ADOPT UNIFORM FOR SCHOOL WEAR

EL PASO, Tex.—Boys and girls of the El Paso High School have voluntarily agreed to adopt a uniform dress for school wear in an effort to reduce the high cost of living.

The uniform of the girl students consists of a blue serge skirt, a white "middle" blouse with black flowing tie and cotton stockings. The boys will wear regulation high school cadet uniform of olive drab prescribed by the war department regulations governing high school cadet corps.

A number of wealthy mining men, cattle men and capitalists have located in El Paso because of the school advantages. The standard of living among high school students, especially the girls, reached a point where it was stated the poorer students were embarrassed by their companion's expensive clothes and a protest resulted in the voluntary adoption of the regulation dress for both boys and girls.

HIGHER RENTALS MEET WAGE RAISE

LONDON, Eng.—The tremendous enthusiasm with which underpaid farm workers received the government's announcement adopting a wage of $6.25 a week for agricultural laborers has been considerably dampened by the progress of events since the announcement was made.

This is due in part to the government's failure to define exactly what is meant by an "able-bodied farm laborer," the term "able-bodied" being susceptible to various interpretations. There is also much uncertainty as to whether employer or laborer has the right to estimate the cash value of farm waste paid in produce, house rent, board, milk, potato land, straw and the like.

Officials of the agricultural laborers union are starting a campaign to prevent the farm owner from placing his own figure on the rental value of every cottage and from putting fictitious prices on allowances of every kind. The English employer has a great advantage over his laborers in this respect, for he generally owns the house the laborer lives in and also is the controlling figure in the village government.

Mexican physicians will be allowed to practise in Japan without an examination.

The senate confirmed the nomination of John Franklin Fort, ex-governor of New Jersey and William B. Colver of St. Paul, to be members of the Federal Trade commission.

WOMEN ARE LEFT WITHOUT NATION

LONDON, Eng.—"For Women Without a Nation" is the title of a committee just organized by the American Women's Club under the direction of Lady Lowther.

The Club, in connection with its war work, has found that there are a large number of women stranded in London who cannot claim the rights and protection of any state; they are citizens of no country.

An instance given by the club's secretary is that of an English woman who married a Belgian and went with him to the United States, where he lived long enough to lose his nationality. Neither took out naturalization papers, and they returned to Europe so that the husband could enter the Belgian army, in which he is now fighting.

"We have record of more than a hundred such cases," said the secretary. The club has committees to help stranded Americans, to educate American children, to maintain workshops where hospitals are supplied to the Allies, and to manage a knitting factory for the aged.

POLICEMEN AS WELL AS DETECTIVES ARE AFTER GAMBLERS NOW

The general shakeup of the gambling situation all over Honolulu is going steadily ahead with regular policemen as well as the detective department arresting the workers of chance. Late yesterday afternoon Mounted Policeman J. B. Kramer brought in a party of five which he caught in Kapiolani park with the assistance of an army sergeant. With the exception of Sieds, whose case was nolle prossed, all paid the penalty.

Two Japanese, Fukunaga and Tama, forfeited bonds of $10 each; Henry Kane, a Hawaiian, was sentenced to one month in jail for being an old-timer at the profession, and another Japanese, was given 15 days.

Kramer adopted original methods to catch the gang. When they first saw him approach he was in full uniform and the game broke up, the players going a short distance away and starting again. Kramer did not lose heart, however, and persistently kept on their trail. In the aquarium he borrowed an old coat and hat and started on foot to follow about where the men were playing. They did not recognize him and continued.

The soldier also got a good look at the game to testify that he saw money in sight. Then Kramer grabbed the quietest and confiscated the cards with which they were playing three-card monte.

ENGLAND GETS SHIPS RAPIDLY TO REPLACE THOSE WHICH ARE SUNK

LONDON, Eng.—Speaking in the house of commons on the government's shipbuilding program, the parliamentary secretary of the shipping controller said the program of construction was a very big one and could be carried out best by standardization. Tramp steamers were wanted most at the present time but they must be something more than the ordinary tramp and exceed in speed the underwater speed of the submarine. About one-half of all the merchant ships of the United Kingdom of over 200 tons gross were engaged for the army and navy, the colonies and the Entente Allies in connection with the war.

The shipping controller, the secretary said, was rapidly extending the requisitioning to include all steamers in the possession of the country. Regarding the restrictions of imports and the question of conserving shipping, he said the government was mapping out the future not only for this year but for next. They were measuring the greatest possible losses they thought would occur and putting against them month by month what they expected to build and to buy—and, by dealing with the matter in that way, could make arrangements to defeat the enemy in the campaign to destroy shipping.

BLIND PIGGERS CAUGHT IN RAID

Inspector and Police Descend on Watertown in First Step of New Clean-up

BLIND PIGGERS—A blind pig dives in the Puuloa district were dealt such a stiff blow by Lt. quor Inspector W. H. Hutton, leading a systematic raid of Watertown last night, that it is believed a permanent crimp has been put in the illicit business which has been growing apace in that vicinity.

