present offer of the company, is, that each and every one of the properties embraced in the scheme is at the present time a paying property. Another feature to be looked at is, that no matter how poor a man may be he can enter upon the land offered and by his own labor and enterprise can not only make a living, but can lay by enough money to purchase in a few years, on the installment plan, the homestead upon which he lives, thereby rendering himself and his family independent.

The scheme is a gigantic one but it is backed by men of sterling moral and financial worth, who will use every endeavor to carry it through to a successful consummation. Embracing as it does an estate containing 63,250 acres of land in fee simple and 52,500 acres of leasehold land, it is a scheme that necessarily calls for foreign immigration and home support.

Honolulu Restaurants.

EDITOR DAILY HONOLULU PRESS.—Sir: A little observation clearly demonstrates that a large proportion of Honolulu citizens live in restaurants, and this number is inevitably found to increase with the growth of the city and the steadily increasing influx of the foreign element.
