MAUI NOTES

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
WAILUKU, Oct. 1.—Rev. Henry P. Judd conducted an institute for the Sunday school teachers at the Hailku church last Tuesday afternoon. In the evening Revs. A. Craig Bowditch and R. B. Dodge preached to the large audience that gathered.

At the Fisher hearing on Friday afternoon at the court house in Wailuku, a most representative gathering of citizens greeted him. Men came from all parts of the islands and crowded the court house full. The faces of many of the Hailku-Pauwela homesteaders were noticeable.

The families of Stanley Livingston of Honolulu and Geo. W. Wilbur of Wailuku have gone to Pauwela to take up their homesteads.

Mrs. Henry Alexander returned to Honolulu last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Battelle have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Penhallow since last Wednesday. Mrs. Battelle returns today.

Miss Elsie Wilcox of Lihue has been visiting Mrs. R. H. Floggett of Hamakua and Mrs. K. J. von Zedwitz of Lahaina.

Mrs. J. P. Cooke, who has been spending a few weeks on Maui, visiting her mother, Mrs. H. P. Baldwin, returned on the Lurline last Saturday afternoon.

Miss Irene Aiken has left Maui for a year's study at the College of Hawaii, where she is regularly matriculated. Her mother is at present staying with her other daughter, Mrs. F. W. Hardy of Makawao.

W. H. Ingle, business director of the Wailuku Gymnasium, was called to the Coast by cable last week. He went on important business, but will return as soon as possible to his work on Maui. He left on the last Lurline.

Rev. S. P. Kaiaia was installed pastor of the Honokohau church last Sunday afternoon by a committee of ministers appointed by the Maui Association of churches at their meeting at Kaunakakai. Rev. H. P. Judd preached the sermon. Rev. D. W. K. White gave the right hand of fellowship. Rev. L. B. Kaumeheua wa the charge of the people and Rev. R. B. Dodge the charge to the pastor. The Committee made the trip from Wailuku to Honokohau and back during the afternoon. In conjunction with this pastorate, Rev. Mr. Kaiaia will preach at Kahakuloa.

Mrs. L. F. Jones sang "The Prodigal Son," at the Wailuku Union church last Sunday evening. She has one of the sweetest and best trained voices in Hawaii. The large congregation present greatly enjoyed her beautiful rendering. For some years Mrs. Jones sang in some of the largest churches in Boston. Her last appointment in that city was at the First Unitarian church in Somerville, which is noted for its excellent music. The choir of the Wailuku Union church began its fall and winter work again on Sunday. They sang most acceptably "Oh How Amiable." Mrs. Jones is now a member of the choir of the Union church. G. H. Irwin, Moses Kaunimahu and Joseph H. Kuneva were also voted in as new members.

HAWAIIAN LODGE NO. 21, F. & A. M.

THERE WILL BE A SPECIAL meeting of Hawaiian Lodge No. 21, F. & A. M., at its lodgeroom, Masonic Temple, corner of Hotel and Alakea streets, THIS (Wednesday) EVENING, October 2, 1912, at 7:30 o'clock.

WORK IN THIRD DEGREE.
 Members of Honolulu Lodge, Oceanic Lodge and all visiting brethren are fraternally invited to attend.

"PURE BEER" SLOGAN PROVED UNTRUE BY U. S. STATISTICS

How Brewmasters of America Are Adulterating Their Product

WHAT REALLY WENT INTO U. S. BEERS	Hops, which are supposed to furnish the flavor of all good beer, appear in the tabulation of American beer components to the extent of 61,796,739 pounds and along with hops as coloring and flavoring as well as "body"-producing ingredients of beer go 67,875,324 pounds of grape sugar, 48,276,378 pounds of glucose and 5,074,761 gallons of glucose syrup.
Malt (of barley)	76,187,880 bushels
Corn	203,068,867 pounds
Rice	67,875,324
Grape sugar	61,796,739
Hops	48,276,378
Glucose syrup	5,074,761 gallons
Other grains	5,082,104 bushels
Other solids	2,468,067 pounds
Liquids and syrups	78,492 gallons

(By C. S. ALBERT.)
 [Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—This is the expression which is used to answer every query as to the composition of beers when pronounced to any one of the thousand and odd "masters" in the breweries of the United States. A brewmaster who understands his business would just as soon think of telling you the combination of his safe deposit box as to relate the true composition of the product of his brewery.

It makes no difference if the brewery be large or small, whether the brew-master's salary be $20,000 a year, as is the case in a number of the greater "suds-factories" of Milwaukee, St. Louis and New York or $20 a week as may be the case in the little breweries, where the annual product only meets a part of the consumption of a town of a few hundred souls.

"Only der burest of hops und malt" is the brew-master's slogan from Maine, if there is any beer made in Maine, to California, where they don't know anything about beer anyhow.

The brew-master's slogan is not borne out by the facts. True, hops and malt are two of the components of American beer. Malt is the larger component in the list of products which go to make up beer but along with it go a tremendous volume of corn and rice. As for hops, there is more grape sugar in the American beer output any minute than there is hops, and the brew-masters know it.

In the foregoing table it will be seen that the malt component of American beer is 76,187,880 bushels. That is the actual amount of pure barley malt which goes into the American beer output, but along with it there is, as representative of the grains which will produce the necessary fermentation and are cheaper than barley, 9,767,169 bushels of Indian corn and 203,068,867 pounds of rice. Then numbered in the grain category also are 5,082,104 bushels of other grains including wheat and combinations of wheat with other less common grains.

G. A. R. SMITH, WHO HAS FOUGHT AND WON PEARL HARBOR LINE HELD UP

G. A. R. Smith, proprietor of the Vienna Bakery, located on Fort street opposite the head of Pauahi, is today "celebrating" the seventh anniversary of the establishment of his business in this city.

October 2, 1905, Mr. Smith began in a very modest way, opening a bakery in a small storehouse opposite the Catholic cathedral on upper Fort street. The first few years he had a desperately hard, uphill fight, and several times failure seemed to be staring him in the face. But with a courage that would have done credit to some of the greater business men of the world, he stuck to the fight, with the result that he is today on the high-road to a realization of his dream of years—business success.

About six and a half years ago Mr. Smith moved his establishment into the present large quarters of the Vienna Bakery on the Waikiki side of Fort street. In the new location business has gone ahead by leaps and bounds, as it were. Besides a large and ever-increasing business at the shop, Mr. Smith has built up a large outside clientele, supplied by three delivery wagons, which call at all parts of the city and suburbs.

On this, the seventh anniversary of his business, Mr. Smith is extending to his friends sincere thanks for past patronage, and solicits a fair trial by those who have not hitherto been his regular patrons. His past record is a guarantee of his success in pleasing everyone.
