PUMPELLY'S PUNT SAVED GAME FOR YALE

Princeton Robbed of Victory at Last Minute by Record Field Goal—Other Gains of November 16th

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 16.—By the luckiest scratch in the world Yale escaped what looked like sure defeat on Princeton field today. It was Pumpelly who saved the blue. Princeton had two field goals, Yale one. Through that desperately fought last quarter Yale tried by every trick and device and by a crashing attack to drive the Tigers down to within reach of their goal line. In spite of all they could do, the obstinate Tiger defense held most obstinately. Princeton out-played and out-fought Yale. This was in spite of the tremendous advantage given by the strong north wind. Flynn punted continually, but the Tigers, starting with Hobey Baker, marched straight back on the field again.

Only a scant half minute was left to play when Yale had the ball and lined up for 47 yards in front of the goal posts. No one expected a kick then, and when Pumpelly dropped back four yards over in Yale's own territory a fake play was looked for, but Pumpelly kicked a 54 yard field goal. Here again Yale pulled out by the merest scratch, for the ball, floating down, actually struck the center of the cross bar. It had fallen

His Drop Kick Saved Yale's Face

Harold Pumpelly, the player who by kicking a field goal of 54 yards saved Yale from defeat by Princeton, was designated as a star during the latter part of the season. In the Yale-Princeton game of November 16, Pumpelly did not go on until the last minutes replacing Flynn at fullback. He had been held as a reserve drop and place kicker and the wisdom of putting him in the game when Yale's prospects were desperate, was borne out by results.

KAM CADETS WILL PLAY MORNING FOOTBALL

Kamehameha will get on the football map tomorrow, when for the first time this season two elevens will line up for a contest under straight college rules. Last year a Thanksgiving Day game was on the program, but then the boys had several matches on the schedule, and made something of a football. This year the game will only be a flash in the pan, but it is none the less interesting to the students.

The game will be between the seniors and a picked team made up from the other classes. The picked team averages considerably heavier than the seniors, but the latter have the edge on experience and knowledge of the game, and are expected to put up a tough argument. The game is scheduled for the somewhat unusual hour of 7:30 a. m., that being the only time that the cadets can find to themselves.

Following will be the line-up:
Picked Team—G. Bertelmann, c.; Norman, r.e.; Shesona, l.e.; W. Kino, l.f.; Mock Sing, r.f.; K. Hipa, r.e.; S. Anoy, l.e.; W. Kama, r.f.; J. Kauai, l.h.f.; M. Kakaiaua, fb.
Seniors—J. Oha, c.; E. Amara, r.e.; J. Hobbs, l.f.; G. Cluny, l.f.; G. Dusk, r.f.; J. Kakuaka, l.e.; G. Ben-jamin, l.e.; D. Hipa, r.f.; W. Opu-nui, l.h.f.; Ed. Akuna, l.f.

There is an athletic deadlock at Kam just now, owing to the recent stringent rulings of the faculty regarding proficiency in class work for those who take part in athletics of any sort. Several of the boys are below the standard, and this has broken up the company soccer series, and the track and field meets planned for the early spring.

Heretofore the restriction has applied only to outside competitions, everyone being allowed to go in for games and sports on the school campus. The student body thinks that the present ruling is too strict, and with this feeling uppermost athletics have been allowed to get out for the time being, at any rate.

DARK HORSES GET TWO FROM THE SPLITTERS

Those Dark Horses galloped round to good effect in the first two games with the Splitters last night, but in the final dash for the wire got pocketed and lost out. The match did not change the comparative standing of the teams.

This evening the regular weekly inter-island games will be rolled. The Kamaeinas go against Maui, while the Oahu tackle Kaula. The local players have been doing some real practicing of late, and expect to make a better showing against the outside teams from now on. The Kamaeinas took two out of three from Kaula last week, and have got back a lot of lost confidence. The Oahu won't take a back seat for their local rivals, and contend that if the Kamaeinas can trim the Rollers from the Garden Island, they can do the same. Tonight's games will tell the story.

TOMORROW'S GAME BETWEEN THE PUNAHOU AND TOWN TEAMS PROMISES TO BE CLASSIEST OF THE SEASON—THE DOPE

BY H. D. CASE.

After thrashing the matter out for over a week, and making up their minds at the last moment as to which way to turn, the High School eleven has withdrawn its date to play the Punahou team on Thanksgiving, leaving that day clear for the two strongest teams in the city, the Puns and the Townies, to battle for supremacy in the final big game of the season.

