HOLY LAND IN SUNDAY LECTURE

All who attend Central Union Church Sunday evening will enjoy a rare treat. Arrangements have been made to have Lieut. Col. Blanche B. Cox deliver her illustrated lecture on "My Trip Through the Holy Land." Miss Cox will present 125 beautifully colored slides made from pictures taken by herself on her trip to the Holy Land a few years ago, and because of her splendid ability as a speaker she will be able with her descriptions to make the evening a most interesting and profitable one. No one who can possibly do so should fail to attend. The admission is free and everyone is most cordially invited.

Y. M. I. AUXILIARY GATHER AT FEAST

The members of the ladies' auxiliary of the Y. M. I. together with their friends and a number of priests from the different islands, gathered at the Catholic Mission last night at an old-fashioned Hawai'ian feast in commemoration of the first year of the existence of that organization. A musical program was rendered and prominent among the guests was Bishop Libert. Though only a year old, the ladies' auxiliary of the Y. M. I. ranks among the most successful of women's organizations in Hawaii. Their objects are to benefit the sick and social intercourse.

Following are the officers of the organization:—President, Mrs. R. Cathcart; first vice president, Mrs. H. M. Ayres; second vice president, Miss Mary Akau; secretary, Miss Josephine Davis; treasurer, Mrs. M. N. Sampson; marshal Mrs. E. Legros; inner guard Miss Bernice Poaha; outer guard, Miss Annie Tallent.

SPIRITUALIST MEETING.

Mrs. Hartman will hold a spiritualist meeting in social hall, Odd Fellows' building, Sunday evening at 7:30.

The man who is untrue to his friends can never trust himself.

SEED CATALOGUE.

A Hawaiian supplement to the seed catalogue of Aggeler & Musser, Los Angeles, has been received, which will no doubt be appreciated by small farmers and town home makers. This bit of enterprise is credited by the firm to the courteous suggestion of the Hawaii marketing division. A Chinese edition of the supplement is also to hand. Mr. Musser lately made a tour of the islands in the interest of his firm.
