WRAPPED IN UNITED COUPONS

THOUSANDS OF AUSTRALIANS BOUND FOR FRONT CONVOYED BY JAPANESE

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence) HILLO, June 15. —Thirty big steamers sailed away from a certain Australian port the other day and they were transports with thousands of young Australians on board, all bound for the front somewhere in Europe or Asia. writes a relative of a Hillo man.

The big fleet of transports bearing men, horses and foodstuffs for man and beast, was in charge of a squadron of Japanese warships. The Japanese navy has been doing great work in this part of the world.

The Australians of the right sort are freely volunteering for the army and the holes in the ranks of those at the front are being kept filled, despite the efforts of the slackers to prevent enlistments. There is no doubt in my mind that we have in Australia a very undesirable element in the shape of pro-German citizens. They are mostly of Irish descent and while pro-German may be too harsh a term to use, they, at least, are haters of England. These despicable people do not form a very large proportion of the population, but they do exist in fairly large numbers.

We were all glad to see that a great country like the United States realized from the start that conscription, or rather universal service for men of military age, was a necessity. That settles the question right at the jump and places every man on his mettle. The conscription question was, as you know, put up to the voters here, and was beaten in the referendum.

The matter may, however, be revived before long and then there will not be a vote taken. It will be ordered that every fit man take up the burden by the state and get into the army as quickly as possible.

There are thousands of soldiers being trained in the various camps in each state and, so far, the regiments at the front have been kept up to full strength. All Australia is ringing with praise for our troops for what they did on the western front in the big drive. There is no doubt that the colonial troops from all parts of the British empire have made their mark in this great war of all wars.

American Move Pleases
The entry of the United States into the war is helping a lot in the big seas as it relieves the British and Japanese navies of a lot of patrol work that they had to do in the past. Those American destroyers must be a fine lot also, judging from the manner in which they are helping out on the Atlantic. I formed a very good opinion of the American sailors when the United States fleet visited the Australian ports some years ago.

"I suppose you saw in the papers that a German raider that had been operating in the South Seas actually had the cheek to enter our harbor and try to get supplies. The captain pretended that his ship was a Norwegian one, but he was soon bowled out and he and his crew are now in an internment camp, while the vessel is being used to a better purpose."

WAR VETERANS IN ANNUAL MEET

The annual convention of the United Spanish War Veterans adjourned yesterday morning following the election of officers as follows: Commander, R. F. Kelly, Camp No. 1; senior vice commander, J. A. Phillips, Camp No. 1; junior vice commander, Leslie King, Camp No. 5; department inspector, Lawrence Twomey, Camp No. 1; surgeon, Dr. W. A. Schwallie, Camp No. 1; department chaplain, Julius Rumlill, Camp No. 1; department marshal, William Holden, Camp No. 5.

The veterans convened in Mansfield hall, Fort Shafter, Saturday. Officers elected by the Military Order of the Serpent, the second degree organization of the Spanish War Veterans, were Dick E. Kelley, G. G. G.; Maze Crow, grand dato, and John E. McNeil, Isidor Manheim, Samuel E. Jenkins and F. H. Hodge, sick and slimy keepers.

Sgt. W. L. Blabon presided at a business meeting of the military order which was followed by the department encampment of the war veterans convened for organization purposes. W. H. Duty, department commander, presided. Reports were received and proposed enactments filed. The Military Order of the Serpent reconvened in the evening for ritualistic work. A parade and serpentine planned by the military orders was abandoned.

Committees reporting were: Credentials committee, John S. Beat, department adjutant; John Wainwright, department marshal, and P. J. Corey, assistant department adjutant; enactments and resolutions committee, W. L. Blabon, senior vice department commander; Thomas Fallon, commander Camp No. 4; Boss Smith, commander Camp No. 5; J. E. McNellis, commander Camp No. 6; Edward J. Anderson, commander Camp No. 2; Joseph Leah, senior vice commander Camp No. 1; and Patrick Brennan, senior vice commander Camp No. 3; auditing committee, Leslie King, junior vice department commander; James Hawkins, department chaplain, and Thomas Smith, commander Camp No. 3.

HOLD UP REQUEST OF WILDER FOR NEW AUTO

At a brief meeting Saturday the territorial board of disposals delayed action on a request from Tax Assessor Charles T. Wilder for the purchase of a new auto, $900 being allowed on his old one. The matter was discussed, but was finally deferred to a later meeting.

