Mrs. L. M. Stephens' Informal Bridge Party.

Mrs. L. M. Stephens is entertaining informally at bridge this afternoon at her home at the Navy Yard. The color scheme for the decorations is pink and will be developed with delicate pink flowers. The invited guests are Miss Nora Sturgeon, Miss Margaret Waterhouse, Mrs. George Isenberg, Mrs. Kirby Smith, Mrs. Albert Afong, Miss Edith Cowles, Miss Julia McStocker, Mrs. Ross Kingsbury, Mrs. Gerald Johnson, Mrs. Douglas McDougal and Miss Harriet Hatch.

Picnic for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baldwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baldwin were the complimented guests at a picnic at Mokoile on Sunday at which Mr. Walter Dillingham was host. The party motored to the country in the morning and returned to town at sundown. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. George Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rice, Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, Miss Marion Scott, Mr. Robert Atkinson, Mr. William Roth and Mr. Collins.

Informal Birthday Dinner.

Mrs. Maxwell Murray entertained at an informal birthday dinner last Friday evening at the Moana Hotel. The table was prettily decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and the centerpiece was a birthday cake ornamented with candles. Covers were laid for six including Miss Harriet Hatch, Miss Murray, General Maccomb, Lieutenant Andrews, and Mr. and Mrs. Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. Lillie Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Innes Lillie entertained informally at dinner at the Young Hotel last evening. The dinner was followed by a theatre party to the Ye Liberty theatre. Covers were laid for Miss Anne Dremm, Miss McDevot, Mrs. Hansen, Miss May Ferguson, Miss Fairweather, Miss Swain, and Mr. and Mrs. Lillie.

THE SPIANS WHO PLAYED HERE IN DAYS GONE BY

Letters from old time vaudeville artists who delighted Honolulu audiences when the various Theatres were under separate managers, gives very interesting accounts from the four corners of the world. Receipts from letters of the various pros from different parts of the world tells of their success and in all cases they speak highly of Honolulu as a show town.

Barnes and West who are at present in Australia in a breezy letter tell of their travels. After showing in dear old "Lunnon Town" they invaded South America for the second time and were warmly received. They played in Buenos Ayres for two months and made a record for themselves as all other acts never show for more than a month.

The two English papers in the big South American Metropolis speak very highly of their work. Miss West is credited with being the cleverest lady dancer that ever worked in South America. George Barnes' eccentric dancing was the talk of the town. The Spanish, French and German papers were also loud in their comment of the clever Yankee Team. Their litho which will be recalled by Honoluluans of two years ago created no end of the comment in the land that the Monroe Doctrine keeps intact.

After doing South Africa they embarked for South Africa where they were also well received. They visited the diamond regions and are proud to herald the fact that they found a Yankee in charge of the biggest Diamond Concern of the world. They regard South Africa as a whole but principally Johannesburg as a very good show town.

They are at present in Australia and are touring the Kangaroo land from East to West. They will remain in Australia the rest of the year. The early part of January they will set sail for Manila and after showing in Manila will sail for Honolulu, playing enroute in China and Japan ports. They will show here for a few weeks around spring and from here will go to Los Angeles where Miss West has an orange orchard and to quote her "I will run wild among the flowers and fruits in Los Angeles and say farewell to my theatrical career."

Alberto, the coy deceiver, is another aspirant for membership in the Comeback Club. He played in Canada the Northwest, the Middle West, and is now in New York where he is extracting laughs and bank notes right and left. He looks forward to his return to Honolulu on his way to his home "Australia" where the Horses comes from.

Golding and Keating, who will be remembered as showing at the Empire, are now on the Hopkins time doing the South and the Middle West. Miss Keating is drawing strong and is constantly referred to as a second Toby Claude. This little pocket edition comedienne who hails from the Land of the Kangaroo is on the high way to success. Late advices announce that she will shortly be on her way to Honolulu, another applicant for the Comeback Club.

Letters from other more or less leading lights show that after all is said and done Honolulu is not such a bad show town after all.

WOULD PUT LYMAN BACK IN OLD JOB AS TRUSTY

HONO, Oct. 22.—Supervisor Austin, in all seriousness, has made the suggestion that Rufus Lyman, the former deputy county clerk who is now in jail on the charge of embezzlement, should again be placed in that office as a trusty, to continue his former work, but without his former salary of course. Austin says Lyman had the details of the county clerk's business at his fingers tips and understood it better than any of those now endeavoring to attend to the work. Lyman at present is chef at the Kau road jail.

BY AUTHORITY

The Board of Supervisors will hold a meeting in the Assembly hall, McIntyre Building, corner of King and Fort Streets, at 7:30 o'clock p. m., Thursday, October 24, 1912, at which discussions are invited on Bill No. 51, same being Ordinance amending Ordinance No. 11 so that Section 13 will read as follows:

"Section 13.—No person riding, driving, propelling, or in charge of any vehicle upon any street, shall allow such vehicle to remain backed up to the curb, except when such vehicle is being actually loaded or unloaded, except as hereinafter provided. No person riding, driving, propelling, or in charge of any vehicle, shall allow such vehicle to stand or remain on Fort Street, between Queen Street and Beretania Street, in the District of Honolulu, for any longer time than is necessary to allow passengers to enter such vehicle or to alight therefrom, or longer than is necessary for the loading or unloading of the same."

It was not the intention of the society reporter to announce an engagement for Mrs. Lang, the much-loved "mother" of the Juvenile Bostonians, on Saturday last. Miss Lois Mason left the company and is at her home in Ellensburg, where her marriage to a young business man of that city will be celebrated in the near future. The Bostonians have many warm friends in Honolulu and any information concerning them is welcomed with interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark A. Robinson (Miss Agnes Armour) whose wedding was one of the important society events of the past week, were outgoing passengers in the Manchuria this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will spend several months touring the States and will return to Honolulu shortly after the first of the year and will make their home here.

Mr. George B. Torrey, who has been a visitor in Honolulu for several months, was a departing passenger in the Manchuria this morning. During his stay here Mr. Torrey has made several excellent portraits of some of Honolulu's society folk.

There will be a meeting of the Kiloana Art League tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock. The purpose of this meeting is to discuss a change in the constitution and it is hoped that all the members will be present.

Mrs. Erminia P. Dargie, who has been a guest at the Moana hotel for several weeks, and who has been extensively entertained during her visit to the islands, was a departing passenger in the Manchuria this morning.

During the time that her husband is attending the army maneuvers, Mrs. Gerald Johnson is the houseguest of Mrs. Ross Kingsbury on Lunalia street.

Mrs. Ross Kingsbury and Mrs. Gerald Johnson are entertaining informally at tea tomorrow afternoon at the home of the former on Lunalia street.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Baldwin of Maui, who have been in Honolulu for a short time, left for their home in the Mauna Kea this morning.

Among the society folk who left for the mainland this morning in the Manchuria were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane.

Miss Harriet Hatch is entertaining at luncheon today for Mrs. Maxwell Murray and Miss Murray of San Francisco.

Mr. Walter Dillingham left in the Mauna Kea this morning for a short trip to the other islands.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Macfarlane were outgoing passengers in the Manchuria this morning.

Miss Helen A. Alexander left in the Manchuria today for a trip to the mainland.

According to a cable received here the British steamship Hornet sailing from Honolulu on Oct. 11th arrived at Eureka yesterday. This vessel is understood will take on lumber destined for Australia.
