

There is real help for your nerves in Sanatogen

THE assurance that there is real help for tired, exhausted nerves has come as a veritable boon to thousands of men and women—in a crisis when their nerves have broken under the taxation of strenuous effort, debilitating illness or weakening worry.

There is no condition where lack of physical or mental vigor more quickly affects efficiency than a lowering of nervous vitality.

The universal indorsement of Sanatogen by over 16,000 physicians gives scientific authority to the enthusiastic praise it has received from multitudes of grateful men and women who date their return to nerve-health from its use.

If you find yourself with shattered, weakened nerves—at a stage where work is driving effort—where you lack interest in things in which you formerly took pleasure—where digestion is impaired—where sleepless nights are the rule—where you are irritable—you will do well to give heed to what these physicians have said about Sanatogen.

Sanatogen is a nerve food—scientifically combining the elements necessary to feed the nerve. It is a compound of purest protein and organic phosphorus in a form that readily and easily digests—imposing no burden upon the most delicate stomach—and not causing harmful temporary stimulation. Sanatogen is just cell and nerve food—pure, real, ideal.

You may find Sanatogen is what your nerves need.

THEIR 25TH WAS CELEBRATED

Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit P. Wilder Make Notable Anniversary of Their Wedding

Twenty-five years served only to add happiness and friends to the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit P. Wilder who celebrated last evening their silver wedding anniversary.

The setting for the affair was ideal, the whole being artistic, perfectly ordered and comfortable, thoroughly typical of the activities of Mr. and Mrs. Wilder. The decorations were expressive not only of the artistic temperament of the bride of twenty-five years ago but also of the genius of the twenty-five-year groom.

Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Wilder were Governor and Mrs. Walter F. Frear, Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Galt, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander J. Campbell and Doctor and Mrs. George Herbert.

After the host of friends bidden to the celebration had offered their congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Wilder had a musical dinner by a number of the guests of the hotel where the magnificent wedding cake topped with the delicate silver bell, occupied the center of attention.

The dinner was danced by Mr. and Mrs. James Wilder, Miss Mary Ellen Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown, Miss Jaques and Samuel Wilder, Mrs. John S. Walker and Walter F. Dillingham, Judge and Mrs. William Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Mrs. Mary Ellen Scott and Robert Atkinson, Miss Marion Scott and George Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. George Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Wilder.

After the course of the dinner were complete, Governor Frear made a short and appropriate speech expressing the congratulations of "honorable friends" who danced the dinner as a memento about the cake and sang "Silver Threads Among the Gold".

Gerrit P. Wilder married Miss Lillian Kimball at Mills Seminary, Nov. 7, 1887. After their wedding tour they made their home at Kahului, Maui, coming to Honolulu in more recent years.

WILL TAKE ISLAND PHOTO FROM BALLOON

A. C. Pillsbury, the art photographer of San Francisco who was in the islands in the spring taking photographs of island scenery, has announced his intention of taking photographs of the island scenery from the basket of a captive balloon.

According to Mr. Pillsbury, the Sunset magazine for January will have an illustrated article on Hawaii which he contributed, dealing with contrasts of mainland and island scenery, the contrasts being the valley with Yosemite, and Waimea Canyon with the Grand Canyon of Arizona.

Major Putman, British Consul, one-time husband of Mrs. Yobe, the actress, and a present manager of affairs in Siam, has volunteered his assistance in the war against the Turks.

BEREAVEMENT FOR LOCAL WRITER

Advice from Bellingham, Washington, brings the sad news of the finding of the body of Miss Marjorie Wacianer in the waters of Chasehanut Bay. She mysteriously left her home on the morning of October 16. On the same day, while search for her was being made, her coat was found on the railway trestle that leads across the body of water where her body was afterwards found, and since then her brother Ernest had searched the waters and beaches daily.

the first of the year, but on account of ill health she returned to her home in the State of Washington, and it is thought that during an acute attack of melancholia, resulting from falling health during the last two years, ended her life in the bay.

Miss Emily Wacianer, a sister of the deceased at one time connected with the editorial staff of the Evening Bulletin, and later with "The Friend," returned to her home the first of last month. The following is from the last issue of "The Friend": A Message of Sympathy.

Readers of The Friend will miss in this issue the breezy notes which have been appearing under the headings "Of Interest to Women" and "Birds Eye Glimpses" from the pen of Miss Wacianer. A cablegram announcing the sudden passing away of her sister summoned her to the mainland, and she sailed for the China, October 15. We know that many will wish to join with us in heartfelt sympathy for her, and to express the hope that she may find it possible to return to Honolulu where she has won the regard of many by her genuine kindness and her editorial work.

Eleven nations have decided to protest against China's proposed abrogation of the salt revenue while the Boxer indemnity is still unpaid. In view of a possible armed conflict in the near future, some of the Dutch newspapers are urging the co-operation of Holland with the United States.

Wonder what upset your stomach?—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; your head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul; tongue coated—just take a little Diapepsin and in five minutes you truly will wonder what became of the indigestion and distress. Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite food, without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty-cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.
