WHERE LANTANA IS GHERISHED

Gerrit P. Wilder Tells About the Kew Gardens.

RARE FRUIT CULTURE PRACTICED IN PARIS

Thoughtful of Hawaii the Honolulu Man Sends Home Seeds and Studies Forestry.

David Haighs, the Government forester, has received an interesting letter from Gerrit P. Wilder, dated Paris, October 29.

"It was very fine, indeed," says Mr. Wilder, "and in July the tropical plants were in full glory. Lantana was cherished as we cherish the rare orchids in Honolulu."

"Here in Paris the gardens are well kept, those of the Luxembourg especially, paying attention to grafting and training of peach, pear and apple trees into all manner of curves and positions."

"Fruit is expensive here, and I saw nets over each pear and apple. The pests that enter the immature fruit are very bad."

"In France, Holland and Belgium a great deal of attention is given to forestry, and I have given the subject particular attention, as I am interested in Hawaii, and we must plant more trees."

"I enclose you some seeds of a fruit I found in the market here, of which I made a sketch, also enclosed. It looks something like the sapota pear. I trust the seeds will arrive in condition that will warrant them growing."

Bachelor's Romance To-night.

The first act of "A Bachelor's Romance," which the incomparable Nellie company is to present in this city this evening, occurs in the study of Davis Holmes, the bachelor, where the Romance begins its interesting career to come to a happy climax in the fourth act, throughout this drama there is a decided literary atmosphere, but in no act is it more strongly or deliberately suggested than in this first act, which shows the typical office of a newspaper man and writer, who cares more for art than appearances.

In this act are introduced all of the characters that are encountered in the succeeding acts with varying degrees of delight. Every piece of scenery used in "A Bachelor's Romance" and every property, including the furniture, was especially designed for the Nellie company who have the exclusive right to produce this most successful play of Sol Smith Russell's in this country.

THE ORIENTAL TOUR.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Sachs, who returned home in the Nippon Maru, greatly enjoyed their trip to Japan and China. They went as far as Canton. Mr. Sachs said to a Bulletin reporter that the delight of the Oriental tour consists in the novelty of the scenes to a westerner. But he says that this feature is rapidly passing away in Japan. In Yokohama especially the ancient architecture of frail material is giving place to modern blocks of stone and brick.

College Hills

During the dull times of the past eight months 110 LOTS have been sold at COLLEGE HILLS. The price paid for these 110 lots was $146,376.00

Some of these lots have been resold at an advance of from 25 to 50 per cent. No buyers at College Hills are offering their lots at the original price, because Rapid Transit has made them intrinsically worth at least a 25 per cent advance.

SALES AGENTS.

Geo. B. McClellan & Co. AND Castle & Lansdale.

The late Thomas Hughes, mentioned yesterday as associated with the late B. B. Hill, was the owner of the Honolulu Iron Works in the early days of the establishment. Mr. Hughes first came to the country to work for the government and later established the iron works which he operated successfully from many years.

MYRTLE BENEFIT.

The committee in charge of the Myrtle Boat Club benefit performance Monday evening, request all Myrtle and Heanali clubmen to wear their club colors. Nearly all the boys have agreed to wear club neckties with their dress suits and it is hoped that every member will do so.

Those who have purchased tickets from members should exchange them immediately at Wall, Nichols Co. for reserved seats as most of the downstairs part of the house is already taken. Several large parties are going to occupy seats in the balcony and these seats will prove to be as popular as any others.

The performance of Nancy & Co. will be a grand success and the audience will be the largest of the season.

COMING TO HAWAII

Santa Rosa, Nov. 21.—Rev. H. E. Banham, pastor of the Congregational church at Cloverdale, has resigned his pastorate there to accept a call to a church of that denomination in the Hawaiian Islands. Mr. Banham has been in charge of the church in Cloverdale for many years. He will depart for his new charge in the near future.

PORTUGAL'S GREAT DAY.

The Portuguese colony will celebrate the 251st anniversary of the independence of their country this evening and tomorrow afternoon. For this evening there will be a ball at the St. Antonio hall in Vineyard street. Tomorrow afternoon literary exercises will be held at 2 o'clock at the Lantana hall, Ala-pai street. Addresses will be delivered by John M. Vivas and M. A. Gonsalves, and M. A. Silva will read an essay. The Catholic band will be in attendance. Admission to the exercises will be free.

YOUTHFUL THIEVES.

