

Society

A PAGE from the books of the most famous descriptive writers of social affairs in the French capital during the Third Empire would fittingly describe the reception to Secretary and Mrs. Knox on Thursday at Arcadia, the home of Governor and Mrs. Frear, on Punahou street. It was a gathering of Honolulu society old and new. Mrs. Frear, a most charming hostess, with Queen Liliuokalani, who still reigns among her people as the "first lady of the land," had for their companion, dividing the admiration of the many guests, Mrs. Philander C. Knox, wife of the American Secretary of State, in whose honor the reception was given. The beautiful grounds at Arcadia were becomingly decorated with flags, while Mrs. Frear's home was done in American Beauty and other varieties of pink roses. In the receiving line were Governor Frear, Secretary Knox, Mrs. Frear, Mrs. Knox, Mr. Miller, Mrs. Mott-Smith and Admiral Reynolds. At the refreshment table Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey served tea, and Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop poured tea, while Miss Edith Cowles and Miss Mary von Holt presided over the punch bowl. Among the callers during the afternoon were her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani, Princess Kalaniana'ole, Admiral and Mrs. Cowles, General and Mrs. Macomb, Major and Mrs. Neville, Captain and Mrs. McDougal, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Gayler, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Farrington, Colonel and Mrs. J. W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Smith, Captain and Mrs. Game, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Wichman, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Hull, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Babbitt, Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dominis, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dowsett, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Hitchcock, Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Westervelt, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gignoux, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Carter, Rev. and Mrs. Scudder, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Super, Mr. and Mrs. H. Gooding Field, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Gere, Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Smith, Mrs. J. C. Evans, Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. C. A. Snider, Mrs. King, Mrs. Dargie, Mrs. Ross Kingsbury, Mrs. Mary Gunn, Mrs. Z. Cunha, Mrs. A. M. Nowell, Mrs. T. Wall, Mrs. H. Bredbill, Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mrs. Herbert Dowsett, Mrs. B. Frank Cheatham, Mrs. George Sherman, Mrs. F. W. Macfarlane, Mrs. Cole, Mrs. C. T. Wilder, Miss Margaret McIntyre, Miss Farrell, Miss Elizabeth Farrell, Miss Cowles, Miss Williams, Miss Agnes Buchanan, Miss Elliott, Miss Virginia Frear, Miss Katherine Yates, Miss Castle, Captain John M. Elliott, Judge Sanford B. Dole, Edward A. Blair, Gerald Johnson, Judge Monsarrat, Dr. Monsarrat, R. O. Matheson, Herbert E. Stevens, Laurence Redington, N. W. Campanole, H. H. Gaylord, I. de Arana, Acting Consul Thomas Harrington, Dr. J. S. B. Pratt, Arthur A. Wilder, T. O'ndero, Acting Consul Y. Mori and staff, Consul A. de Souza Casavarrro, Dr. N. B. Emerson, George Osborne, Prof. J. W. Gilmore, Willis T. Pope, R. H. Warren, C. A. MacDonald, C. A. Bostrom.

Miss Lucas' ancing Party.
Miss Sarah Lucas was hostess at a thoroughly enjoyable party at Kaalawai last night, with a goodly number of the younger society folks as her guests. The large lanai was decorated with pepper branches through which the lights peeped and danced with artistic effect. Music by a Hawaiian quintet club kept the young folks dancing till a late hour. Among the invited guests were:
Miss Helen Brown, Miss Lydia McStocker, Miss Julia McStocker, Miss Ethel Spalding, Miss Helen Spalding, Miss Rose Herbert, Miss Wilhelmina Tenney, Miss Edith Williams, Miss Agnes Buchanan, Miss Nina Craig, Miss E. Edna Burnett, Miss Juliette Atherton, Miss Laura Atherton, Miss Laura Atherton, Miss Violet Atherton, Miss Smith, Miss Titus, Miss Violet Stoeber, Miss Margaret Waterhouse, Miss Muriel Uuwai, Miss Eva McCarriston, Miss Dove McCarriston, Miss Gertrude McCarriston, Miss Belle McCarriston, Miss Lorna Lauka, Miss Lady Macfarlane, Miss Alice Macfarlane, Miss Myrtle Schuman, Miss Marguerite Wadman, Mrs. Adams, Miss Callie Lucas, Miss Marjorie GH-

MRS. E. P. DARGIE.
Now visiting in Honolulu.

the spectators' galleries being full every afternoon.

Following are the results to date:
Men's singles—First round: Rolph, bye; Scott beat Young, 6-0, 6-2; Willifong beat Wood, 6-0, 6-2; Giles beat Watson, 6-2, 6-2; B. Vickers beat Johnson, 6-3, 10-8; Clarke, bye; Desha beat Aitken, 6-1, 6-4; Dr. Irwin beat Hieserman, 6-2, 6-1. Second round—Scott beat Rolph, 6-0, 6-2; Willifong beat Giles, 6-2, 6-1; B. Vickers beat Clarke, 7-5, 6-3; Dr. Irwin beat Desha, 6-3, 6-2.

