Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The grammar School Athletic League will announce its soccer schedule Monday. The first game of the series will be between Punahou prep and the Mills School boys on Alexander Field Monday afternoon.
The four clubs of the employed boys department of the association, namely Lincoln, Washington, McKinley and Kamehameha clubs, will go on a moonlight bike to Kahala bay this evening for a "weenie" feast and a swim. The first party will leave the building at five o'clock and the second will follow at six o'clock. The kaukau will be furnished by the association and the boys may bring any other eatables along that they wish to. Secretary Cross has asked the boys to bring along all the ukuleles and taro patches that they can carry, and no doubt there will be music and stinging galas.
The fundamental Principles of Photography was the subject of an interesting talk given by Alonzo Gartley last night before the members of the Hawaii Camera Club, one of the "Y's" newest organization. The treatise dealt with the subject of lenses and shutters and then on plates and the relation of chemical reaction. He advocated that, for the amateur, as well as the professional photographer, the reduction of all variable elements to the minimum. "Select materials with latitude," he said, "and stick to the same under all conditions. Vary stops and time as little as possible and you will have beautiful results." Edgar Cohen's collection of California views was on display during the evening and was the subject of much interest.