Joe Andrade and George Franks, two boys aged about nine years, appeared in the Police Court this forenoon on the charge of larceny in the second degree. They had stolen a lot of toys from the toy department of Jordan's store, on Fort street, Thursday night. They pleaded guilty and were given six months imprisonment at hard labor each. It seems that the second degree of the boys have given them up as very bad bargains. They did not appear in the Police Court this morning, but left their children to the tender mercies of Judge Wilcox, who did the best for them that he knew how.

Christian Endeavorers.

At the regular monthly business meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. held at Central Union Church last night, the names of several new associate candidates were presented. Among them were the following: Miss Maude Paty, Mrs. Knox, Ivan Sumik, Walter Gilman, J. Davidson, E. Welch and E. W. Handy. The following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing year: Clifton H. Tracy, president; Jonathan Austin, vice president; Miss Marie Forbes, corresponding secretary, and E. A. ...owland, treasurer.

WHAT KENNEDY SAYS.

A number of rumors having been spread broadcast about the purposes of the meeting of the Republican Territorial committee, J. A. Kennedy, the chairman, was seen today. This is what he had to say: "I only know that the Territorial committee will meet Monday night to consider further the action taken at the last meeting. So far as I have heard, there is to be no further action. I have heard nothing about a meeting of the central committee and nothing about any proxies."

The Overdue Fleet.

San Francisco, Nov. 22.—The barkentine Chehalis, now out ninety-four days from Newcastle, Australia, for San Francisco, was added to the overdue fleet yesterday. The underwriters are willing to pay 20 per cent to reimburse vessel and cargo. The Roanoke, now out 163 days from Norfolk, Va., for San Francisco, is quoted at 25 per cent; the Glenbrook, 188 days from Newcastle-on-Tyne for Valparaiso, at 90 per cent the Prince Albert, 191 days from Vancouver, B. C., for Queensborough, 25 days from the Angelia, 139 days from Newcastle, Australia, for Panama, 40 per cent.

Special Agent Transferred.

San Francisco, Nov. 22.—Special Revenue Agent John A. McCabe has been transferred to duty in Milwaukee, Wis. He leaves for that city today. Agent McCabe came hither several months ago and proceeded to Honolulu for the purpose of installing the internal revenue system in the Hawaiian Islands. On returning he was assigned to assist Agent Burt M. Thomas in the San Francisco office. Mr. McCabe is a competent official and made many friends in this city and Honolulu by his urbanity and devotion to duty.

The proposition of bringing the Olympic football team to Honolulu has fallen through, not enough people subscribing to furnish the requisite $3000. Only about one-half that sum has been subscribed. It has ever been thus; many an attempt has been made to get California teams here but the Honolulu people have never responded.

The late Thomas Hughes, mentioned yesterday as associated with the late B. B. Hill, was the owner of the Honolulu Iron Works in the early days of the establishment. Mr. Hughes first came to the country to work for the government and later established the iron works which he operated successfully from many years.

BODY FLOATING IN THE HARBOR

Discovered This Morning by Quarantine Launch Captain.

HARRY LUBECK MAY HAVE BEEN FOULY MURDERED

Contusion on Head, Watch Gone and Shirt Torn--Left Home at 4 o'clock Yesterday Afternoon.

With a contusion on the head, the shirt badly torn and the silver watch gone, the body of Harry Lubeck, a Norwegian aged between forty and fifty years of age, was found floating in the water of the bay in close proximity to the quarantine wharf landing at an early hour this morning by Captain Dalton of the quarantine launch and Inspector Durfee of the Custom House force, who happened to be along with the captain of the launch at the time.

The body was taken over to the Myrtle boat house and later on it was removed to the morgue where an autopsy was held by Drs. McDonald, Pratt and Sloggett. The result of this autopsy was serious in its aspect. From the looks of things, there has been foul play. The contusion on the head would seem to point to this theory. The police are now investigating the matter and will have more facts in their possession before the day is over. From all appearances, there was a violent struggle of some kind, during the progress of which, Lubeck was hit on the head with a weapon.

Lubeck left his home on Hotel street near Punchbowl, at about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and strolled along toward the waterfront where he had been in the habit of going in search of work as watchman on various ships. He had not been working for some little time and consequently had but little money. Before leaving, he left twenty-five cents at the house with which to purchase some food for dinner. Then he set out on what proved to be his last walk. That was, according to all that can be learned by the police, the very last seen of him until his body was found floating in the bay this morning.

