

NEW SHOW HOUSE TO BE OPENED ON ISLAND OF MAUI

(Star-Bulletin Staff Correspondence.)

WAILUKU, Maui, Nov. 25.—Rumar has it that a new show house will soon be opened on Maui. This time it will be built in Wailuku being the second of such places right in the center of the town itself, and the third building of the sort in Wailuku that entertains the public. The excellent houses that Thompson at the Orpheum has been drawing ever since the old stables were turned into a theater inspired the Japanese to have one of their own. Manager Penhallow gave them the old stone building formerly used for a large camp, had it cleaned up and made commodious, where now shows are held very frequently. The new venture in town is fostered by Joe Lee and some of his friends. It is supposed that only pictures be exhibited. The Kapaikai building on the corner of Main and Market street will be made into a theater. The roof will now be raised and the ventilation will be made as good as can be, so that people will enjoy coming to see the pictures in the new house.

The Maui Teachers' Association will be held at the Wailuku School house on the 27th of this month. The program bids fair to be one of the most interesting in years.

The Maui Loan Commission has made a tour of Maui, returning last Saturday morning. It was a new experience for some of the Commission while going around the whole of Maui on horseback, but all came back loud in their praises of the beauty of the island and of the island. S. E. Kama, Clem Crowell, R. A. Drummond and John Wilcox also accompanied the party. They have been inspecting the bridges and the roads on the western side of the island, and looking out for opportunities of improving the routes for travel. They found enough to keep them busy for some time yet. The trail through the lava section from Uluhaukai to Kapaia was praised as an excellent piece of work. The new bridges built between Uluhaukai and Hana were much admired by those who had never seen them. It is hoped that more such substantial concrete single span bridges can be erected in the near future. They are expensive for one thing, but more than all else they are permanent in nature unless the severest earthquake shakes them down.

WALKER-WALKER WEDDING.

Saturday afternoon, Nov. 16th, in the Church of the Good Shepherd in Honolulu, Maui, Miss Clara F. Walker and Mr. Ralph Walker were united in marriage by the Rev. William S. Bishop. The bride wore a handsome gown of white satin embellished with lace and pearls. Her lace veil was fastened with orange blossoms. The bride entered the church with Mr. E. J. Walker. She was attended by Miss Carrie Short as maid-of-honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Annie Walker and Miss Alice Walker. The wedding march was played by Miss Elizabeth Lew of Honolulu.

Miss Walker is a Portland girl and a daughter of the late Rev. William S. Mackman. Mr. Walker is a limnographer at Honolulu and an old resident of Maui has a great many friends here.

NEW BUILDINGS.

The Union Food Company is erecting a dry-house on Ala Moana to cost $2000. It will be of wood. The Hawaiian Chinese Society is going to erect a store and meeting-house on Vineyard street at a cost of $2400.

DOPE DEALER HEAVILY FINED

The attempt to dispose of opium to soldiers stationed at Lihouha resulted in the arrest of a Chinese who booked under the name of Wong Tai was found guilty of selling the drug and sentenced to pay a fine of $75 and the court costs.

Special Officer Fennell, with the assistance of officer Miller and an enlisted man visited the highlands yesterday afternoon. Disguised as privates, and wearing the uniform of Uncle Sam's soldiers, the officers called at a rendezvous conducted by the Chinese and according to their admission on the stand this morning, experienced no difficulty in securing such quantities of the drug as they needed for evidence.

Expert testimony was called by Judge Monsarrat when passing upon the array of opium in assorted containers, and offered as exhibits. Clerk Fred Weed took the stand, and showed to the satisfaction of the court as well as the prosecution that the material in the tins was the real dope.

Before Weed completed his demonstration a small quantity of the prepared opium was burnt and the odors carefully analyzed.

Fennell was out on a still hunt for illicit booze emporium when he encountered the Chinese and the assortment of material from which dreams are made.

Deputy Chief of Detectives Kollett, and a posse of officers also did a little raiding of opium dens last evening, they landing a Chinese named Ah Pau within the meshes of the police net.