The board granted a request of the harbor master for the sale of some old material on the Davies warehouse site. Henry Hapel, acting treasurer, was allowed the privilege of disposing of an old Remington typewriter which he will turn in as part payment on a new Underwood.

SALVATION ARMY QUARTERS OPEN

With Commissioner Thomas Estill of Chicago present, the new headquarters of the Salvation Army, Beretania street, near Fort, were formally opened on Saturday evening with a large crowd filling the spacious hall. Mayor John C. Lane was chairman and brief addresses outlining the work of the Salvation Army in these islands were delivered by Rev. J. H. Williams, Rev. L. L. Loofbourrow and Minister D. C. Peters.

At 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning a united holiness meeting was held in the new hall and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon there was a Christian praise meeting. The services last night were well attended, they being preceded by a large street meeting at which the girls' band of the Salvation Army home, Manoa, played.

Commissioner Estill held a council with the Salvation Army officers this morning and was to meet with them again this afternoon. Tonight's exercises at 7:30 o'clock include the following:

7:30 p. m.—Young people's demonstration. Drills, recitations, dialogues and musical numbers by young people's classes. First-aid demonstration by the life-saving guards, signaling and stretcher drill by life-saving scouts.

TWO WEEKS' ART EXHIBIT PLANNED

Preparations were begun today by the Pan-Pacific Club for an exhibit of the best work of Hawaii's leading artists, this and next week in the Pan-Pacific pavilion, Bisoap street.

Several pieces of sculpture by Gordon Usborne will be shown. Another feature of the new exhibit will be a touched painting of Kilauea Volcano, by Howard Hitchcock. Paintings of Waimea Canyon, Kauai, and the extinct crater of Haleakala, Maui, by the same artist, will also be on view.

Other artists of note will include Christmas, Patterson, Twigg-Smith, and Walden. The plan is to have educational features, so the public will be well informed concerning the paintings and the artists.

PUPILS OF BACH SCHOOL APPEAR

Under the direction of Edith Kawasaki, the second pupils' recital of the Bach Pianoforte School will be held tonight, beginning at 7:45, in the P.H.S. school hall of Central Union church.

HAMS AT 25 CENTS THE POUND

MERCHANT'S WIFE ADVISES HONOLULU WOMEN

"I had stomach trouble so bad I could eat nothing but toast, fruit and hot water. Everything else soured and formed gas. Dieting did no good. I was miserable until I tried buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika. ONE SPOONFUL benefited me INSTANTLY." Because Adler-ika empties BOTH large and small intestine it relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has QUICK-EST action of anything we ever sold. PLENTY LAUGHS ON HAWAII BILL

Douglas Fairbanks is the big attraction at the Hawaii theater for the early part of the present week. He is appearing in a typical Fairbanks role and appearing with typical Fairbanks success. That is to say his work is to make folks laugh, and last night he made his audience simply roar. Fairbanks is always a welcome tonic and in "The Habit of Happiness" he is stronger than ever. His big job in the play is to create laughter.

"Sunny" Sammy Wiggins is the name assumed by Fairbanks in "The Habit of Happiness" and he is "Sunny Sammy" from start to finish. Of course, no Fairbanks films would be complete without this star being given an opportunity to demonstrate his prowess as an athlete. Consequently there is a thrilling fight scene, in which Fairbanks takes care of a bunch of thugs in regular Fairbanks style. There is also a romance and "Sunny Sammy" wins out all along the line, after it looks as though he did not have a "look in."

The Hawaii bill is long on comedy, the companion offering being a Keystone Comedy entitled "A Bathhouse Blunder," with Charles Murray the featured artist.

Why Straight-Distilled Gasoline

A Continuous Chain of Boiling Points
High Boiling Points for power & mileage
Medium Boiling Points for quick & smooth acceleration
Low Boiling Points for easy starting

Because, in a straight-distilled gasoline the boiling points gradually rise in a continuous unbroken chain, giving easy starting, quick and smooth acceleration, power and mileage. Boiling points alone reveal gasoline quality. As the U. S. Bureau of Standards states, gravity tells you nothing. No mixture, however cleverly concocted and no matter what its gravity, can contain the correct, unbroken series of boiling points.

Red Crown is guaranteed to be a straight-distilled refinery gasoline, the boiling points of which form a continuous chain. Red Crown is not a mixture.