Accompanied by his assistant, John Roberts, and aided by a force from Capt. McDuffie's department—Detectives Swift, Stein, Silva, Hao, Ah Kui, Okampo and Suzuki led by Sergeant John Kelleet—Hutton surrounded five places, arrested the proprietors, confiscated a whole car load of beer and was back in Honolulu with his haul and prisoners before midnight.

Two Forfeit Cash Bail
The defendants were Kawakami, H. Sato, Takahashi and Nakura, all Japanese, and Pak Kyung Moon, Korean. Kawakami and Nakura posted $100 cash bail each on the spot and did not come to town. The bail was declared forfeited this morning when they did not appear in police court for trial. The others were arraigned and will be heard April 27.

Hutton's first big catch and raid since his appointment as liquor inspector, from the time two machines swooped out of the darkness until the last bottle of beer had been found, was accomplished with dispatch. With the hearty cooperation of army authorities five of the most notorious places were sought out, surrounded and sacked.

Buy Goods in Quantity
It was learned last night that the general custom of soldiers from Fort Alamogordo who patronize the public places is to buy their bottles of beer in large numbers and take them to camp fires on the outskirts of the place to have a party although several soldiers were found in the places visited last night.

Army officers who came to Puuloa last night to offer the services of the provost guard in case of emergency said that the joints not only sold beer but had recently been offering some fierce acid concoction that was enough to kill a man less hardy than a good American soldier.

What Bloodstain was to Wahiawa that this spot has been to Puuloa and Hutton has been working for weeks, preparing his evidence and laying plans that would eventually close the unrestricted booze selling district. It has been known for some time that beer was being hauled to Watertown in large quantities but how to get a conviction has been the question.

Although it is generally believed that army authorities will put a ban temporarily at least on the Watertown district the same as was done at Wahiawa, prohibiting soldiers from going into the district under any pretext, Hutton was especially anxious to arrest those who are said to have been old offenders in that district and by his thoroughness he accomplished this last night.

Plans Well Laid
There was not a mishap, not a mistake nor sign of trouble in carrying out the scheme of the raid. The cars left town about 8 o'clock, were hid in a by-lane and the places approached on foot. There were no leaks, the stroke seemed absolutely unexpected and there was no difficulty in locating sellers and their supply.

Altogether it was one of the severest blows delivered in months against selling liquor without a license.

SITE OF CANOPUS BROUGHT TO LIGHT BY DANINOS PASHA

CAIRO, Egypt—The site of Canopus, one of the most ancient cities of Egypt, has been found, according to Daninos Pasha who claims the honor of making the discovery. For many years he has maintained that its site lay somewhere in the region of Aboukir Bay and, apparently, his contention is now proved to be correct.

Before the foundation of Alexandria, Canopus was the commercial capital of the country and the most important religious center in lower Egypt. Excavations have already brought to light a great public bath of the Ptolemaic period, about 15 feet in length. It is divided into twenty chambers of which the largest is about 24 feet long and the same width. There are rooms for various forms of baths, such as hip and mud baths and a large hall which was evidently used for massage purposes and the preparation of aromatic oil.

Bronze coins found in various rooms bear the effigies of Ptolemy Soter, Ptolemy Emergates and Queen Berenice. Of the several statues unearthed, the most interesting is that of a Chinese figure, which shows, it is contended, that in the dim past relations must have existed between China and this ancient capital of Egypt.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Reading matter for a literacy test for aliens under the new immigration law will be taken from the Bible, the department of labor has announced. # YOUNG MAN HAS VERY LARGE JOB

LONDON, Eng.—One of "Lloyd George's young men" as they call the group of business men whom the Premier has brought into his cabinet, is Albert H. Illingworth, the postmaster general. Old politicians were not a little surprised at his appointment, for he was unknown in the political world a year ago. Mr. Illingworth is the head of one of the largest worsted spinning firms in England and a large French firm of woolcombers whose works have been almost destroyed by the German army. Financially, Illingworth has been one of the heaviest sufferers in England from the war.

As postmaster general of Great Britain he administers the largest state-owned business in the world. The British postoffice has charge of all telephones and telegraphs, distributes pensions and separation allowances, collects revenues and taxes of various kinds, and is an important cog in the machinery of issuing government loans.

The postoffice employs in normal times about 250,000 persons. Its Savings Bank department has 18,000,000 deposits and about $1,000,000,000 in deposits. It has sold "war saving certificates" to a total of nearly $1,000,000,000. The army postoffice service alone employs about 4,000 men, and handles 18,000,000 letters and parcels every week.

Illingworth is the first Postmaster General ever appointed in Great Britain with virtually no parliamentary experience. In the opinion of Lloyd George, "business experience and aptitude are the master qualifications." Illingworth, although a great disciple of "efficiency," is not a revolutionist, but he has already found occasion to put some rather startling changes into effect.

PETROGRAD, Russia, April 19.—A report from Jassy, Rumania, which was made public by the Russian general staff last night announced that the Germans have been burning the towns of Braila and Fokshani in Rumania. In the opinion of experts here this is taken to mean that von Mackensen is getting ready to evacuate his present lines in Rumania. It may fore shadow a general retirement.
