ANY NEW OFFICERS DON MATSON UNIFORMS AFTER SHAKE-UP

There has been a general shifting of officers in the Matson Navigation service of late, and the flagship, the Wilhelmina, the pride of the fleet has been exempted when the call for a deal among men who heretofore had the Matson uniform, was issued on the occasion of the last of the Wilhelmina at San Francisco morning.

Second Officer J. H. Smith and Third Officer S. A. Ken and First Assistant J. S. Higgins, H. W. Menary, wireless operator and P. H. Levey, as purser, are to the roll call when the immigration quarantine and customs officers visited the liner off the coast at an early hour this morning.

It is said that some of the men transferred to other vessels in Matson service, while others will work along the coast.

Some of the roughest kind of weather was encountered on the voyage, but the crew rather discouraged the efforts to live ones to pull off a program of games and entertainments.

It was hard enough to keep you in just a quiet stroll about the deck, let alone attempting the latest fashioning of the Wilhelmina was in receiving reception on her arrival at the wharf this morning.

Mr. Berger, leader of the Hawaiian band, a passenger was the motif for full attendance of the musicians.

A musical program greeted the returning passengers.

People prominent in the business and social life in the city were numbered among the passengers. A small sprinkling of tourists.

The Wilhelmina is to remain here Thursday evening during which three thousand tons freight will be discharged including twenty-eight automobiles.

The vessel has two thousand tons of the Crescent City. One item on freight for this port is a shipment of 1800 bales of hay.

Mr. Charlie Drew, whose general has been limited with the Matson Navigation, flagship Wilhelmina from San Francisco on the Pacific, is to be into retirement. The Matson Navigation office is to enter into the total eclipse and for the present at least the Matson decks which are to be with majestic men, and to honor him, will see him no more.

There was a more or less constant presence of friends who found their way to the purser's retreat in the Wilhelmina this morning.

Mr. Drew is to cast his lot with a "retirement" committee of one, who intends to pay particular attention to the "marvelous growth" of the company over there. "Hilo" was dramatically declared.

Mr. Drew has been appointed representative for the Matson Navigation Company during the absence of General Agent Baldwin who has been granted leave for a period of several months.

Mr. Drew will remain with the Wilhelmina until that vessel arrives at the Crescent City, and then will take over the duties of general agent of the company until the return of Mr. Baldwin.

Mr. Levey, formerly purser of the Wilhelmina, has been promoted to the position of purser.

Honolulu there are 1382 tons of merchandise and 118,500 feet of lumber. Thirty-one head of stock are also on board consigned to this port. Freight for other ports is as follows: Kona, 70 tons; 8000 feet of lumber; Kahului, 263 tons; 50,400 feet of lumber; Port Allen, 242 tons; Hilo, 605 tons.

The Hilolani is to berth at the rail-way wharf where a portion of the freight will be discharged. Captain Charles Peterson, now master of the vessel, is reported as in line for promotion in the Matson service with the completion of two new liners on the east coast of the United States.

Rains Prevail Along Hawaii Coasts. Bringing reports of considerable rain along the coast of Hawaii, the inter-island steamer Kilauea, with a small list of passenger and freight is an arrival from Hilo this morning.

The Kilauea returned with shipments of hides, wool, a quantity of supplies, 10 cords wood, 25 packages sundries, 100 lbs. Phillips reports light trades and fine weather generally on the voyage.

Inter-island steamers were found trading at several ports of call including the Kalulani at Hilo, Kaula at Papakou, Hela at Pepeekeo and Keonah at Hilo.

Hawaii Cattle Received. Seventy-five head of cattle from the Parker Ranch arrived at the port this morning as part of the cargo brought by the inter-island steamer Mau.

This vessel met with light winds and favorable seas on most of the passage.

Waller and McLean. JUDICIAL COMMISSIONERS. At a conference held this morning by Circuit Judges H. E. Cooper, W. L. Whitney and W. J. Robinson, Gilbert J. Waller and James L. McLean have been nominated for appointment as circuit court jury commissioners, to serve during the coming year. The nominees have not yet accepted the appointment. They will select the panels of veniremen from which the territorial grand jury and trial juries are chosen.

At an important conference to be held shortly by the local circuit judges the nature of the work each will handle during the next year will be determined. At present Judge Whitney handles probate, juvenile and civil matters; Judge Cooper, civil cases, and Judge Robinson, the criminal cases. A shift in these jobs may be made at the coming conference.

