

The Race For Evening Bulletin Prizes Has Started In Earnest

Many New Candidates Enter Great Contest---It Costs Absolutely Nothing to Nominate A Candidate

Prominent Young Women Are Nominated By Their Friends To Compete for the Many Grand Prizes --- Now Is the Time to Nominate Your Candidate

The Evening Bulletin Grand Popularity Contest for young women started Saturday with a large list of candidates, and many new additions are noted in today's issue. The list will undoubtedly grow from day to day with a steady increase of votes for those who have resolved to win one of the seventeen grand prizes offered by the Evening Bulletin. The readers of this paper and friends of contestants can help their favorites by a very little effort on their part. To cut the coupons from the Bulletin is a small thing, but these may be the means by which some young woman will win the elegant 1912 completely equipped "Regal" automobile or one of the many valuable prizes.

Contestants and their friends should remember these facts: In each district will be given one handsome $550 "Remington" player-piano; one perfect $100 Diamond Ring; one Solid Gold Ladies' Watch and one trip to Kilauea or Honolulu and return.

Contestants can take subscriptions from any part of the United States, any part of the Territory, or any part of the world. The districts have been arranged simply for the equal distribution of the prizes. The 1912 "Regal" automobile will go to the young woman who receives the most votes in all districts.

Votes Free to Patrons.
That votes that will decide a who shall become the proud possessors of these magnificent prizes are free to the Bulletin's patrons. All that is required of the candidate in order to win in this popular voting contest is industry and a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Subscribers can vote by clipping the coupons from the paper daily, as each of these counts if the expiration date printed thereon. People subscribing and paying their subscriptions, also old subscribers paying arrears or prepaying their subscriptions, will receive a special "vote" coupon which can be voted at any time during the contest.

Therefore, any person who wants to encourage an ambitious young woman can do so by paying or prepaying his or her subscription to the Bulletin and giving her the special vote coupon. Votes will be allowed and credited to the candidates selected by the patrons according to the schedule published daily in the Bulletin. Payments may be made at the Bulletin office, or to any candidate or representative of this paper. Candidates may also solicit and collect subscriptions in all cases giving the subscriber the receipt authorized by the Evening Bulletin for that purpose.

Nominations.
The contest will be a short and sharp one. It has just started, but within a few short weeks it will be over and the prizes gained. No contestant in any of the districts has any great amount of votes, and there is plenty of time for new contestants to enter the race and have the same chance to win as those already on the list. If you should wish to enter the contest and share in the many splendid prizes that will be awarded, or should desire to see a friend, relative or acquaintance in the list of candidates, and no nomination has been entered for her, you should take steps to see that such nomination is placed on file at once or telephone the Contest Manager. He will give you prompt attention.

If there is anything concerning the contest that you do not understand write to the Contest Manager. There will be a daily write-up in the paper each day from now on until the close of the contest, and those interested can keep in close touch with the contest and competing candidates. Certain it is that seventeen young women of the Territory are each going to get one of these magnificent awards, and it is left to the readers of the Bulletin to decide.

Anyone who desires to vote in this contest may do so by coupons clipped from the Bulletin and by special vote ballots obtained by subscribing to the Bulletin. The ballots secured by subscribing may be held as long as desired and voted at any time up to the close of the contest, but coupons cut from the paper are good only for ten days from the date of publication, and will not be counted if voted after the date printed thereon.

Persons living in one district are not confined to voting for candidates in their own districts, but may vote for anybody in the race.

This affords the young women of the Territory an excellent opportunity to receive valuable presents and splendid trips at the expense of the Evening Bulletin.

Write for Information.
If you do not fully understand the proposition or there is any information you desire about the details, write to or call upon the Contest Manager. He will take pleasure in giving you the data you desire and if you will file the nomination of yourself or some friend we will send the necessary blanks and forms with which to conduct the canvass for free votes.

Unpaid Subscriptions Count.
All subscribers to the Bulletin who are in arrears on their subscription accounts, and who pay up the same, are entitled to vote, according to the amount paid. When you pay your subscription be sure you receive the votes to which you are entitled.

Summary of Prizes Offered.
The Grand Capital Prize --- a handsome 1912 completely-equipped "Regal" automobile, will go to the young woman having the greatest number of votes at the conclusion of the contest, regardless of the district she may reside in. In each of the four districts will be given an elegant $550 "Remington" player-piano; a handsome $100 diamond ring; a solid gold ladies' watch and a trip to Kilauea or Honolulu and return.
