KILLED IN MOVIE PANIC
[Associated Press Cable]
BILBOA, Spain, Nov. 24.—Fifty persons, mostly little children, were killed in a moving picture theater here this evening during a panic caused by a false alarm of fire. The children were trampled to death in the rush by the audience to escape.

Over-Night FEDERAL Wireless To the Advertiser

The independence of Albania has been proclaimed at Durazzo by Ismail Kamal Bey, the leader of the Albanians, according to a report published in the Allgemeine Zeitung today.

Germany has called to the colors 120,000 reservists to increase to a war footing five army corps being mobilized tonight.

The Kaiser recently has shown much amusement at being designated by French and English journalists as the "Stormy Petrel" of the chancellors.

Tests will be made at Sandy Hook of the new 3-inch guns specially constructed to guard Hawaii, the Panama Canal and the Philippine defenses against invasion by hostile air craft. Experts say these guns can sweep the heavens clear of aerial enemies, in case of necessity.

One of the consequences of the Balkan war has been the reduced trade in diamonds from Antwerp, thus affecting the diamond-cutting industry of Paris. The Bulgarian market for precious stones is very large.

Burton W. Gibson, the lawyer on trial at Goshen, N. Y., for the murder of Countess Rosa Sanbo, is on the verge of collapse. His case goes to the jury tomorrow. Gibson's wife returned to Rutherford, N. J., today, to be with her children and nurse herself for the ordeal of standing by her husband when the jury is ready to announce the verdict.

If President-elect Wilson adheres to his announced policy of keeping open door at the White House and seeing all who will call, Wall Street need no longer speculate as to what is to happen in the four years beginning March 4 next.

Old-employees of the White House, including the secret service men and the police officials, figured out today that ten thousand job-hunters will be gathered in Washington from all parts of the country after the inauguration.

Over 2000 inmates and imbeciles gazed in terror while fire destroyed the Brunswick home for idiots and feeble-minded children at Matysville, Long Island. Over six hundred of the inmates, many of them little children, were in great personal danger for over an hour.

New York society states that coral necklaces, such as are strung by the women of Hawaii, are being worn instead of more expensive jewelry by many of the debutantes this season.

A report charging people in the pine section of New Jersey with exchanging wives and selling babies for small sums of money lies in the desk of Governor Wilson.

The illness of the little Czarowitz, which is causing such grave anxiety, brings to mind the objections that were raised to him being christened with the name Alexis, objections which, surprisingly enough, were ignored, for Russians are nothing if not superstitious.

The altitude record for women aviators was broken by L. Juba Galantchikow, a Russian aviatrix. She soared to a height of 7800 feet. The flight was made in a monoplane.

Responding to the vigorous protests of shipbuilding interests, the treasury department, with the indorsement of President Taft, today announced that machinery is not entitled to free entry to the United States under the new free shipping law, but materials for the construction of machinery will come in free.

Samuel Gompers was today reelected president of the American Federation of Labor.

The Austrian Danube flotilla of four gunboats, two monitors and two torpedo boats started toward Belgrade this afternoon. It was not announced that the flotilla is on a hostile mission, but this development is considered ominous. Employees of all street railways have been ordered to report to regimental commanders of the Reserves Sunday.

Great excitement prevails in Vienna today over the announcement in the Reichpost that Russia is mobilizing all her army corps. Financiers are particularly anxious and the stock market is steadily declining. Reports say Austria already has 500,000 troops on a war footing.

Four men from the Presidio, San Francisco, received from the hands of President Taft at the White House, the medal of honor, the highest award that can be given to an American soldier. The recipients are First Lieut. Archie Miller, Second Lieut. Archie H. Wilson and John Kennedy, Quartermaster Sergt. Jos. Henderson, all of the Sixth Cavalry.

One of the giant gates of the Gatun locks in the Panama Canal was tested for the first time yesterday, when Miss Helen Taft put the electrical machinery in operation and swung the gate open.

Eugene V. Debs, candidate of the Socialist party for president of the United States at the last election, was indicted by the federal grand jury charged with conspiring to defeat the ends of justice by inducing witnesses in the case of the United States against the editors and owners of the "Appeal to Reason" to leave the country.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg says an unsuccessful attempt was made last Monday to wreck the train on which Emperor Nicholas and members of the Russian imperial family were returning from Sparta to Tsakhoi Sloz, by tearing up the rails near Kozlowa, Ruda.