It is understood the Federal grand jury, which held no session today, will make a report to the court tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Several indictments for offenses of a minor nature are expected, but whether any report into the rumored charges of graft at Hilo will develop is unknown.

Test Ride Not A Feat Of Scenery

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Nov. 26.—The first day of the sixty-mile test ride for the army officers above the grade of captain stationed in the Department of Hawaii was conducted by the Department Commander, General M. M. Macomb, in person, and passed off without accident or special incident.

The start was made from the officers' mess of the Fifth Cavalry and at 2 o'clock p. m. the entire group of twenty-five with General Macomb at its head passed through the lower garrison and headed for the country north and east of Wahiawa. The route of twenty miles had been carefully measured by Lieuts. Longacker and Crockett. Second Infantry, using the former's motor, and loud were the expressions of hope that the two lieutenants had taken their duty seriously and had not been tempted to indulge in any "long distance" jokes.

The return to the starting point was accomplished by the leaders in exactly three hours riding time, that being an hour under the authorized limit. The last officer in, consumed just twenty minutes more than did General Macomb who led all the way. A somewhat hasty foray on the hospitalities of the Cavalry mess was immediately organized and that part of the affair was also accomplished without incident other than that the three house-boys of the mess are said to have needed "first aid" and "artificial respiration" when the general onslaught was concluded.

It was a matter of general and genuine regret that Lieut. Col. W. Y. S. of the 8th Cavalry, it was announced, would not undertake the ride on the advice of the surgeons, who formed the board for the physical examination preparatory to the test. Colonel Stamer is not, it is known, seriously affected, but his complaint was deemed sufficiently serious to make it unwise to undertake the strain of rapid riding. No other officers were reported unfit by the medical boards that have been in session at the various army posts in the island.

The major E. J. Timberlake of Fort Ruger did not undertake the ride, he having elected to take the annual physical test by walking, a right that field officers of the Coast Artillery possess and that springs from the nature of their particular duties. Another requirement of the War Department in connection with the ride is also being carried out and that is requiring the participants to spend the intervening nights under canvas and the miniature camp on Lelielua's polo field is proof that the Department's orders are being complied with.

Lieut. F. M. Andrews, General Macomb's aide-de-camp, accompanied his chief, riding in the debour manner that marks the accomplished horseman. Today's route has been laid out to the south of the garrison and the start will be at the same hour as on the first day. The officers hope that the rains will hold off until the test is completed as Oahu's roads take on a wonderful degree of slipperiness under rainy skies.

It may be remarked that none of the field officers appeared to indulge in any notable eloquence over the scenery passed by, and it is safe to assume that none considers red roads through pineapple plantations as ideal bridle paths.

JUDGE BLOUNT TO GOVERN FILIPINOS ASSERTS REPORT

Dispatches from the mainland, received in the mail this morning, declare that President-elect Wilson has already chosen the man he will appoint as governor-general of the Philippines, and that this man is James H. Blount, of Georgia, son of the man who hauled down the stars and stripes over Hawaii in 1893. This last, as is well remembered here, was James Henderson Blount, special commissioner from President Cleveland to these islands.

The report that Blount junior, is the coming President's selection for the governorship of the Philippines is taken on the coast to mean that Mr. Wilson intends putting to actual test the Democratic doctrine of independence for the islands as soon as possible. Judge Blount has repeatedly made it known that he is in favor of the immediate granting of "freedom" to the Filipinos.

Kahuku fell off a point and Olan a eighth in sales since yesterday's board Hawaiian Sugar and Hilo Railroad common remain unchanged, they being the only stocks sold on the board. The market is again very weak. Transactions since yesterday's session were as follows: Olan, 100 and 50 shares, 5 13 1/2; Kahuku, 10 at 15; Hawaiian Sugar, 100 and 50 in recess and 10 on the board at 34.50; Hilo Railroad common, 12 at 3.

The presence of a large mudhole, right in the track of vehicles, as well as pedestrians who have business at the new Matson wharf, loomed up as one of the black marks to be drawn against the present board of supervisors this morning. The consensus of opinion of travelers as well as businessmen is that if the city dads face a depleted treasury, at least a few dollars might be expended for broken rock or asphalt to replace the mire.