When Lubeck left the house, all he had of value on his person was a silver watch and this was not in itself very valuable. That this was gone would lead at first thought to the conclusion that robbery had been the incentive toward what may prove to be a foul deed. Another motive is the dead man's seventeen year old son, it would look as if there was a plot of some kind, for this young man stated at the police station this forenoon that, previous to the departure of his father from the house, he made the statement that he was afraid someone was going to "do him up."

At all events, the circumstances surrounding the event are spurring the police on their best endeavors and all the clues possible will be secured to find the true cause of the death. A coroner's jury was summoned this morning by Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth. The body was viewed and the time for the inquest set for Monday night next. By that time, there will be a great many facts, now unknown, in the hands of the police.

Lubeck was known to all his friends as a steady, hard working man. He has been in the country for quite a long time and has served in the military, in the Custom House, as a special police officer, as a watchman at the home of Governor Dole on Emma street, as a patrolman under the Merchants' Patrol of Captain Bowers, on the fire department and as a watchman on various ships arriving from time to time at this port.

CORPORATIONS MUST PAY

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 22.—The application of the Chicago Union Traction Company and the Consolidated Traction Company for an injunction restraining the State Board of Equalization from assessing the capital stock of those companies for 1900 was denied this afternoon by Judge Grosscup and Humphrey, in the United States Circuit Court. The temporary injunction issued by Judge Grosscup in Chicago on Tuesday was dissolved.

Immediately after the decision was announced assessments aggregating $75,000,000 and involving over $1,000,000 in 1900 taxes were made by the State Board of Equalization, as the fair cash value of the capital stock of the traction companies over and above the assessment on their tangible property. The $75,000,000 valuations made take the place of the $3,300,000 valuations made last year as representing the fair cash value of the property assessed. The Teachers' Federation estimate was $125,000,000.

No written opinion in the case was filed. Judge Grosscup stated orally at length the reasons for the decision, explaining that later Judge Humphrey would file a written opinion.

The method to be followed in determining the value of capital stock for purposes of taxation was discussed by Judge Grosscup at length. As to bonds he said the judgment of the money lender might be reasonably safe, but with capital stock it was different. It would be grossly unfair to base the assessment upon the stock values quoted on the Stock Exchange. These were frequently, if not generally, determined by circumstances quite distinct from the real value of the stocks in question. He cited, as an illustration, the Northern Pacific ferry a few months ago. The nobody would contend that the real value of the stock exceeded par, yet the quoted price reached $100,000. Nor had any court decided that the Equalization Board must be governed by the questionable market prices of capital stock. It was the decision of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the franchise tax case recently decided, he said, that these prices must be taken into consideration. It still remained for the Equalization Board to exercise its judgment in determining the value of capital stock for the purposes of taxation. The judge also said that it was to be supposed that the Board of Equalization would be just, but if proved otherwise, the courts were open to the injured parties.

MOST GLORIOUS EVENT ASSURED

The Convent Fair Gives Early Promise of Success.

DRILLSHED TRANSFORMED INTO RESPLENDENT SCENE

Grand Foreign and Native Hawaiian Feasts--The Booths Arranged in Gorgeous Beauty--Concert This Evening.

It is no reportorial gush to say that there never was a benevolent or charitable fair held in Honolulu with more complete and brilliant arrangements than that now in progress for the benefit of the Catholic Convent School. Every appearance at 11 o'clock was that the event would also be one of the most successful events of the kind which ever came off here. People were already an hour before the due opening, beginning to flock into the place.

Joe A. Gilman's 43-foot tent stands in front of the specially built lunch and luncheon and is devoted to the Government band with an ice cream booth on the side. The interior of the lanch has a most inviting appearance. On the right of the entrance extend four long tables, decorated in as many colors, for the foreign lunch. On the left are ranged four tables for the native Hawaiian lunch, occupying the full half of the space in the structure.

As for the fair booths within the drill shed, they defy description within the limits of this article. Often has the ungainly structure been transformed, internally, into scenes of rare beauty by means of decorative skill. Until now the limit has never been reached.

Symmetrical in form and arrangement the booths cover the entire main floor and stage as well, while the variegated colors and rich materials of decoration make an entire scheme of ravishing beauty to the eye. Here is the Hawaiian booth with its old flag drapery and articles of Hawaiian handicraft. There the Japanese with its Oriental features. The Arrp of old Ireland on banner light readily identifies the Irish booth. And so on, for a score of special marts of things pretty and useful.

