CHANGES IN UNIFORMS BRING PROTEST FROM NAVY

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 5.—Navy officers are up in arms against the latest order of the department making changes in their uniforms. Each officer will have to spend $300 to $500 for the new uniforms and changing old ones.

The order, say the officers, is without justification and supposes a financial hardship on every one from rear admiral to midship.

The recent order to which they object lengthens the boat cloak and frock coat with velvet collar for the cloak.

PAIN IN THE STOMACH.

It is most annoying, as well as disagreeable, to be troubled with pains in the stomach, and there is no need of it for one dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will allay the pain. Try it once and be convinced. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaii.