Ladies' singles—First round: Miss Fox beat Mrs. Watson, 6-4, 6-3; Mrs. Dan McCarriston, Mr. Oscar McCarriston, Mr. Bob McCarriston, Mr. A. Corriston, Mr. Shenkel, Mr. Rockwell, Mr. McDowd, Mr. Jordan, Mr. Gay, Mr. Catton, Mr. Nottage, Mr. Cooke, Mr. Henderson, Mr. Richards, Mr. Clarke, Mr. Gilman, Mr. Huestace, Mr. Harold Gear, Mr. Lymer, Mr. Larsen, Mr. Patten, Mr. Wichman, Mr. Biennault, Mr. Foote, Mr. Hedemann, Lieut. Vanhan, Lieut. Campanole, Mr. Schumann, Mr. Jones, Mr. Herrick, Mr. Gray, Mr. Sinclair, Mr. McFarlane, Mr. Cyril Hoogs, Mr. Udie Hoogs, Mr. Spalding, Mr. Skinner, Mr. Sumner, Mr. Lowrey, Mr. Whitney, Commodore Wood, Mr. Morgan, Mr. Podmore, Mr. Dixon Nott, Mr. Phillips, Mr. Galloway, Mr. Withington and Mr. Gaylord.

Tennis at Hilo.
HILO, Aug. 30.—Most of the heats in connection with the annual championship tournaments of the Hilo Tennis Club have been played off now, and on Saturday most of the finals will be disposed of. Some fine tennis has been shown, and the greatest interest has been taken in the games.

Social Notes

Lieutenant and Mrs. Harold Naylor, U. S. A., who have been in Honolulu for the last two years, will arrive in San Francisco in the early part of September to spend several days as the guests of friends before leaving for Fort Leavenworth. Mrs. Naylor was Miss Peggy Simpson, one of the most popular of the army girls.

Miss Root who has been visiting in Peking, China, and who passed through Honolulu on Tuesday was the guest of Mrs. Walter Dillingham at an informal luncheon. Covers were laid for Miss Root, Mrs. Walter Frear, Mrs. William Whitney, Mrs. Alfred Castle, Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. Dillingham.

Mrs. E. P. Dargie, whose portrait appears in today's issue, and whose former visit to Honolulu won for her many friends, is again in the islands, a guest at the Hotel Moana. This charming lady is popular in Honolulu society, and many affairs are being planned for her.

Mrs. George R. Carter entertained at a surprise dinner on Wednesday evening for her daughter, Elizabeth. Among those present were Miss Eloise Wichman, Miss Mary von Holt, Miss May Biven, Mr. Frederick Wichman, Mr. Herman von Holt and Mr. Francis Brown.

On Tuesday evening, Mrs. Francis M. Swanzy entertained at dinner for Captain and Mrs. Clifton Carter who are leaving Honolulu in the early part of next week. After dinner the party motored to the ball at the Oahu Country Club.

The beautiful exhibit of trimmed hats at Miss Fowler's millinery parlors is of unusual interest to those who admire what is smart and beautiful in millinery. The exhibit continues all next week and ladies are cordially invited. Boston building, second floor.

Miss Marjorie Chapin and Miss Marian Chaplin left in the Mongolla this week. Miss Marjorie is going to Boston to take a four-year course in music, and her sister will visit in Michigan for six months or a year.

Mrs. Jack Milton returned on the Lurline Wednesday, bringing some of the most fascinating styles in millinery for Milton & Parsons. Summer hats will be sold at special prices for one week, beginning Sept. 3, to make room for the opening of fall stock.

The Princess Kawananakoa whose picture appears in this issue is recovering in health and will soon be able to resume her rightful place in society to the gratification of her friends and admirers whose numbers is legion.

Mrs. Alex. Isenberf left Wednesday in the Mongolla with her brother, Mr. Walter Dulsenberg, whose recent accident has called forth much sympathy from his many friends.

A concert will be given by the Heart of Love Society tonight at Waikanae Hall, starting at 7 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Warper are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a little daughter in their family.

Mr. James Crystal McCandless, who has spent the summer here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McCandless, left for school in the Mongolla today.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cooke left the Mongolla this week for a tour of the mainland.

Miss Ethel Spalding is spending tonight on the other side of the island with Miss Florence Hoffmann.

Mrs. Arthur B. Ingalls is going to At Home on the fifth of September for Miss Klampke.

Miss Carol Low left in the Mongolla Wednesday, en route for the city where she will study art.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Maister, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wideman, Missie Schmidt and Mr. Ernest Maister were the guests of the Princess Kawananakoa Tuesday evening at a lightful theater party at the house.

MAY'S

REFRIGERATOR Is Where You Can See It

The most particular consumers in the world today demand that perishable goods be kept in a sweet and clean condition. With this idea in view we have installed an

Up-to-Date Sanitary Refrigerator Equipment

Come in and see how we keep food pure and wholesome. It will interest you.

Our Wagons have Cold Storage Boxes

Henry May & Co., Ltd.

LEADING GROCERS

TELEPHONE 1271

Special Prices on Summer Millinery

One Week--Sept. 3-Sept. 10

To make room for New Fall Stock
Personally selected by Mrs. Milton from Eastern markets.

Milton & Parsons, 112 Fort Street

Distinctive Stationery

Those who observe the niceties in social correspondence will be interested in our exclusive styles in stationery for ladies and gentlemen.

Our directly imported Parisian stationery for gentlemen will appeal most strongly to those of refined taste.

STEEL DIE WORK AND ENGRAVING

WICHMAN'S
Leading Jewelers