It required everything from requests to threats to get the big game, but the Highs, like the good sportsmen that they are, finally consented to let their place be taken by the Townies, and withdrew. It was all over the matter of money from the start to finish. The Highs held that they must have seventy-five dollars before they would withdraw from their athletic association, of course, and the Townies were in favor of giving them thirty-five dollars. Captain Schuman, of the Puns, stood in for his half, and then the trouble started, and at first it was thought that the Townies would not get the chance to

FRANK PICATO PICKS WOLGAST

Wolgast goes into the ring tomorrow about a 2-to-1 favorite over Willie Ritchie according to dispatches from the coast, and these long odds seem to reflect the general sentiment locally. There is little or no Ritchie money in sight, and all the wise ones are picking Ad. to win by the knockout route inside of fifteen rounds.

Frank Picato, the well-known lightweight, who has figured in the ring with some of the best of them, is a passenger on the Ventura bound for Australia, Monday afternoon, while the liner was in port. Picato dropped round to fan with the sporting editor.

Asked who he liked for tomorrow's fight, Picato picked Wolgast without hesitation.

"When Ad. went against Ritchie before he was 'way out of shape, and hadn't got over his operation," said Picato. "He looks fine and feels fine now, and everyone on the coast thinks that he will get Ritchie by a knock-out. Ad. is no slouch, and this talk about his being all in is rot. He's got just as hard a kick as ever, and that's saying a good deal."

Picato is under contract to Hugh McIntosh, and has five fights in view in Australia. He looks to be in good shape, and will fight at about 135, the lightweight limit in Australia being 140. Frank made a campaign in the Antipodes a while back, and boxed four times with Hughie McEneaney. All four times he lost the decision, but twice it was a hair-line affair, with many of the fans favoring Picato.

CHINESE READ FOR SOLDIER ATTACK

International Ball Game at the Athletic Park Tomorrow One of the Big Attractions of the Day—Schofield Team Stronger

A baseball game, truly international in character, between the All-Chinese and the American soldiers at Schofield Barracks, will be one of the principal sporting bills on Thanksgiving Day. The game will be played at 3 o'clock at Athletic Park, where holiday crowds will undoubtedly gather. If hard practice amounting to three hours a day for the past few weeks and a half season, the soldiers of Uncle Sam under the command of Lieut. Greenleaf, could be expected to put a check to the streak of Trainer Sam Hoag's team. The Schofield team will bring a strong line-up, and with the players, including Lieut. Greenleaf, third and Lieut. Fineman at first field, they may be able to give a surprise on the undefeated Chinese. All the infielders are new men, the exception of Captain Edward Shortstap. Outfielder J. L. H. is the only one who retains his position. There will be three pitchers, do-tying honors for the Chinese team, and last night did well in the onslaught to get down a large delegation of soldiers under leadership of Sergeant Sprague, who came to the city to meet the shore rotaries.

The Chinese team will probably make the same line-up, although the line changes before the game start. Owing to a grievous shoulder ailment, last Saturday, the pitcher, Lieut. Yee will not be said to pitch, and the veteran Kim will be in the box. The Chinese team has departed since their return from United States, and they will have to stretch to win against an American team. It is not known whether the Chinese will have to have accepted the invitation to play the game at Athletic Park, where the third game between the teams will be called off.

The following is the lineup: Schofield Barracks—Shortstap, c.; R. S. Barron, 1st base; E. Meding, 2d; Williams, 3d; H. G. C. 4th; Lieut. Greenleaf, 5th and outfield; Phineas, r.f.; Lieut. Fineman, l.f.; Magraw, l.i.; Sgt. Stewart, p.; Guyon, manager.

to be at the ringside in San Francisco tomorrow is Ben Brant, better known here as Brother Benamite. Standing a sort of protégé of Brant, who stepped after him in the days before he had even a local reputation, if by any chance there is a new lightweight champion Thursday afternoon, it will be hard to hold Brother Benamite down to solid ground, for he has a few predictions that Ritchie will some day get the title, provided that he didn't take on weight too soon.

According to the San Francisco papers, Ritchie and his manager are no worries over the weight question. They made some tests a while back, and Ritchie found that with only average training, and so, trying out he could do 134½. He thinks he can get the extra pound and a quarter without hurting himself.

There is a lot of local interest in the fight, and a big crowd is likely to gather at Dick Sullivan's place to see the return by boat.