The Chinese was fined $50 and cost of prosecution when arraigned this morning.

BUSINESS ITEMS

Japanese residents of Kaimuki are seeking a site for a clubhouse.

A volunteer fire company to run the machine and assist the regular crew is among the latest Kaimuki ideas.

Improvement early in the day on the New York stock exchange yesterday was neutralized later by the still rate of money, which gained the high rate of the day before, 12 per cent, before noon. Before closing the market was stagnant.

Libby, McNeill & Libby continue packing at their pineapple cannery at Kalaheo, the coming season's plans being drawn upon to complete this season's shipments. It is likely the company will make December 31 the end of the packing year.

Hawaiian stocks in San Francisco closed as follows yesterday: Hawaiian Commercial, 33.50 bid, 34 asked; Hawaiian Sugar, 35.50 bid, 36 asked; Hokuks, 9 asked; Hutchinson, 18 bid; Kilauea, 12 bid; Oaomoa, 21 bid; Punahele, 18.25 bid; Honolulu Plantation, 34 bid; Honolulu Oil, 1.30 asked.

Facilities for handling cargoes at both the Atlantic and Pacific ports on the Tehuantepec Isthmus route are reported to be excellent by A. M. Newell, manager of the Sugar Factor's Company, who returned yesterday from the East, where he had gone by way of the Isthmus. He estimates the sugar the company will ship for the 1913 season at 442,000 tons, or about 22,000 tons less than this year.

Rev. Charles D. M. Williams, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist Church of Honolulu has been in Wailuku for the last two or three months, working among some of the people of Maui, and holding services occasionally. He opens the work publicly this evening at the Town Hall in Wailuku with addresses by himself and others. He intends starting a mission on Maui, it is understood.

TWO INJURED BY DYNAMITE

Two Japanese, employed at a stone quarry near Aiea were removed to Queen's Hospital yesterday afternoon suffering from serious injuries to legs and arms, as a result of a premature explosion of a charge of dynamite.

The Japanese were at work on an excavation near the right of way of the Oahu Railway & Land Company when the explosion took place and nearly caused the death of the two men.

The police department was notified to meet the afternoon train which brought the injured to Honolulu. An examination made upon their arrival at the hospital developed the fact that an amputation might be avoided.

NEW LIBRARIAN COMING.

Miss Mable Hawthorne, who for the past few years has been cataloguer in the University of Washington, and who is a graduate of the Western Reserve College for Women and of the Western Reserve Library School, has accepted the position as assistant librarian in Cooke Library, Oahu College. Miss Hawthorne will give her time mostly to the detail work of administration, and this will give Miss Mackenzie, the librarian, an opportunity to devote her time to plans for the library in connection with the school work.

STOCKS SHOW NEAR BOOM

There was a surprising recovery of the stock market today, which started in after the weak session of yesterday. Both in volume of business and in prices there is marked improvement shown. Pioneer was the star performer on the board with total sales of 305 at an advance of half a point for all but 20 shares at the close, which receded a quarter. Wailua shows a recovery of two and a half points, although said to be weak, none having been sold at the session. Hawaiian Commercial is up half a point, and so is Ewa. Oiaa sold down an eighth, but recovered at the close. Kekaha got its first stroke since the big slump began, selling down two and a half points in recess. Transactions in detail were as follows, showing a total of 863 shares:

Wailua, 15 at 192.50; Oahu, 25 at 100 reported and 25 on the board at 25; Kekaha, 18 at 155; McBryde, 30 at 5; Oiaa, 100 and 200 at 7 and 20 at 5 1/2; Pioneer 190 in eight unequal lots at 26.50, and 5, 100 and 5 at 26.25; H. C. & S., 5, 10 and 5 at 34.50; Ewa, 5 at 27.

Thousands of suffragettes held a parade in New York to celebrate the passing of woman's suffrage bills in Michigan, Wisconsin, Kansas and Oregon.

TO those losing confidence in Sugar Stocks perhaps the following DIVIDEND-PAYING MINING STOCKS might at this time appeal to some investors.