Silken gauze and ribbons, vines and flowers, parasols and fans--there is no end to the variety of adornment, and there are not words to portray the artful and harmonious designs thought out by refined minds and wrought out by deft hands. Banana plants in fruit, as well as other growths, are to be seen. Gardens and conservatories have been robbed for floral selections such as are not usually spared to public purposes.

As a sight alone, the air is worth more than the price of admission--and this is no chestnut--while no banquet ever spread in Honolulu excels the feast the money procures besides. In the evening, the admission to the promenade concert and the fair is but twenty-five cents.

SCOTS CELEBRATE.

The annual St. Andrew's ball of the Scottish Thistle Club took place in Progress Hall last evening with the following reception committee in charge of affairs: N. Kay, chief; J. Cumming, C. Stevenson, R. Anderson, T. M. Rae and J. H. Flanders; J. C. Brown (chief), master of the ceremonies. The floor committee consisted of the following: J. C. Brown, R. Anderson, A. B. Kennedy and H. Glass.

It was 8:30 o'clock before the festivity began. Piper R. McDonald Murray and Chief Norman Kay led the grand march with eight couples following. The regular dance program was interspersed with Highland reels and other Scottish dances. During the evening refreshments were served.

France.

"Mon cher" she cooed. "Toujours!" replied the Count, gallantly. "Don't be--too sure!" exclaimed she, for her fund of French was now exhausted.

DOG BADLY SCALDED.

Ah Cheong was arrested yesterday on the charge of cruelty to animals. The Chinaman is alleged to have poured boiling water on the dog of a native neighbor in Kewalo, because he happened to be angry at him. At all events, the native concerned appeared in the Police Court this forenoon with the dog.

CARELESSLY TIED.

There was a little excitement outside B. F. Ehlers' store at about 8:45 o'clock this morning, brought about by the careless tying of a horse belonging to W. Walters. A rope had been loosely thrown about the animal's neck and neck and it began to choke. Willie Herrick happened to be passing at the time and, taking out his pocket knife, he cut the rope and then grasped the bridle. This action kept the horse from choking and probably prevented a smash-up or two.

Pure Chinese Divorce Case--Jonathan Shaw Appeals--Various Matters in the Circuit Court.

The injunction proceedings brought by the Oahu Railway & Land Company against James H. Boyd, Superintendent of Public Works, and Cotton Brothers Company virtually collapsed this morning.

When the matter came up in the United States District Court, Mr. Hatch for the plaintiff moved that it go over for two months. The attorney for the railway said he had been assured by the defendants that things would be fixed up satisfactorily for the Oahu Railway & Land Company. Judge Estee granted the motion and continued the hearing until the second Monday in February, 1902.

What became of the temporary injunction? It appears none such had ever existed. It was granted by Judge Estee under a condition of a bond of $1500 to be filed by plaintiff. The Oahu Railway & Land Company did not put up the bond, therefore there was no injunction.

In the meantime, injunction or no injunction, Cotton Brothers Company had the work to be enjoined--the approach to a new wharf authorized by the Superintendent of Public Works--practically completed before the injunction could have come into play. Judge Humphreys was hearing what is a very interesting divorce case this morning, both parties being full-blooded Chinese and the ground of libel by the wife being cruelty. The suing for divorce by Chinese husbands of Hawaiian wives for desertion has been common, but rarely has a Chinese husband been sued for lack of tenderness toward his spouse. The wife and plaintiff is Ah Young and the defendant Wong Wa Yee. Andrade appears for the plaintiff; Robertson for the defendant.

Jonathan Shaw, by his attorneys, Smith & Lewis and R. D. Mead, has filed notice of appeal to the Supreme Court from the decree of the Circuit Court against him as guardian of Evelyn Nichols Bidwell.

Defendant in the case of Antone P. Morenha vs. Jose Mello Pedro has appeared from the judgment of Second District Magistrate Lytle A. Dickey in favor of plaintiff for $-8.36 on a bill for board and lodging, goods, wares and merchandise furnished to defendant's wife.

Meta A. Sutherland, executrix of the will of Maria A. Bruns, petitions for approval of accounts and discharge. She asks to be allowed $943.25 and charges herself with $789.75.

By stipulation of attorneys in the suit of Lewers & Cooke vs. Honolulu Stock-Yards Company, the defendant has five days from today of further time in which to plead, answer or demur to the complaint.

In the case of John M. Vivas vs. M. Guesmao Silva, on motion of Creighton & Correa, for defendant, Judge Humphreys this morning set December 16 for hearing the receiver's report and trying the case.
