Miss Ethel Spalding Becomes the Bride of Lieutenant Joseph Albert Rogers.

One of the most beautiful weddings witnessed by the local Smart Set in years was that of Miss Ethel Spalding and Lieutenant Joseph Albert Rogers, which took place at Saint Andrew's Cathedral at half after eight o'clock last evening.

The color scheme for the decoration was pink and blue in the delicate Dresden shades, and the Cathedral was prettily decorated with blue hydrangeas and pink and blue tulle.

The bride is known as one of the most beautiful among Honolulu's beautiful young women and never has she been more lovely than last evening as she entered the Cathedral with her father, Mr. E. H. Spalding.

The bride carried an ivory prayer-book, a gift of her grandmother, Miss Elizabeth Spalding, instead of the conventional floral bouquet.

The maid of honor, Miss Helen Spalding, a younger sister of the bride, was a picture of demureness as she entered the church.

The gown was trimmed with tiny pink roses, many of them veiled by the drapery. Soft shadow lace was arranged at the back in a semi-tunic effect.

The fashions have so revolved that one might easily have imagined the bridesmaids, Miss Sarah Lucas and Miss Florence Hoffman, to be Dresden shepherdesses.

Miss Lucas wore a gown of pale blue messaline with a Watteau plait, and drapery of pink and blue flowered chiffon.

Miss Hoffman wore a gown similar to that of Miss Lucas. The foundation was of pale pink satin with the overlay of blue and pink figured chiffon, fashioned after the manner.

Lieutenant H. McL. Groninger attended Lieutenant Rogers, and the others were Captain W. D. Forsyth, Lieutenant P. H. Sheridan and Lieutenant D. R. Rodney of the Fifth Cavalry, and Lieutenant Harry Vaughan of Fort Ruger.

Mrs. E. I. Spalding, the mother of the bride, wore a lovely gown of soft gray chiffon brocaded in gold and pink roses.

After the wedding ceremony the bridal party, with a number of Mrs. Rogers' friends, moved to the Pleasanton Hotel, where a delightful wedding supper was served.

The private dining room of the hotel was beautifully decorated with flowers, many of them gifts of friends of the bride and groom.

The pink and blue color scheme that prevailed at the church and in the gowns of the bridal party was carried out in the decoration of the dining room.

Little white boxes bearing the silver monogram R. S. were filled with wedding cake and laid at each place. The cards that marked each cover were ornamented with the monograms of the bride and groom, linked together with silver ribbon bearing the date of the wedding.

One of the most effective features of the wedding supper was the cutting of the bride's cake when Lieutenant Rogers drew his sword and handed it to Mrs. Rogers who cut the cake with it.

Only three of the fate symbols were located after the cake was cut for, no one would admit having received the bachelor's button.

Covers were laid for Lieutenant and Mrs. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Spalding, Bishop and Mrs. Restarick, Miss Helen Spalding, Miss Sarah Lucas, Miss Florence Hoffman, Miss Helen Girvin, Miss Gemma Wadman, Miss Renny Catton, Mr. Irwin Spalding, Captain W. D. Forsyth, Lieutenant P. H. Sheridan, Lieutenant D. R. Rodney, Lieutenant H. M. L. Groninger and Lieutenant Harry Vaughan.

Mrs. Rogers is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Spalding, who has married into the army. Miss Edith Spalding was married to Lieutenant Gerrit a number of years ago.

Mrs. Rogers has, since she graduated from Oahu College, been one of the most popular members of the service set and the social circles of the townfolk.

Immediately after their return from their honeymoon on the other side of the island, Lieutenant and Mrs. Rogers will leave for Fort Douglas, Utah. Mrs. Rogers will meet her sister, Mrs. Bowman, as Lieutenant Bowman is stationed there at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Klamp's House Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Klamp entertained at an enjoyable house party during the week end at their home at Kahala.
