OPEN CHARGE ACCOUNT

SEEKS $10,000 ON LIBEL CHARGE

Resenting an editorial in the Advertiser referring to the placing of a sentry near the entrance of the Occidental hotel on King street when the army authorities were endeavoring to prevent soldiers from carrying liquor into rooming houses and drinking it, E. H. F. Wolter, proprietor of the Occidental, has filed in circuit court a suit for alleged damages in which he seeks to recover $10,000 from the morning paper.

In part, the plaintiff's complaint says: "By the use of the word Occidental the defendant meant and intended specifically to refer to the place of business of the plaintiff, and to say that the plaintiff there conducted the business of selling liquor, contrary to the provisions of law, as to violating the laws of the United States of America by selling intoxicating liquor to men wearing the uniform of the United States Army."

FERN DENIES HIRING FIELD

Mayor Joseph Fern absolutely denied today that in his official capacity as mayor he had alone or with others engaged H. Gooding Field to investigate the books or reports of the city auditor.

William McClellan, Democratic supervisor, said that before he and other elected Democrats took office they wished to know the status of the city and county's financial condition and had asked Field to make an investigation and report.

That Field has never requested to look at his books, but has simply asked to see his reports, is the statement made today by James Bicknell, auditor. "Field has never attempted to audit my books," said Bicknell, "but he may do so for there is a law which permits anybody to go over the books of any department providing it doesn't interfere with business."

ATTORNEY'S REQUEST FOR ADDITIONAL HELP O. K.

The request of the city and county attorney for an assistant prosecuting attorney for the district court and an additional stenographer and typewriter has been approved by Mayor J. J. Fern in a letter to the board yesterday morning and he recommends that they make the necessary provisions for their employment.

ESTATE AWAITS CALDWELL HEIRS

The Honolulu detective bureau under the direction of the acting chief, John R. Kelleit, is attempting to locate E. P. Caldwell, or his widow and children. Caldwell is supposed to have come to Honolulu about 1900, and it is thought that he was married and had two children. The search for Caldwell was started as a result of a letter directed to the "chief of police" which was written by Frank J. Allen, an attorney of North Yakima, Wash.

The attorney states he has been informed that Caldwell died about two years ago, leaving the widow and two children. He says that Caldwell's heirs likely would be interested in quite an estate in Washington.

A search of the board of health records for the last three or four years fails to record the death of anyone by the name of Caldwell with the same initials as given by the attorney.

Any person having information of Caldwell or his heirs is requested to inform Detective Kelleit by telephoning to 1658.

Edward Cohen is a son of Joel C. Cohen of this city. He left here about a year ago to enter business. He has been appointed a first lieutenant in the army medical corps.
