(BY THE CONTEST EDITOR)
And still the interest in the Bulletin's Grand Popularity Campaign continues to grow. Thursday was another big contest day and the way the votes piled in for various candidates was an interesting sight. It is gratifying to the management to notice the wonderful interest already shown and there is no doubt but that this contest will prove the greatest and most interesting ever seen in the Territory. The Bulletin has endeavored to give the young women who compete prizes worth winning and a large amount of money has been spent in securing these awards. Hence it is gratifying to note that the prizes are appreciated and that the young women are fully awake to the value of the prizes that will so soon be claimed by them. Candidates in the outside towns are taking a keen interest and already everyone throughout the Islands is talking about the big Bulletin campaign.

the hardest fought in the history of the country, everyone will want the fullest details in connection. The Bulletin is always in the front rank in disseminating news. The Bulletin will carry the latest and most complete reports of every maneuver brought forth by the past-masters of politics. Secure these subscriptions now, when they will do you some real good. If desired, we can hold them for delivery at any future date designated by the subscriber, while you secure the benefit of the votes now.

Second Payments.
For the benefit of those who might not understand, we wish to explain that any subscriber who has started to take the paper since the start of the contest is always considered as new during the life of the contest. Those persons who have subscribed for short-term periods—two, three or six months—and who wish to extend their subscriptions, as they always wish to do after reading the Bulletin for a while, will be considered new and votes will be issued as new. A person who has subscribed for, say, three months gained you 3000 votes, if new; by getting this subscriber to extend another three months, you secure 7000 votes on the "Second Payment." Mark all such subscriptions "Second Payment" in order that you may secure the full number of votes. Do not overlook these second payments. They are important.

Contest Mathematics.
Did you ever stop to think how very few subscriptions would be necessary to place the name of any candidate among the leaders? For instance, one new yearly subscription entitles the candidate to 25,000 votes. Two of these subscriptions would place any candidate on top. There is not a candidate in the contest who could not secure at least three or four subscriptions in half a day's time. Do you not think these elegant prizes are worth your effort? Now is the time to act.

Active Campaigns Started.
Active campaigns have been started by many of the most popular candidates, and these are the ones whose names appear among the topmost ones. Any candidate can be a top-notcher in a day's time. Many more candidates are starting active work each day. Do you value your opportunities in life? If so, now is the time for you to enter your name, or if it has already been entered to start out among your friends, interesting them in your work and securing their votes and subscriptions. The majority of people in the city are already taking the Bulletin and would be only too glad to make their payments to you, especially when these payments will prove of such great assistance to you.

Then, too, during the coming political campaign, which will prove one of most be voted within ten days from date of publication.

There is still plenty of time for new candidates to enter and win. In fact, new candidates are entering daily. The contest will be short and sharp, but no one has as yet secured a commanding lead, so if you really desire one of these prizes, do not put off entering. Do it Today! You will find that it has been the best thing you have ever done, and when the finish comes you will place such a value upon your prize that you will never cease rejoicing in having entered and having stuck to the finish.

When Votes Are Counted.
Vote-counting for each day ends at noon. All votes received up to 12 o'clock each day are counted and published in the next day's paper. Those received after 12 o'clock do not appear until the second day following their receipt. This rule is made necessary because of the large number of votes received each day for various candidates, and without it the counting for any one day would never be finished. Do not forget this, and if you want your votes to appear in the paper of a certain day, see that they reach this office before noon of the day preceding.

Contest Office Hours.
The Contest Office is open all day and up to 8 o'clock in the evening, for the benefit of those who cannot make their visits during the day. Remember this, and if you do not find time during the day to make your visits to this office, come in the evening.
